

Choral Evensong

The Second Sunday in Lent

6:00pm 13 March 2022

Welcome:

The daily news reminds us that pain and division are part of human life. Not long ago our focus was on Afghanistan and Syria, but now we awake each, fearful of the horror of the latest news of conflict in the Ukraine.

Sadly, there is nothing new about these conflicts. In many parts of the world they have been going on from generation to generation, reaching right back to the beginning of human history.

As nations, as communities, as churches, as families and as individuals we find reasons to maintain, anger, bitterness, jealousy, woundedness and fear, over forgiveness and reconciliation.

Tonight, we cannot fix the world, we cannot change our community, our church or our family, but we can find healing and peace and our reconciliation with God, and then others.

St Peter's Cathedral strives to be a Christ-centred, sacramental, inclusive, thinking, mission-oriented, faith community.

The Cathedral resides on the lands of the Kaurna people whom we acknowledge as the original custodians of the Adelaide Region.

A note on the wearing of face masks: Under current COVID restrictions, masks are mandatory in all indoor public places, including all places of worship. If you can wear a mask, you must wear a mask.

SA Health advises that there are circumstances where it might not be possible to wear a face mask, including where a person may have obstructed breathing, a serious skin condition of the face, an intellectual disability, or a mental health condition. Masks are also not required where “the nature of the work or education means that clear enunciation (ie speech) or visibility of their mouth is essential. This includes teachers, lecturers, broadcasters or call centre staff.”

When a person is consuming food, drink or medicine, their mask may be removed.

Please stand as the Choir and Clergy enter

The Officiant welcomes the Congregation

The Versicles and Responses are sung

O Lord, open thou our lips. And our mouth shall shew forth thy praise.
O God, make speed to save us. O Lord, make haste to help us.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.
Praise ye the Lord. The Lord's Name be praised.

Please remain standing to sing the Office Hymn (masks must be worn while singing)

| Hymn: #549 [Church Triumphant] | The heavens declare thy glory, Lord |
|---------------------------------------|--|

- 1. The heavens declare thy glory, Lord;
 in every star thy wisdom shines;
but when our eyes behold thy word,
 we read thy name in fairer lines.
- 2. The rolling sun, the changing light, and nights and days, thy power confess;
but the blest volume thou hast writ reveals thy justice and thy grace.
- 3. Sun, moon, and stars convey thy praise round the whole earth, and never stand;
so, when thy truth began its race,
 it touched and glanced on every land.
- 4. Nor shall thy spreading gospel rest till through the world thy truth has run;
till Christ has all the nations blest that see the light or feel the sun.

5. Great Sun of Righteousness, arise;
bless the dark world with heavenly light;
thy gospel makes the simple wise,
thy laws are pure, thy judgements right.

6. Thy noblest wonders here we view,
in souls renewed and sins forgiven:
Lord, cleanse my sins, my soul renew,
and make thy word my guide to heaven.

Isaac Watts (1674–1748) based on Psalm 19

Reproduced from Ancient & Modern Electronic Words Edition, number 549

Please sit as the Choir sings Psalm 119:121-136 (Chant: Ellis/Longhurst)

I deal with the thing that is lawful and right:

O give me not over unto mine oppressors.

Make thou thy servant to delight in that which is good:
that the proud do me no wrong.

Mine eyes are wasted away with looking for thy health:
and for the word of thy righteousness.

O deal with thy servant according unto thy loving mercy: and teach me thy statutes.

I am thy servant, O grant me understanding: that I may know thy testimonies.

It is time for thee, Lord, to lay to thine hand: for they have destroyed thy law.

For I love thy commandments: above gold and precious stone.

Therefore hold I straight all thy commandments: and all false ways I utterly abhor.

Thy testimonies are wonderful: therefore doth my soul keep them.

When thy word goeth forth: it giveth light and understanding unto the simple.

I opened my mouth, and drew in my breath:
for my delight was in thy commandments.

O look thou upon me, and be merciful unto me:
as thou usest to do unto those that love thy Name.

Order my steps in thy word: and so shall no wickedness have dominion over me.

O deliver me from the wrongful dealings of men:
and so shall I keep thy commandments.

Shew the light of thy countenance upon thy servant: and teach me thy statutes.

Mine eyes gush out with water: because men keep not thy law.

Please stand for the Gloria:

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Please sit for the first reading: Exodus 11:1-10 (read by David Thomas)

The Lord said to Moses, 'I will bring one more plague upon Pharaoh and upon Egypt; afterwards he will let you go from here; indeed, when he lets you go, he will drive you away. Tell the people that every man is to ask his neighbour and every woman is to ask her neighbour for objects of silver and gold.' The Lord gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians. Moreover, Moses himself was a man of great importance in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh's officials, and in the sight of the people.

Moses said, 'Thus says the Lord: About midnight I will go out through Egypt. Every firstborn in the land of Egypt shall die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sits on his throne to the firstborn of the female slave who is behind the handmill, and all the firstborn of the livestock. Then there will be a loud cry throughout the whole land of Egypt, such as has never been nor will ever be again. But not a dog shall growl at any of the Israelites – not at people, not at animals – so that you may know that the Lord makes a distinction between Egypt and Israel. Then all these officials of yours shall come down to me, and bow low to me, saying, "Leave us, you and all the people who follow you." After that I will leave.' And in hot anger he left Pharaoh.

The Lord said to Moses, 'Pharaoh will not listen to you, in order that my wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt.' Moses and Aaron performed all these wonders before Pharaoh; but the Lord hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he did not let the people of Israel go out of his land.

Here ends the first reading.

