3 December 2017

Welcome:

I love the season of Advent – the change to purple after the long months of green, the weekly lighting of another Advent Candle, the hymns with their wonderful poetry reflecting the longing of God's people for Christ's coming, the sense of anticipation of Christmas.

Yet the first morning reading has a sense of despair about it rather than hope. Here is an Advent theme worth noting. Over and over again we have to learn that, on our own, human beings are not capable of making a go of things, that all our scheming to make a better world comes to naught. We cannot save ourselves – and need God's intervention. This too is the Advent longing and hope.

Welcome tonight to the Choirs of Christ Church North Adelaide and Pilgrim Uniting Church. Tonight's Evensong is very much a 'rehearsal' for their overseas tour in a few weeks. The Cathedral Choir is singing at Christ Church North Adelaide.

Welcome to all God's people – the despairing, the hope-filled, the cricket-lovers. Welcome.

The Very Rev'd Frank Nelson

Let us pray.

God the Father,

have mercy on us.

God the Son,

have mercy on us.

God the Holy Spirit,

have mercy on us.

Holy Trinity, one God,

have mercy on us.

From all evil and mischief;

from pride, vanity and hypocrisy;

from envy, hatred and malice;

and from all evil intent,

good Lord, deliver us.

From sloth, worldliness and love of money;

from hardness of heart and contempt of your word and your laws,

good Lord, deliver us.

From sins of body and mind;

from deceits of the world, the flesh and from evil,

good Lord, deliver us.

From famine and disaster;

from violence, murder and dying unprepared,

good Lord, deliver us.

In all times of sorrow; in all times of joy;

in the hour of our death and at the day of judgement,

good Lord, deliver us.

By the mystery of your holy incarnation;
by your birth, childhood and obedience;
by your baptism, fasting and temptation,
good Lord, deliver us.

By your ministry in word and work;
by your mighty acts of power;
and by your preaching of the kingdom,
good Lord, deliver us.

By your agony and trial; by your cross and passion;
and by your precious death and burial,
good Lord, deliver us.

By your mighty resurrection;
by your glorious ascension;
and by your sending of the Holy Spirit,
good Lord, deliver us.

Hear our prayers, O Lord our God.
Hear us, good Lord.

Govern and direct your holy Church;
fill it with love and truth;
and grant it that unity which is your will.
Hear us, good Lord.

Give us boldness to preach the gospel in all the world,
and to make disciples of all the nations.
Hear us, good Lord.

Enlighten your ministers with knowledge and understanding, that by their teaching and their lives they may proclaim your word.
Hear us, good Lord.

Give your people grace to hear and receive your word,
and to bring forth the fruit of the Spirit.
Hear us, good Lord.

Bring into the way of truth
all who have erred and are deceived.
Hear us, good Lord

Strengthen those who stand; comfort and help the fainthearted;
raise up the fallen; and finally beat down Satan under our feet.
Hear us, good Lord.

Guide the leaders of the nations into the ways of peace and justice.

Hear us, good Lord.

Guard and strengthen your servant, Elizabeth the Queen, that she may put her trust in you and seek your honour and glory.

Hear us, good Lord.

Endue the members of our parliaments and all who govern us with wisdom and understanding.

Hear us, good Lord.

Bless those who administer the law,
that they may uphold justice, honesty and truth.

Hear us, good Lord.

Give us the will to use the resources of the earth to your glory,
and for the good of all.

Hear us, good Lord.

Remember the ancient peoples of this land and forgive the sins of ignorance and neglect done against them.

Hear us, good Lord.

Bless and keep all your people.

Hear us, good Lord.

Help and comfort the lonely, the bereaved,
and the oppressed.

Lord, have mercy.

Keep in safety those who travel,
and all who are in danger.

Lord, have mercy.

Heal the sick in body and mind,
and provide for the homeless, the hungry and the destitute.

Lord, have mercy.

Show your pity on prisoners and refugees,
and all who are in trouble.

Lord, have mercy.

