24 June 2018

Welcome:

Who is this man? This is the question that the gospel writer Mark asks over and over again of Jesus. We hear it today's Gospel reading, the first of a cluster of miracle stories. It's a question that begs an answer as much today as in St Mark's day. How we answer it will shape our response to Jesus. Tonight's second reading offers the 2nd of the miracle stories – the dramatic exorcism of the man possessed by a legion of demons.

Next Sunday (1 July) we will celebrate our Patronal Festival (St Peter's Day is actually on 29 June) – marking 149 years since the laying of the foundation stone of this Cathedral. Over the years Cathedral people have supported many worthy enterprises, and continue to do so. Come ready to add your offering to a special retiring collection to help AnglicareSA house Adelaide's homeless people. As we welcome all who worship today, we also say thank you and farewell to Dr Janny Spilsbury Schakel, Chair of the Cathedral Conservation Committee. Among her legacies is a detailed seven year plan for the conservation of the Cathedral.

Welcome, one and all.

The Very Rev'd Frank Nelson
Dean

Introit Hymn: #128 [Aberystwyth]

Jesu, lover of my soul

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him? Mark 4.41

Let us pray (please kneel/sit)

Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hidden:

Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you and worthily magnify your holy name, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God, the Lord is one; you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.' Jesus said: 'This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: you shall love your neighbour as yourself.'

Choir sings the Kyrie

Kyrie eleison

Christe eleison

Kyrie eleison

Lord, have mercy

Christ, have mercy

Lord, have mercy

Let us confess our sins in penitence and faith, confident in God's forgiveness.

Merciful God, our maker and our judge, we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, and in what we have failed to do:

We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves; we repent, and are sorry for all our sins.

Father, forgive us. Strengthen us to love and obey you in newness of life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, who has promised forgiveness to all who turn to him in faith:
pardon you and set you free from all your sins, strengthen you in all goodness and keep you in eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Please stand as the choir sings the Gloria

*Gloria in Excelsis Deo et in terra pax hominibus bonae voluntatis. Laudamus te, benedicimus te, adoramus te, glorificamus te, gratias agimus tibi propter magnam gloriam tuam. Domine Deus, Rex caelestis, Deus Pater omnipotens. Domine Fili unigenite, Jesu Christe, Domine
Deus, Agnus Dei, Filius Patris, qui tollis peccata mundi, miserere nobis; qui tollis peccata mundi, suscipe deprecationem nostram; qui sedes ad dexteram Patris, miserere nobis.*

Quoniam tu solus sanctus, tu solus Dominus, tu solus altissimus, Jesu Christe, cum Sancto Spiritu in gloria Dei Patris. Amen.

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to God's people on earth. Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory. Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Collect

O God our defender, storms rage about us and cause us to be afraid:
rescue your people from despair, deliver your sons and daughters from fear, and preserve us all from unbelief; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Please sit

First Reading: 1 Samuel 17: 32-49 (Read by Paul Scott)

David said to Saul, 'Let no one's heart fail because of Goliath; your servant will go and fight with this Philistine.' Saul said to David, 'You are not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him; for you are just a boy, and he has been a warrior from his youth.' But David said to Saul, 'Your servant used to keep sheep for his father; and whenever a lion or a bear came, and took a lamb from the flock, I went after it and struck it down, rescuing the lamb from its mouth; and if it turned against me, I would catch it by the jaw, strike it down, and kill it. Your servant has killed both lions and bears; and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be like one of them, since he has defied the armies of the living God.' David said, 'The Lord, who saved me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear, will save me from the hand of this Philistine.'

So Saul said to David, 'Go, and may the Lord be with you!' Saul clothed David with his armour; he put a bronze helmet on his head and clothed him with a coat of mail. David strapped Saul's sword over the armour, and he tried in vain to walk, for he was not used to them. Then David said to Saul, 'I cannot walk with these; for I am not used to them.' So David removed them. Then he took his staff in his hand, and chose five smooth stones from the wadi, and put them in his shepherd's bag, in the pouch; his sling was in his hand, and he drew near to the Philistine.

The Philistine came on and drew near to David, with his shield-bearer in front of him. When the Philistine looked and saw David, he disdained him, for he was only a youth, ruddy and handsome in appearance. The Philistine said to David, 'Am I a dog, that you come to me with sticks?'

