The Cathedral resides on the lands of the Kaurna people whom we acknowledge as the original custodians of the Adelaide Region.

CATHEDRAL

A note on the wearing of face masks: The legal requirement to wear a mask has been lifted, and we rejoice in this step towards normality. However, Covid-19 is still present, and we understand that the best way to minimize the risk of catching and spreading the virus in the Cathedral is by continuing to wear masks. We encourage you to wear a mask on entering the Cathedral and during the services, to help ensure that the most vulnerable in our community are protected to the best of our ability.

When the handbell rings, please stand to sing the Introit Hymn (please wear a mask while singing)

Hymn: # 276 [Nicaea]

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God almighty

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Does not wisdom call, and does not understanding raise her voice? 'The Lord created me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of long ago.'

- Proverbs 8:1, 22

Let us pray. (Please kneel/sit)

Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hidden: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you and worthily magnify your holy name, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Choir sings the Kyrie

Kyrie eleison
Lord, have mercy

Christe eleison
Christ, have mercy

Kyrie eleison
Lord, have mercy

Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God, the Lord is one; you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.' Jesus said: 'This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: you shall love your neighbour as yourself.'

Let us therefore bring our sins before the one true God, in penitence and faith.

Merciful God, our maker and our judge, we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, and in what we have failed to do:

We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves; we repent, and are sorry for all our sins.

Father, forgive us. Strengthen us to love and obey you in newness of life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, who has promised forgiveness to all who turn to him in faith: pardon you and set you free from all your sins, strengthen you in all goodness and keep you in eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Please stand as the Choir sings the Gloria (in Latin)

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to God's people on earth. Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory. Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Please remain standing for the Collect

Father, we praise you, that through your Word and Holy Spirit
you created all things;
you reveal your salvation in all the world through Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh;
through your Holy Spirit you give us a share in your life and love:
fill us with the vision of your glory,
that we may always serve and praise you,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Please sit for the first reading: Proverbs 8:1-4, 22-31 (read by Chris Goodes)

Does not wisdom call, and does not understanding raise her voice?
On the heights, beside the way, at the crossroads she takes her stand;
beside the gates in front of the town, at the entrance of the portals she cries out:
'To you, O people, I call, and my cry is to all that live.
The Lord created me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of long ago.
Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth.
When there were no depths I was brought forth,
 when there were no springs abounding with water.
Before the mountains had been shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth – when he had not yet made earth and fields, or the world's first bits of soil.
When he established the heavens, I was there, when he drew a circle on the face of the deep,
when he made firm the skies above, when he established the fountains of the deep,
when he assigned to the sea its limit,
 so that the waters might not transgress his command,
when he marked out the foundations of the earth,
then I was beside him, like a master worker;
and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always, rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the human race.

Hear the word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

The Choir sings Psalm 8 (Chant: Joseph Corfe)

O Lord our Governor: how glorious is your name in all the earth!
Your majesty above the heavens is yet recounted:
by the mouths of babes and sucklings.
You have founded a strong defence against your adversaries:
to quell the enemy and the avenger.
When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers:
the moon and the stars which you have set in order,
What are we, that you should be mindful of us:
what are we, that you should care for us?
Yet you have made us little less than gods:
and have crowned us with glory and honour.
You have given us dominion over your handiwork:
and have put all things in subjection beneath our feet,
All sheep and oxen: and all the creatures of the field,
The birds of the air and the fish of the sea:
and everything that moves in the pathways of the great waters.
O Lord our Governor: how glorious is your name in all the earth!

Second reading: Romans 5:1-5 (read by Wendy Dawes)

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

Hear the word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

Please stand to sing the Gradual Hymn (please wear a mask while singing)

Hymn: #272 [Stuttgart]

Father, Lord of earth and heaven

Please remain standing for the Gospel: John 16:12-15

Choir sings: Alleluia!

Choir sings: Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, the God who is, who was, and who is to come.

The Lord be with you. And also with you.
The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

‘I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Children are invited to move to the Cynthia Poulton Hall for Cathedral Kids. They will return in time for Communion.

Please sit for the Sermon: The Right Rev'd Chris McLeod

Silence may follow

Please stand for the Creed

Let us together affirm the faith of the Church.

We believe in one God, the Father, the almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son, is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Please kneel/sit for the prayers (led by Angela Evans)
Let us pray for the world and for the Church

The intercessor concludes:

Please remain standing to sing the Offertory Hymn (please wear a mask while singing)

Hymn: #277 [St Patrick's Breastplate;
v.4 Gartan]

I bind unto myself today (v.4 Choir only)

Please remain standing

Blessed are you, Lord, God of all creation. Through your goodness we have these gifts to share. Accept and use our offerings for your glory and for the service of your kingdom. Blessed be God for ever.

Therefore we do as our Saviour has commanded: proclaiming his offering of himself made once for all upon the cross, his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension, and looking for his coming again, we celebrate, with this bread and this cup, his one perfect and sufficient sacrifice for the sins of the whole world.

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith:

All sing:
Christ has died: Christ is ris - en: Christ will come a - gain.

Renew us by your Holy Spirit, unite us in the body of your Son, and bring us with all your people into the joy of your eternal kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord, with whom, and in whom, in the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, we worship you, Father, in songs of never-ending praise:

All sing:
Bless-ing and hon-our and glo-ry and power are yours for ev-er and ev-er, A - men.

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

We who are many are one body, for we all share in the one bread.

The gifts of God for the people of God. Come let us take this holy sacrament of the body and blood of Christ in remembrance that he died for us, and feed on him in our hearts by faith with thanksgiving.

Please kneel/sit as the Choir sings the Agnus Dei (in Latin)

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, have mercy upon us. (x2)

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us your peace.

Baptised and communicant Christians of all denominations are welcome to receive Holy Communion. Communion will be administered at the nave platform in one kind (bread) only.

If wearing a mask, please keep it on as you line up.

If you do not wish to receive Holy Communion, you may like to come forward and receive a blessing (simply bow your head as a signal). Gluten free bread is available; please ask for this from the priest giving communion.

During the administration of Holy Communion the Choir will sing the Motet:

Andrew Reid Morning Praise

When morning gilds the skies, my heart awaking cries, May Jesus Christ be praised:
alike at work and prayer to Jesus I repair; May Jesus Christ be praised.

Whene'er the sweet church bell peals over hill and dell, May Jesus Christ be praised:
O hark to what it sings, as joyously it rings, May Jesus Christ be praised.

My tongue shall never tire of chanting with the choir, May Jesus Christ be praised:
This song of sacred joy, it never seems to cloy, May Jesus Christ be praised.
Does sadness fill my mind? a solace here I find, May Jesus Christ be praised:
Or fades my earthly bliss? my comfort still is this, May Jesus Christ be praised.
The night becomes as day, when from the heart we say, May Jesus Christ be praised:
The powers of darkness fear, when this sweet chant they hear,
May Jesus Christ be praised.

Be this, while life is mine, my canticle divine, May Jesus Christ be praised:
Be this th'eternal song through ages all along, May Jesus Christ be praised. Amen.

Words: German text (c. 19th century) translated Edward Caswall (1814-1878)

Please kneel/sit for the prayers after Communion

Almighty and eternal God, may we who have received this sacrament of your Son's body and blood worship you in all we do, proclaim your word to all the world, and live in the power of your Spirit.

Most loving God, you send us into the world you love.

Give us grace to go thankfully and with courage in the power of your Spirit.