Forgive our enemies, persecutors and slanderers,
and turn their hearts.

Lord, have mercy.

Hear us as we remember with thanksgiving those who have died in the peace of Christ, and grant us with them a share in your eternal kingdom.

Lord, have mercy.

Give us true repentance;
forgive us our sins of negligence and ignorance and our deliberate sins;
and grant us the grace of your Holy Spirit to amend our lives according to your holy word.

Trisagion (Choir sings)

Holy God, holy and mighty, holy and immortal, have mercy on us.
Agios o Theos, Agios ischyros, Agios athanatos, eleison imas.

The Collect

Almighty God, give us grace that we may cast away the works of darkness and put on the armour of light, now in the time of this mortal life in which your Son Jesus Christ came among us in great humility, that on the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious majesty to judge the living and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal; through him who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Lighting of the 1st Advent Candle – The Candle of Hope

Celebrant Today is Advent Sunday, the beginning of our season of preparation for Christmas.

Chorister We light a candle to remind us that Jesus brings light into the dark places of the world.

Celebrant Through the prophets, God promised a future shaped by justice and righteousness. We share this hope as we wait for the fulfilment of God's promise in the birth of Jesus, promised Saviour, Light of the World.

Chorister We light the candle of hope.

A purple candle is lit

All God whose kingdom is righteousness and peace,
Give us grace to act justly,
to love kindness,
and to walk humbly with you;
in Jesus' name. Amen

Please sit for the first reading: Isaiah 64.1-9 (Read by Roslyn Marley)

O that you would tear open the heavens and come down, so that the mountains would quake at your presence – as when fire kindles brushwood and the fire causes water to boil – to make your name known to your adversaries, so that the nations might tremble at your presence!
When you did awesome deeds that we did not expect,
you came down, the mountains quaked at your presence.
From ages past no one has heard,
no ear has perceived,
no eye has seen any God besides you,
who works for those who wait for him.
You meet those who gladly do right,
those who remember you in your ways.
But you were angry, and we sinned;
because you hid yourself we transgressed.
We have all become like one who is unclean,
and all our righteous deeds are like a filthy cloth.
We all fade like a leaf,
and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away.
There is no one who calls on your name,
or attempts to take hold of you;
for you have hidden your face from us,
and have delivered us into the hand of our iniquity.
Yet, O Lord, you are our Father;
we are the clay, and you are our potter;
we are all the work of your hand.
Do not be exceedingly angry, O Lord,
and do not remember iniquity for ever.
Now consider, we are all your people.
Hear the word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

The Choir sings the Psalm: Ps 80.1-7, 17-19 [Chant – Parry]

Hear, O Shepherd of Israel, you that led Joseph like a flock:

you that are enthroned upon the cherubim, shine out in glory;

Before Ephraim, Benjamin and Manasseh:

stir up your power, and come to save us.

Restore us again, O Lord of hosts:

show us the light of your countenance, and we shall be saved.

O Lord God of hosts: how long will you be angry at your people's prayer?

You have fed them with the bread of tears:

and given them tears to drink in good measure.

You have made us the victim of our neighbours: and our enemies laugh us to scorn.

Restore us again, O Lord of hosts:

show us the light of your countenance, and we shall be saved.

Let your power rest on the man at your right hand:

on that son of man whom you made so strong for yourself.

And so we shall not turn back from you:

give us life, and we will call upon your name.

Restore us again, O Lord of hosts:

show us the light of your countenance, and we shall be saved.

Second reading: 1 Corinthians 1.1-9 (Read by John Marley)

Paul, called to be an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and our brother Sosthenes,

To the church of God that is in Corinth, to those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, together with all those who in every place call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both their Lord and ours:

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that has been given you in Christ Jesus, for in every way you have been enriched in him, in speech and knowledge of every kind – just as the testimony of Christ has been strengthened among you – so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ. He will also strengthen you to the end, so that you may be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is faithful; by him you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Hear the word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn: #50 [St Thomas] *The advent of our King

Please remain standing for the Gospel: Mark 13.24-37

Alleluia, Alleluia

Jesus said 'And what I say to you I say to all: Keep awake.' Alleluia

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark

All sing      Glo - ry to you, Lord    Je - sus Christ

Jesus said, 'But in those days, after that suffering, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will be falling from heaven, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. Then they will see "the Son of Man coming in clouds" with great power and glory. Then he will send out the angels, and gather his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of heaven.