And the Philistine cursed David by his gods. The Philistine said to David, 'Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the air and to the wild animals of the field.' But David said to the Philistine, 'You come to me with sword and spear and javelin; but I come to you in the name of the Lord of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied. This very day the Lord will deliver you into my hand, and I will strike you down and cut off your head; and I will give the dead bodies of the Philistine army this very day to the birds of the air and to the wild animals of the earth, so that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel, and that all this assembly may know that the Lord does not save by sword and spear; for the battle is the Lord's and he will give you into our hand.' When the Philistine drew nearer to meet David, David ran quickly towards the battle line to meet the Philistine. David put his hand in his bag, took out a stone, slung it, and struck the Philistine on his forehead; the stone sank into his forehead, and he fell face down on the ground.

Hear the word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

The Choir sings Psalm 9: 9 - 20

The Lord is a strong tower to those that are oppressed:

he is a tower of strength in time of need.

All who heed your name will trust in you:

for you have never forsaken those that seek you.

O sing praises to the Lord who dwells in Zion:

tell among the peoples what great things he has done.

For he that avenges blood has remembered the poor: he has not forgotten their cry.

The Lord has been merciful toward me, he saw what I suffered from my foes:

he raised me up again from the gates of death,

That I might tell all your praises in the gates of Zion:

that I might rejoice in your deliverance.

The nations have sunk into the pit they dug for others:

in the very snare they laid is their foot taken;

The Lord has declared himself and upheld the right:

the wicked are trapped in the work of their own hands.

The wicked shall be given over to death: and all the nations that forget God.

For the needy shall not always be forgotten:

nor shall the hope of the poor perish for ever.

Arise, Lord, let no human power prevail: let the nations be judged before you.

Put them in fear, O Lord: and let the nations know they are but human.

New Testament Reading: 2 Corinthians 6:1-13 (Read by Judith Thomas)

As we work together with him, we urge you also not to accept the grace of God in vain.

For he says, 'At an acceptable time I have listened to you, and on a day of salvation I have helped you.' See, now is the acceptable time; see, now is the day of salvation!

We are putting no obstacle in anyone's way, so that no fault may be found with our ministry, but as servants of God we have commended ourselves in every way: through great endurance, in afflictions, hardships, calamities, beatings, imprisonments, riots, labours, sleepless nights, hunger; by purity, knowledge, patience, kindness, holiness of spirit, genuine love, truthful speech, and the power of God; with the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and for the left; in honour and dishonour, in ill repute and good repute. We are treated as impostors, and yet are true; as unknown, and yet are well known; as dying, and see – we are alive; as punished, and yet not killed; as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing everything.

We have spoken frankly to you Corinthians; our heart is wide open to you. There is no restriction in our affections, but only in yours. In return – I speak as to children – open wide your hearts also.

Hear the word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn: #755 [University College]

Oft in danger, oft in woe

Remain standing for the Gospel reading: Mark 4:35-41

Alleluia, Alleluia

Who then is this: that even the wind and the sea obey him? Alleluia.

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark

All sing

Glo - ry to you, Lord Je - sus Christ

On that day, when evening had come, Jesus said to them, 'Let us go across to the other side.' And leaving the crowd behind, they took him with them in the boat, just as he was. Other boats were with him. A great gale arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that the boat was already being swamped. But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke him up and said to him, 'Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?' He woke up and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, 'Peace! Be still!' Then the wind ceased, and there was a dead calm. He said to them, 'Why are you afraid? Have you still no faith?' And they were filled with great awe and said to one another, 'Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?'

This is the Gospel of the Lord (All sing)

Praise to you, Lord Je - sus Christ

Children are invited to follow the Gospel procession down the aisle to the altar where their cross will be collected, then go to the Cynthia Poulton Hall for Cathedral Kids.

They will return in time for Communion.

