St George's Day

Welcome:

*Risen Jesus,
we thank you for your greeting,
"Peace be with you."
The shalom of God, deep lasting peace;
peace that brings inner calm;
that keeps a person steady in the storm;
that faces a persecutor without fear and proclaims the good news with courage and with joy.
This is the peace that reconciles sister to brother, black to white, rich and poor, young and old;
but not a peace that is quiet
in the face of oppression and injustice.
This is peace with God,
the peace that passes understanding.
John Johansen-Berg*

Thank you to all for a wonderful celebration of Holy Week and Easter. Welcome to all for whom Christ died and rose again.

*The Very Rev'd Frank Nelson
Dean*

St Peter's Cathedral is a Christ-centred, sacramental, inclusive, thinking, mission-oriented, faith community. The Cathedral resides on the lands of the Kaurna people whom we acknowledge as the original custodians of the Adelaide Region.

Please stand when the handbell rings.

1. God beyond earth's finest treasures, you alone shall have my praise,
I will love your cherished people
I will serve you all my days ;
be my ruler,
be my refuge,
God that guardian of my ways.

2. You have caused my life to prosper - countless gifts your love has planned!
Day and night your wisdom prompts me,
shows me all that you command
God before me,
God beside me,
Safe within your care I stand.

3. When my earthly days are over, fresh delights remain in store:
vaster riches, fuller pleasures than I ever knew before - life unending, joy unfading
in your presence evermore.

Tune: St Helen G C Martin (1844-1916)
Words: M Leckebusch (b. 1962)

Christ is risen. Alleluia! He is risen indeed. Alleluia! Alleluia!

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! By his great mercy he has given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.
1 Peter 1.3

Let us pray (please kneel)

Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hidden: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you and worthily magnify your holy name, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Christ our Passover Lamb has been offered for us, therefore we come to celebrate the festival.

A collect for St George

God of legend and chivalry, we praise you for George the martyred soldier saint, dragon slayer, rescuer of maidens in distress; we thank you for all the idealism his name has inspired. Keep us simple, we pray, and faithful. Amen.

Please sit for the first reading: Acts 2.14a, 22-32 (Read by Ranjini Nitchingham)

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them: 'You that are Israelites, listen to what I have to say: Jesus of Nazareth, a man attested to you by God with deeds of power, wonders, and signs that God did through him among you, as you yourselves know – this man, handed over to you according to the definite plan and foreknowledge of God, you crucified and killed by the hands of those outside the law. But God raised him up, having freed him from death, because it was impossible for him to be held in its power. For David says concerning him, "I saw the Lord always before me, for he is at my right hand so that I will not be shaken; therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced;

moreover, my flesh will live in hope.
For you will not abandon my soul to Hades, or let your Holy One experience corruption.
You have made known to me the ways of life;
you will make me full of gladness with your presence."

'Fellow Israelites, I may say to you confidently of our ancestor David that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. Since he was a prophet, he knew that God had sworn with an oath to him that he would put one of his descendants on his throne. Foreseeing this, David spoke of the resurrection of the Messiah, saying, "He was not abandoned to Hades, nor did his flesh experience corruption."

This Jesus God raised up, and of that all of us are witnesses.
Hear the word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

The Psalm: Ps 16

Preserve me, O God: for in you have I taken refuge.

I have said to the Lord, You are my lord: and all my good depends on you.

As for those who are held holy on the earth: the other gods in whom people delight, Though the idols are many that they run after:

their offerings of blood I will not offer, nor take their name upon my lips.

The Lord is my appointed portion and my cup: you hold my lot in your hands.

The share that has fallen to me is in pleasant places: and a fair land is my possession.

I will bless the Lord who has given me counsel: at night also he has instructed my heart.

I have set the Lord always before me: he is at my right hand, and I shall not fall.

Therefore my heart is glad and my spirit rejoices: my flesh also shall rest secure.

For you will not give me over to the power of death:

nor suffer your faithful one to see the Pit.

You will show me the path of life:

in your presence is the fulness of joy, and from your right hand flow delights for evermore.

Second reading: 1 Peter 1.1-12 (Read by Niran Nitchingham)

Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, To the exiles of the Dispersion in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, who have been chosen and destined by God the Father and sanctified by the Spirit to be obedient to Jesus Christ and to be sprinkled with his blood: May grace and peace be yours in abundance.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! By his great mercy he has given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, and into an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who are being protected by the power of God through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. In this you rejoice, even if now for a little while you have had to suffer various trials, so that the genuineness of your faith – being more precious than gold that, though perishable, is tested by fire – may be found to result in praise and glory and honour when Jesus Christ is revealed. Although you have not seen him, you love him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and rejoice with an indescribable and glorious joy, for you are receiving the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

Concerning this salvation, the prophets who prophesied of the grace that was to be yours made careful search and inquiry, inquiring about the person or time that the Spirit of Christ within them indicated, when it testified in advance to the sufferings destined for Christ and the subsequent glory. It was revealed to them that they were serving not themselves but you, in regard to the things that have now been announced to you through those who brought you good news by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven – things into which angels long to look!

