People are changed not by ethical urging but by transformed imagination.

Walter Brueggemann

Jesus in the desert ...looks towards God and there's nothing there that will solve a problem, nothing there that will sweep away all the questions.

What there is is truth and love and patience and endless welcome.

Rowan Williams

Meeting God on Mondays

SPIRITUALITY SERIES 2018

St Peter's Cathedral invites you to
"Meeting God
on Mondays"
- a series of events exploring spirituality

*The news is that this temple called Jesus is our true habitat.
That is where we are bound in faith to live our life and claim our identities. Most of us, most of the time, find ourselves in the wrong temple. Our work in Lent is to move from these fake temples to the true temple who is Jesus.
And then to receive a different life, the life he lives,
the one to which we are invited.*

Lent Study

A Way Other Than Our Own

by Walter Brueggemann

Mondays at 10.00am & 7.00pm – Thursdays
in the Cynthia Poulton Hall

Walter Brueggemann is an Old Testament scholar.

In his devotions for Lent, 'A Way Other Than Our Own' we begin our Lenten journey addressed by the remarkable assurance that the God who summons us is the God who goes along with us. Lent recalls times of wilderness and wandering. Walter Brueggemann's thought-provoking reflections invite us to consider the challenging, beautiful life that comes with walking the way of grace. Each week two devotions will be considered in depth along with prayers by Walter Brueggemann and video clips of his talks or sermons.

Being Disciples – a study

by Rowan Williams

Mondays at 10.00am & 7.00pm – Thursdays
in the Cynthia Poulton Hall

Being Disciples : Essentials of the Christian Life Rowan Williams, one of our greatest living theologians, is a well-loved author of the 'Meeting God on Mondays' study group.

In September 2018 'Being Disciples : Essentials of the Christian Life' will offer a fresh and inspiring look at the meaning of discipleship.

This book promises that we will see more clearly, love more dearly and follow more nearly the way of Jesus Christ as it unpacks the essentials of the Christian life, including faith, hope and love, forgiveness, holiness, social action and life in the Spirit.