Please sit for the sermon: The Rev'd Dr Lynn Arnold AO

Let us together affirm the faith of the Church. (Please stand)

We believe in one God, the Father, the almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son, is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

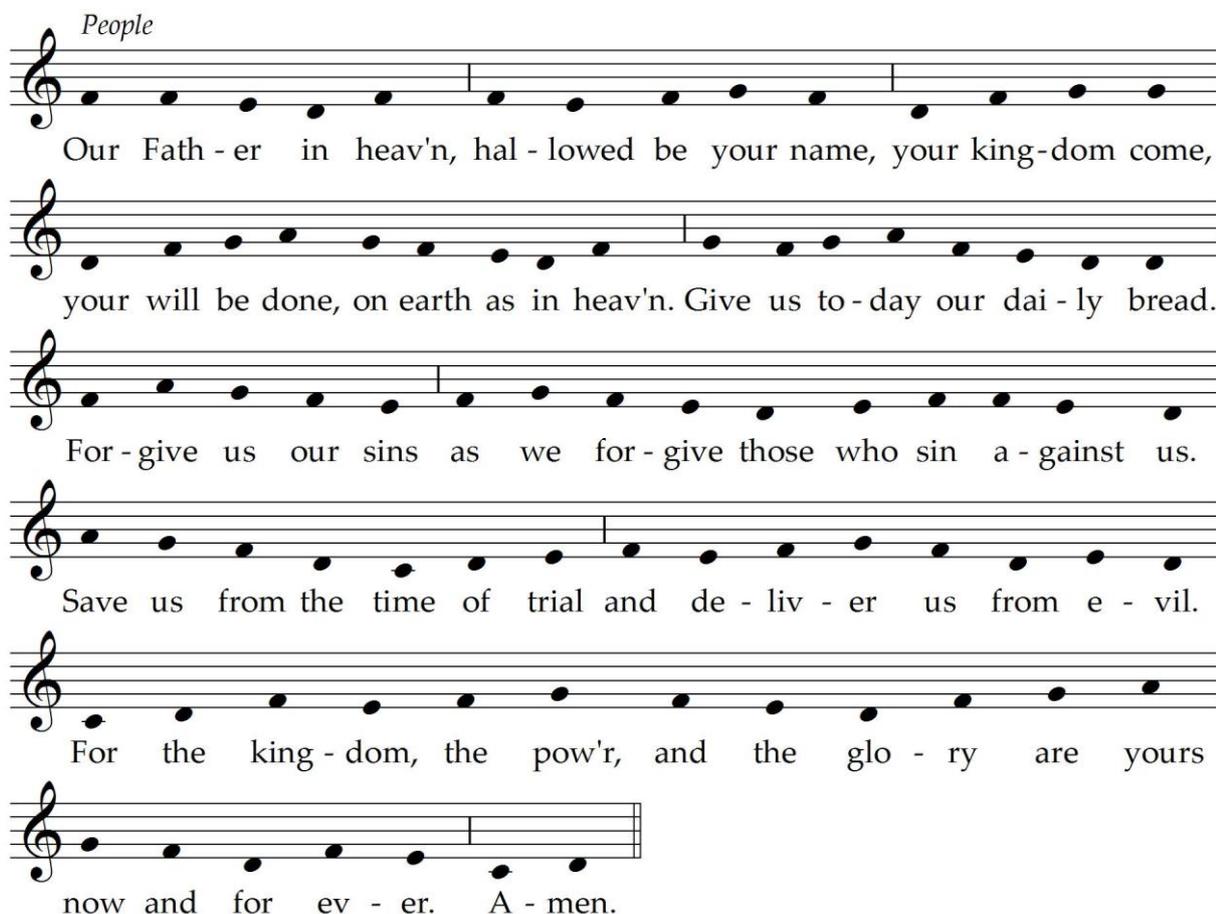

Please sit or kneel

Let us pray for the world and for the Church (led by Wendy Dawes)

The intercessor concludes:

Accept our prayers through Jesus Christ our Lord, who taught us to pray or by using envelopes. Complete a Planned Giving form and become a regular and faithful financial supporter.

Offertory Hymn: #623 [Melita]

Eternal Father, strong to save

Remain Standing

Blessed are you, Lord, God of all creation.

Through your goodness we have these gifts to share.

Accept and use our offerings for your glory and for the service of your kingdom.

Blessed be God for ever.

After supper, he took the cup, and again giving you thanks he gave it to his disciples saying, "Drink from this, all of you. This is my blood of the new covenant shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

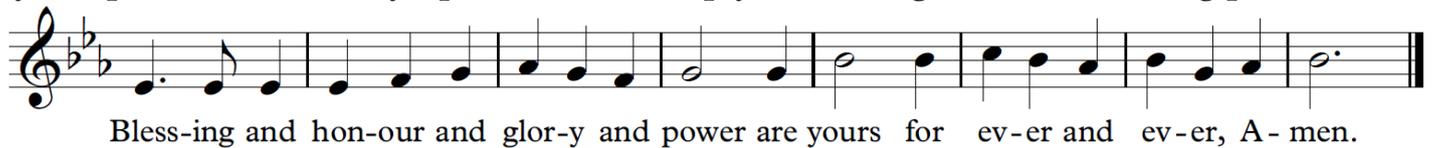

Therefore we do as our Saviour has commanded: proclaiming his offering of himself made once for all upon the cross, his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension, and looking for his coming again, we celebrate, with this bread and this cup, his one perfect and sufficient sacrifice for the sins of the whole world.