'From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near. So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that he is near, at the very gates. Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

'But about that day or hour no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. Beware, keep alert; for you do not know when the time will come. It is like a man going on a journey, when he leaves home and puts his slaves in charge, each with his work, and commands the doorkeeper to be on the watch. Therefore, keep awake—for you do not know when the master of the house will come, in the evening, or at midnight, or at cockcrow, or at dawn, or else he may find you asleep when he comes suddenly. And what I say to you I say to all: Keep awake.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord,

Praise to you, Lord    Je - sus Christ

Children are invited to follow the Gospel procession down the aisle to the altar where their cross will be collected, then go to the Cynthia Poulton Hall for Cathedral Kids.

They will return in time for Communion.

Please sit for the Sermon: The Very Rev'd Frank Nelson

Let us together affirm the faith of the Church. (Please stand)

We believe in one God, the Father, the almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son, is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Remain Standing

Blessed are you, Lord, God of all creation. Through your goodness we have these gifts to share. Accept and use our offerings for your glory and for the service of your kingdom. Blessed be God for ever.

Priest People
 The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Priest People
 Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Priest
 Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

 It is right to give our thanks and praise.

All glory and honour be yours always and everywhere, mighty Creator, everliving God. We give you thanks and praise for your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ, who by the power of your Spirit was born of Mary and lived as one of us. By his death on the cross and rising to new life, he offered the one true sacrifice for sin and obtained an eternal deliverance for his people. We thank you that when he shall come again in power and great triumph to judge the world, we may with joy behold his appearing, and in confidence stand before him who redeems us from sin and death and makes us heirs of everlasting life. Therefore with angels and archangels, and with all the company of heaven we proclaim your great and glorious name, for ever praising you and singing:

Choir sings: Sanctus & Benedictus

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of hosts, heaven and earth are full of thy glory:
 Glory be to thee, O Lord most High.
 Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Merciful God, we thank you for these gifts of your creation, this bread and wine, and we pray that by your Word and Holy Spirit, we who eat and drink them may be partakers of Christ's body and blood.

On the night he was betrayed Jesus took bread; and when he had given you thanks he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, 'Take, eat. This is my body given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.'

After supper, he took the cup, and again giving you thanks he gave it to his disciples, saying, 'Drink from this, all of you. This is my blood of the new covenant shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.'

Therefore we do as our Saviour has commanded: proclaiming his offering of himself made once for all upon the cross, his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension, and looking for his coming again, we celebrate, with this bread and this cup, his one perfect and sufficient sacrifice for the sins of the whole world.

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith:

Renew us by your Holy Spirit, unite us in the body of your Son, and bring us with all your people into the joy of your eternal kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord, with whom, and in whom, in the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, we worship you, Father, in songs of never-ending praise:

Lo, the King of Glory waits,

Haste thy monarch's pomp to greet,

Strew thy palms before his feet.

Christ, for thee their triple light,

Faith and hope and love unite;

This the beacon we display

To proclaim thine advent day.

Come and give us peace within,

Loose us from the bands of sin,

Take away the galling weight

Laid on us by Satan's hate.

Give us grace thy yoke to wear,

Give us strength thy cross to bear,

Make us think in deed and word,

Thine in heart and life, O Lord.

So, when thou shalt come again,

Judge of angels and of men,

We with all thy saints shall sing

Alleuias to our King.

Let us pray: (Please kneel)

God for whom we wait, we thank you that you have fed us with the bread of life and the cup of salvation. As we joyfully await your Son, keep us ever watchful that we may be ready to stand before him on the day of his coming.
