

Coffee, Cake and Spirituality

3rd Monday of the Month at 10.00am in the Cynthia Poulton Hall

We meet for coffee, cake and scripture with time to reflect on the readings for the following Sunday.

We think it is the big moments that define our lives - the wedding, the baby, the new house, the dream job.
But really these big moments of happiness are just punctuation marks.
The narrative is written every day in the small and the simple.

Giving Attention: Becoming What We Truly Are
by Michael Mayne
Mondays at 10.00am
in the Cynthia Poulton Hall
& 7.00pm in the Office Meeting Room

Michael Mayne invites us to be 'present to the presence of God, and only in this present moment is God present.' He notes that 'we are forever pushing through the present moment so we hardly ever live in it.' He reminds us that Jesus didn't speak much about people 'seeing God', but 'over and over again he pictured God at the heart of ordinary experience.'

Another Story Must Begin a study of Les Miserables
by Jonathan Meyer
Mondays at 10.00am
in the Cynthia Poulton Hall
& 7.00pm in the Office Meeting Room

Another Story Must Begin is a course based on the film, the novel and stage adaptation of Victor Hugo's Les Miserables. Through discussion of some of the themes and principal characters of this epic narrative, the course explores the grace of God, alongside our fallen state and opportunities for redemption. It asks us to reassess what we can do with our lives, both for ourselves and for others.