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith:

As we eat and drink this holy sacrament, renew us by your Spirit that we may be united in the body of your Son and serve you as a royal priesthood in the joy of your eternal kingdom.

Receive our praises, Father, through Jesus Christ our Lord, with whom and in whom, by the power of the Holy Spirit, we worship you in songs of never ending praise:

As this broken bread was once many grains,
which have been gathered together and made one bread:

So may your Church be gathered from the ends of the earth into your kingdom.

The gifts of God for the people of God.

Come let us take this holy sacrament of the body and blood of Christ in remembrance that he died for us, and feed on him in our hearts by faith with thanksgiving.

Baptised and communicant Christians of all denominations are welcome to receive Holy Communion. Communion will be administered at the nave platform. Please follow the guidance of stewards and servers. If you do not wish to receive Holy Communion, you may like to come forward and receive a blessing (simply bow your head as a signal).

Gluten free bread is available; please ask for this from the priest giving communion.

Please kneel as the Choir sings: Agnus Dei

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, miserere nobis.

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, dona nobis pacem.

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. (x2)

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, grant us thy peace.

The Choir sings the Motet: Ola Gjeilo Ubi caritas

Ubi caritas et amor, Deus ibi est.
Congregavit nos in unum Christi amor.
Exsultemus, et in ipso jucundemur.
Timeamus, et amemus Deum vivum.
Et ex corde diligamus nos sincero.

Where charity and love are, God is there.
Love of Christ has gathered us into one.
Let us rejoice in Him and be glad.
Let us fear, and let us love the living God.
And from a sincere heart let us love one.

After Communion (please kneel)

Let us pray:

Gracious God, we thank you that in this sacrament you assure us of your goodness and love. Accept our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving and help us to grow in love and obedience that we may finally be brought to that table where all your saints feast with you for ever.

Most loving God,

You send us into the world you love.

Give us grace to go thankfully and with courage in the power of your spirit.

Post-Communion Hymn: #823 [Monk's Gate]

Remain standing for the Blessing

The peace of God which passes all understanding keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always. Amen.

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

In the name of Christ. Amen.

You are invited to listen reflectively to the postlude: David German Festive Trumpet Tune

Thank you: The Committee of the Friends has great pleasure in announcing that monies raised at last Sunday's Soup Day amounted to $425.00. This money will go as always towards contributing to the Cathedral's needs. Thank you for your support.

2018 Art Event: An exciting and different approach to the Cathedral Art Show is being taken this year. There will be a one night Art Event in the Cynthia Poulton Hall on Friday 26 October 2018. Artists are invited to donate a small painting to this event - postcard or small in size. Each ticket purchased to the function will be numbered. During the evening numbers will be drawn and the lucky winners will be able to take home a painting.

Patronal Festival: We will observe our annual Patronal Festival on Sunday 1 July. Following the 10.30am service Rod Klau (who has been raising money for the Organ) will offer a sausage or two to people - in exchange for a donation to the charity he supports. We invite up to ten people to bring along a finger dessert to share. Please add your name to the sign-up from at the back of the Cathedral.

Cathedral 150: Plans are well underway for an exciting and busy year of celebration beginning in Advent 2018. Following next Sunday's lunch the Dean will offer a first taste of the sort of things we can expect as we celebrate the past and imagine the future of mYour Cathedral.

Bring it Home: The organ is on its way home. Now we need to make sure it is paid for. As of 14 June 2018 the magnificent sum of $1,133,756.00 has been raised. (Budget is $2.1 million) Do make use of the information in the pews and make your (additional) donation to the Cathedral Restoration Project.

Blanket Ministry: This week 15 new knitted and crocheted blankets were delivered to Anglicare. This brings our total to 228 so far. My thanks to all who contribute either by knitting or supplying wool. It is good to know that we are helping the less fortunate in a very practical way by keeping them a little warmer now that winter is here!
