

Choral Evensong

The Second Sunday After Pentecost

6:00pm 19 June 2022

Welcome to our time of worship together.

Rabbinic tradition has it that the Book of Ecclesiastes was written by King Solomon towards the end of his life, at that point where he knew he would soon be called home. Our reading from that book tonight, the lines from Chapter 3 which were popularised by the Byrds in their 1965 song Turn, turn, turn, should be considered in the light of having been written reflectively after a long life of mountain peaks and dark valleys through which Solomon would have traversed. In other words, they should not be read in a superficial way such as captured in greeting cards with misty, artistic shots of nature on their front, but with an intent to find their deeper meaning.

To everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven

These words of Solomon from the first line should not be interpreted as either words of superficial comfort or as an expression of a fatalism of inevitability, but rather as a statement of God's love for us, affirmed through his Son (John 3:16), and of his plans for us (Jeremiah 29:11). In C14, Julian of Norwich wrote, All shall be well, and all shall be well and all manner of thing shall be well

In her words, she captured the essence of God's love and of His plans if we would but 'turn, turn, turn' to Him.

God bless,

St Peter's Cathedral strives to be a Christ-centred, sacramental, inclusive, thinking, mission-oriented, faith community.

The Cathedral resides on the lands of the Kaurna people whom we acknowledge as the original custodians of the Adelaide Region.

A note on the wearing of face masks: The legal requirement to wear a mask has been lifted, and we rejoice in this step towards normality. However, Covid-19 is still present, and we understand that the best way to minimize the risk of catching and spreading the virus in the Cathedral is by continuing to wear masks.

We encourage you to wear a mask on entering the Cathedral and during the services, to help ensure that the most vulnerable in our community are protected to the best of our ability.

Please stand as the Choir and Clergy enter, and the Officiant welcomes the Congregation

The Officiant and Choir sing the Versicles and Responses

O Lord, open thou our lips. And our mouth shall shew forth thy praise.
O God, make speed to save us. O Lord, make haste to help us.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.
Praise ye the Lord. The Lord's Name be praised.

Please remain standing to sing the Office Hymn

Hymn: #13 [Angelus]

At even, ere the sun was set

Please sit as the Choir sings Psalm 22:20-29 (Chant: George Talbot)

Deliver my soul from the sword: my darling from the power of the dog.
Save me from the lion's mouth:
 thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the unicorns.
I will declare thy Name unto my brethren:
 in the midst of the congregation will I praise thee.
O praise the Lord, ye that fear him:
 magnify him, all ye of the seed of Jacob, and fear him, all ye seed of Israel;
For he hath not despised, nor abhorred, the low estate of the poor:
 he hath not hid his face from him, but when he called unto him he heard him.
My praise is of thee in the great congregation:
 my vows will I perform in the sight of them that fear him.
The poor shall eat, and be satisfied:
 they that seek after the Lord shall praise him; your heart shall live for ever.
All the ends of the world shall remember themselves, and be turned unto the Lord:
 and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before him.
For the kingdom is the Lord's: and he is the Governor among the people.
All such as be fat upon earth: have eaten, and worshipped.

Please stand for the Gloria:

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Please sit for the first reading: Ecclesiastes 3:1-8 (read by Christine Beal)

For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven:
a time to be born, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted;
a time to kill, and a time to heal;
a time to break down, and a time to build up;
a time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
a time to throw away stones, and a time to gather stones together;
a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
a time to seek, and a time to lose;
a time to keep, and a time to throw away;
a time to tear, and a time to sew;
a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
a time to love, and a time to hate;
a time for war, and a time for peace.

Here ends the first reading.

Please stand while the Choir sings the Magnificat: Luke 1:46-55

My soul doth magnify the Lord: and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.
For he hath regarded: the lowliness of his hand-maiden.
For behold, from henceforth: all generations shall call me blessed.
For he that is mighty hath magnified me: and holy is his Name.
And his mercy is on them that fear him: throughout all generations.
He hath shewed strength with his arm:
 he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
He hath put down the mighty from their seat:
 and hath exalted the humble and meek.
He hath filled the hungry with good things: and the rich he hath sent empty away.
He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel:
 as he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed for ever.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Please sit for the second reading: Luke 8:40-56 (read by Henry Vaughan)

Now when Jesus returned, the crowd welcomed him, for they were all waiting for him. Just then there came a man named Jairus, a leader of the synagogue. He fell at Jesus' feet and begged him to come to his house, for he had an only daughter, about twelve years old, who was dying.

As he went, the crowds pressed in on him. Now there was a woman who had been suffering from haemorrhages for twelve years; and though she had spent all she had on physicians, no one could cure her. She came up behind him and touched the fringe of his clothes, and immediately her haemorrhage stopped. Then Jesus asked, 'Who touched me?' When all denied it, Peter said, 'Master, the crowds surround you and press in on you.' But Jesus said, 'Someone touched me; for I noticed that

O Lord, shew thy mercy upon us

O Lord, save the Queen

Endue thy ministers with righteousness

O Lord, save thy people

Give peace in our time, O Lord

O God, make clean our hearts within us

And grant us thy salvation.

And mercifully hear us when we call upon thee.

And make thy chosen people joyful.

And bless thine inheritance.

Because there is none other that fighteth for us but only thou, O God.

And take not thy Holy Spirit from us.

The Collect for the First Sunday After Trinity

O God, the strength of all them that put their trust in thee, mercifully accept our prayers; and because through the weakness of our mortal nature we can do no good thing without thee, grant us the help of thy grace, that in keeping of thy commandments we may please thee both in will and deed; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for Peace

O God, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed: Give unto thy servants that peace which the world cannot give; that both our hearts may be set to obey thy commandments, and also that by thee we being defended from the fear of our enemies may pass our time in rest and quietness; through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

The Evening Collect

Lighten our darkness, we beseech thee, O Lord; and by thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night; for the love of thy only Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Please sit as the Choir sings the Anthem:

S.S. Wesley (1810-1836) Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace

Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace,
whose mind is stayed on thee.

The darkness is no darkness with thee,
but the night is as clear as the day.

The darkness and the light to thee are both alike.

God is light and with him is no darkness at all.

Oh let my soul live, and it shall praise thee,
for thine is the kingdom, the power,
and the glory, for evermore.

Words: Isaiah 26 v. 3; Psalm 139 v. 11; 1 John 1 v. 5; Psalm 119 v. 175

Please kneel/sit for the Intercessions

Please stand to sing the Second Hymn

Hymn: #622 [Surrey]

Dear Lord, we long to see your face

Please sit for the Sermon: The Rev'd Dr Lynn Arnold AO

Silence may follow

Please stand to sing the Final Hymn

Hymn: #675 [Bishopsthorpe]

Immortal love for ever full

Please remain standing for the Blessing

The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be among you and remain with you always. Amen.
