4 November 2018

Welcome:

At the Eucharist last Thursday (1 November, All Saints Day) I glanced up at the banners and other embroidery on the wall alongside our make-shift chapel. Each stitch of embroidery, including those done by children of the Diocese in the late 1800s, became a symbol of God's saints. Today's festival is a lovely reminder of the way in which the Master Artist has called people of all colours, creeds, languages and dispositions to follow, to worship and to live into God's kingdom.

Today we launch our Festival 150 brochure with festivities beginning on Advent Sunday, 2 December with the First Chords. Make sure you get the key dates into your diaries now – you won't want to miss anything as we celebrate the past and imagine the future.

Thank you to all who continue to support the Organ Restoration Fund. Work progresses well under the fine-tuned ears of voicers Andy Scott and Andrew Fiddes (they will be at lunch today).

Next Sunday, Remembrance Sunday, a plaque will be unveiled on the cross in the Memorial Garden (at about 11.45am).

Welcome to all God's saints who gather for worship today.

Introit Hymn: #296 [tune: Sine Nomine]

For all the saints

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

And also with you.

A great multitude, from every nation and tribe and people and language, cried with a loud voice, saying, 'Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb.'

Revelation 7: 10

Please kneel/sit

Let us pray

Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hidden: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you and worthily magnify your holy name, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Choir sings: Kyrie

Kyrie eleison. Christe eleison. Kyrie eleison

Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy. Lord, have mercy

We are surrounded by a great cloud of witnesses. Let us then run our race, laying aside every weight and bringing our sins to the Lord in penitence and faith.

Merciful God, our maker and our judge, we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, and in what we have failed to do:

We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves; we repent, and are sorry for all our sins.

Father, forgive us. Strengthen us to love and obey you in newness of life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, who has promised forgiveness to all who turn to him in faith: pardon you and set you free from all your sins, strengthen you in all goodness and keep you in eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Please stand as the choir sings the Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to God's people on earth. Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory. Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Collect for All Saints Day

We praise you, heavenly Father, that you have knit together your chosen ones in one communion and fellowship in the body of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord: give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living that we may come to those inexpressible joys you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ our Saviour, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen

Please sit for the first reading: Isaiah 25:6-9 (Read by Bruce Williams)

⁶ On this mountain the Lord of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-matured wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-matured wines strained clear. ⁷ And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the sheet that is spread over all nations; ⁸ he will swallow up death for ever. Then the Lord God will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the Lord has spoken. ⁹ It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us. This is the Lord for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

Hear the word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

The Choir sings Psalm 24

¹ The earth is the Lord's and all that is in it:

the compass of the world and those who dwell therein.

² For he has founded it upon the seas: and established it upon the waters.

³ Who shall ascend the hill of the Lord: or who shall stand in his holy place?

⁴ Those who have clean hands and a pure heart:

who have not set their soul upon idols, nor sworn their oath to a lie.

⁵ They shall receive blessing from the Lord:

and recompense from the God of their salvation.

⁶ Of such a kind as this are those who seek him:

those who seek your face, O God of Jacob.

⁷ Lift up your heads, O you gates, and be lifted up, you everlasting doors:

and the King of glory shall come in.

⁸ Who is the King of glory?: the Lord, strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle.

⁹ Lift up your heads, O you gates, and be lifted up, you everlasting doors:

and the King of glory shall come in.

¹⁰ Who is the King of glory?: the Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory.

New Testament Reading: Revelation 21:1-6a (read by Wendy Dawes)

¹ Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. ² And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. ³ And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying,

'See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them; ⁴ he will wipe every tear from their eyes.

Children are invited to follow the Gospel procession down the aisle to the altar where their cross will be collected, then go to the Cynthia Poulton Hall for Cathedral Kids. They will return in time for Communion.

Please sit for the sermon: The Very Rev'd Frank Nelson

After the Sermon: please stand for the Creed

Let us together affirm the faith of the Church.

We believe in one God, the Father, the almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son, is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Please sit or kneel for the prayers (led by Christine Nelson)

Let us pray for the world and for the Church

The intercessor concludes:

Accept our prayers through Jesus Christ our Lord, who taught us to pray

Please stand for the Greeting of Peace

We are the body of Christ. His Spirit is with us.

The peace of the Lord be always with you. And also with you.

During the next hymn a collection is taken to support the costs of the Cathedral.

Offertory Hymn: #710 [tune: Regent Square]

Light's abode, celestial Salem

Remain Standing

Blessed are you, Lord, God of all creation. Through your goodness we have these gifts to share. Accept and use our offerings for your glory and for the service of your kingdom.

Blessed be God for ever.

Therefore we do as our Saviour has commanded: proclaiming his offering of himself made once for all upon the cross, his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension, and looking for his coming again, we celebrate, with this bread and this cup, his one perfect and sufficient sacrifice for the sins of the whole world.

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith:

As we eat and drink this holy sacrament, renew us by your Spirit that we may be united in the body of your Son and serve you as a royal priesthood in the joy of your eternal kingdom. Receive our praises, Father, through Jesus Christ our Lord, with whom and in whom, by the power of the Holy Spirit, we worship you in songs of never-ending praise:

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.
We who are many are one body, for we all share in the one bread.
The gifts of God for the people of God.
Come let us take this holy sacrament of the body and blood of Christ in remembrance that he died for us, and feed on him in our hearts by faith with thanksgiving.

Baptised and communicant Christians of all denominations are welcome to receive Holy Communion.

Communion will be administered at the Nave Platform.

Please follow the guidance of stewards and servers.

If you do not wish to receive Holy Communion, you may like to come forward and receive a blessing (simply bow your head as a signal).

Gluten free bread is available; please ask for this from the priest giving communion.

Please kneel as the Choir sings: Agnus Dei

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, have mercy upon us. (x2)

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us your peace.

During communion the Choir sings the Motet: Ernest Bullock Give us the wings of faith Give us the wings of faith to rise within the veil, and see the Saints above, how great their joys, how bright their glories be.
We ask them whence their victory came,
they with one united breath, ascribe the conquest to the Lamb,
their triumph to his death.
They mark'd the footsteps that he trod, his zeal inspir'd their breast;
And, following their incarnate God, they reach'd the promised rest.

Post-communion hymn: #310 [tune: Lobe den Herren] Thanks be to God for his saints

Prayers after Communion (please kneel)

Let us pray:

Lord of hosts, we praise your glory reflected in your saints; may we who share at this table be filled with the joy of your eternal kingdom, where Jesus is Lord now and forever.

Most loving God, you send us into the world you love.

Give us grace to go thankfully and with courage in the power of your Spirit.

Remain standing for the Blessing

May Christ who makes saints of sinners, who has transformed those whom we remember today, raise and strengthen you that you may transform the world; and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always. Amen.

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

In the name of Christ. Amen.

You are invited to listen reflectively to the postlude: Dupré Placare Christe Seroullis