Hear the word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

1. Breathe on me, Breath of God,
fill me with life anew,
that I may love what thou dost love,
and do what thou wouldst do.
2. Breathe on me, Breath of God, until my heart is pure;
until with thee I will one will,
to do and to endure.
3. Breathe on me, Breath of God,
till I am wholly thine;
until this earthly part of me
glows with thy fire divine.
4. Breathe on me, Breath of God:
so shall I never die,
but live with thee the perfect life
of thine eternity.

Tune: Carlisle, C Lockhart 1745-1815
Words: Edwin Hatch 1835-1889

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

All sing

Glo - ry to you, Lord Je - sus Christ

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, 'Peace be with you.' After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, 'Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.' When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, 'Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.'

But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, 'We have seen the Lord.' But he said to them, 'Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe.'

A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, 'Peace be with you.' Then he said to Thomas, 'Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe.' Thomas answered him, 'My Lord and my God!' Jesus said to him, 'Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe.'

Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

This is the Gospel of the Lord,

Praise to you, Lord Je - sus Christ

Children are invited to follow the Gospel procession down the aisle to the altar where their cross will be collected, then go to the Cynthia Poulton Hall for Cathedral Kids.

Please sit for the Sermon: The Very Rev'd Frank Nelson

Let us together affirm the faith of the Church. (Please stand)

We believe in one God, the Father, the almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son, is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Please sit or kneel

Let us pray for the world and for the Church (led by Roslyn Marley)

A Prayer for St George's Day

Heavenly Father, We thank you for the life and bravery of St. George. Help us to follow his example in our lives and in the world. To be fearless in the face of evil and bigotry, to slay the dragons of prejudice and greed, and follow the quest for a world of justice and peace. Give us the strength to overcome, as St George did, all that is contrary to your rule of peace and love. Help us like him to stand up for the truth and the glory of God, to seek ways to bring succour to the poor, sight to the blind, freedom to the oppressed, release to the captive and God's good news to all. We ask this in the name of your Son Jesus Christ, Amen.

The intercessor concludes:

Accept our prayers through Jesus Christ our Lord, who taught us to pray

Alleluia!

Alleluia!
6. No longer Thomas then denied;
he saw the feet, the hands, the side;
'Thou art my Lord and God,' he cried.

for they eternal life shall win.

Remain Standing

Blessed are you, Lord, God of all creation. Through your goodness we have these gifts to share. Accept and use our offerings for your glory and for the service of your kingdom. Blessed be God for ever.

Priest People

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Priest People

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Priest

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

All glory and honour, be yours always and everywhere, mighty Creator, everliving God. We give you thanks and praise for your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ, who by the power of your Spirit was born of Mary and lived as one of us.

By his death on the cross he offered the one true sacrifice for sin and obtained an eternal deliverance for his people.

And now we give you thanks that you raised him to life triumphant, and exalted him in glory.

By his victory over death, the reign of sin is ended, a new day has dawned, a broken world is restored and we are made whole once more.

Therefore with angels and archangels and with all the company of heaven, we proclaim your great and glorious name, for ever praising you and saying:

All sing: Sanctus and Benedictus

Organ Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Ho - ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho -
- san - na in the high - est.
mf Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. f Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Merciful God, we thank you for these gifts of your creation, this bread and wine and we pray that by your Word and Holy Spirit, we who eat and drink them may be partakers of Christ's body and blood.

On the night he was betrayed Jesus took bread; and when he had given you thanks he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, 'Take, eat. This is my body given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.'

After supper, he took the cup, and again giving thanks he gave it to his disciples, saying, 'Drink from this, all of you. This is my blood of the new covenant shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.'

Therefore we do as our Saviour has commanded: proclaiming his offering of himself made once for all upon the cross, his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension, and looking for his coming again, we celebrate, with this bread and this cup, his one perfect and sufficient sacrifice for the sins of the whole world.

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith:

Renew us by your Holy Spirit, unite us in the body of your Son, and bring us with all your people into the joy of your eternal kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord, with whom, and in whom, in the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, we worship you, Father, in songs of never-ending praise:

As this broken bread was once many grains, which have been gathered together and made one bread:
so may your Church be gathered from the ends of the earth into your kingdom.

Alleluia! Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us. Come, let us celebrate the feast.
Draw near with faith, to feed on Christ on your hearts with thanksgiving.

Alleluia!

All sing: Agnus Dei

Baptised and communicant Christians of all denominations are welcome to receive Holy Communion. Communion will be administered at the nave platform Please follow the guidance of stewards and servers. Gluten free bread is available; please ask for this from the priest giving communion. If you do not wish to receive Holy Communion, you may like to come forward and receive a blessing (simply bow your head as a signal).

During the administration of communion the organist will play.

Let us pray: (Please kneel)

Eternal God, giver of life, in the breaking of the bread we know the risen Lord. May we who celebrate this holy feast walk in his risen light and bring new life to all creation. Most loving God, you send us into the world you love. Give us grace to go thankfully and with courage in the power of your Spirit. Amen.