Please stand while the Choir sings the Magnificat: Luke 1:46-55

My soul doth magnify the Lord: and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

For he hath regarded: the lowliness of his hand-maiden.

For behold, from henceforth: all generations shall call me blessed.

For he that is mighty hath magnified me: and holy is his Name.

And his mercy is on them that fear him: throughout all generations.

He hath shewed strength with his arm:

he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

He hath put down the mighty from their seat:

and hath exalted the humble and meek.

He hath filled the hungry with good things: and the rich he hath sent empty away.

He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel:

as he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Please sit for the second reading: Luke 22:39-53 (read by Michele de Courcy)

He came out and went, as was his custom, to the Mount of Olives; and the disciples followed him. When he reached the place, he said to them, 'Pray that you may not come into the time of trial.' Then he withdrew from them about a stone's throw, knelt down, and prayed, 'Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me; yet, not my will but yours be done.' Then an angel from heaven appeared to him and gave him strength. In his anguish he prayed more earnestly, and his sweat became like great drops of blood falling down on the ground. When he got up from prayer, he came to the disciples and found them sleeping because of grief, and he said to them, 'Why are you sleeping? Get up and pray that you may not come into the time of trial.'

While he was still speaking, suddenly a crowd came, and the one called Judas, one of the twelve, was leading them. He approached Jesus to kiss him; but Jesus said to him, 'Judas, is it with a kiss that you are betraying the Son of Man?' When those who were around him saw what was coming, they asked, 'Lord, should we strike with the sword?' Then one of them struck the slave of the high priest and cut off his right ear. But Jesus said, 'No more of this!' And he touched his ear and healed him. Then Jesus said to the chief priests, the officers of the temple police, and the elders who had come for him, 'Have you come out with swords and clubs as if I were a bandit? When I was with you day after day in the temple, you did not lay hands on me. But this is your hour, and the power of darkness!'

Here ends the second reading.

Please stand while the Choir sings the Nunc Dimittis: Luke 2:29-32

Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace: according to thy word.
For mine eyes have seen: thy salvation;
Which thou hast prepared: before the face of all people;
To be a light to lighten the Gentiles: and to be the glory of thy people Israel.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Please remain standing to say The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth:
And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord, Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, Born of the Virgin Mary, Suffered under Pontius Pilate, Was crucified, dead, and buried: He descended into hell; The third day he rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost; The holy Catholick Church; The Communion of Saints; The Forgiveness of sins; The Resurrection of the body, And the Life everlasting. Amen.

The Responses and Prayers are sung

|--|---|
| The Lord be with you. | And with thy spirit. |
| Let us pray. (Please kneel/sit) | |
| Lord, have mercy upon us. Christ, have mercy upon us. Lord, have mercy upon us. | |
| Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, in earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. Amen. | |
| O Lord, shew thy mercy upon us | And grant us thy salvation. |
| O Lord, save the Queen | And mercifully hear us when we call upon thee. |
| Endue thy ministers with righteousness | And make thy chosen people joyful. |
| O Lord, save thy people | And bless thine inheritance. |

Give peace in our time, O Lord

Because there is none other that fighteth for us but only thou, O God.
And take not thy Holy Spirit from us.

O God, make clean our hearts within us

The Collect for the Second Sunday in Lent

Almighty God, who seest that we have no power of ourselves to help ourselves: Keep us both outwardly in our bodies, and inwardly in our souls; that we may be defended from all adversities which may happen to the body, and from all evil thoughts which may assault and hurt the soul; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

The Collect for Peace

O God, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed: Give unto thy servants that peace which the world cannot give; that both our hearts may be set to obey thy commandments, and also that by thee we being defended from the fear of our enemies may pass our time in rest and quietness; through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

The Evening Collect

Lighten our darkness, we beseech thee, O Lord; and by thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night; for the love of thy only Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Please sit as the Choir sings the Anthem:

Giovanni Croce (1557-1609) – In monte Oliveti

In monte Oliveti oravit ad Patrem:
Pater, si fieri potest transeat a me caliz iste.
Spiritus quidem promptus est caro autem infirmata. Fiat voluntas tua.

*On the Mount of Olives he prayed to his Father:
"Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak." Let your will be done.*

Please kneel/sit for the Intercessions

Please stand to sing the Second Hymn (masks must be worn while singing)

Hymn: #380 [Quedgeley ii]

Come, Lord, to our souls come down

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1. Come, Lord, to our souls come down, through the gospel speaking; let your words, your cross and crown, lighten all our seeking. | 2. Drive out darkness from the heart, banish pride and blindness; plant in every inward part truthfulness and kindness. |
| 3. Eyes be open, spirits stirred, minds new truth receiving; make us, Lord, by your own word, more and more believing. | |

Please sit for the Sermon: The Rev'd Joan Claring-Bould

Silence may follow

Please stand to sing the Final Hymn (masks must be worn while singing)

Hymn: #559 [Rhuddlan]

God of freedom, God of justice

1. God of freedom, God of justice,
you whose love is strong as death,
you who saw the dark of prison,
you who knew the price of faith –
touch our world of sad oppression with your Spirit's healing breath.
2. Rid the earth of torture's terror,
you whose hands were nailed to wood,
hear the cries of pain and protest,
you who shed the tears and blood – move in us the power of pity restless for the common good.
3. Make in us a captive conscience quick to hear, to act, to plead;
make us truly sisters, brothers of whatever race or creed – teach us to be fully human,
open to each other's need.

Lent Sermon Series

Choral Evensong 6pm Sundays in Lent

by the Clergy of St Peter's Cathedral

"In Christ, God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting the message of reconciliation to us. So we are ambassadors for Christ, since God is making his appeal through us; we entreat you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God." (2 Corinthians 5:19-20)
