

BCP EUCHARIST PROPERS

TRANSFIGURATION

SUNDAY 7TH AUGUST 2022

8AM

Celebrant: The Rev'd Canon Bill Goodes

Preacher: The Rev'd Canon Jenny Wilson

Readers: Ros Clarke, Ian Clarke

A warm welcome to St Peter's Cathedral as we gather for worship this morning.

This Sunday, our Cathedral adorned in white, we celebrate the Feast of the Transfiguration. We hear the story of Jesus with three of his disciples, climbing a mountain. Jesus is transfigured before them, his clothes becoming dazzling white, and the voice of God is heard naming Jesus "Beloved". The context of this story is critical. Jesus has just shocked his disciples deeply by predicting his passion and death. It is as if God is reassuring both Jesus and his disciples that the path to Jerusalem is the right path, that the suffering and death of Jesus will lead to resurrection. Perhaps we might know, in the midst of the many struggles of our time and place, that we are not alone, that we are accompanied by Jesus, the one God names "Beloved," and that therein we will find hope and life.

COLLECT

GOD, who before the Passion of thine only-begotten Son didst reveal his glory upon the holy mount: Grant unto us thy servants, that in faith beholding the light of his countenance, we may be strengthened to bear the cross, and be changed into his likeness from glory to glory; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FIRST READING

A reading from the Book of Daniel

DANIEL 7.9-10, 13-14

As I watched, thrones were set in place, and an Ancient One took his throne; his clothing was white as snow, and the hair of his head like pure wool; his throne was fiery flames, and its wheels were burning fire. A stream of fire issued and flowed out from his presence. A thousand thousand served him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood attending him. The court sat in judgement, and the books were opened. As I watched in the night visions, I saw one like a human being coming with the clouds of heaven. And he came to the Ancient One and was presented before him. To him was given dominion and glory and kingship, that all peoples, nations, and languages should serve him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion that shall not pass away, and his kingship is one that shall never be destroyed.

Hear the word of the Lord,
Thanks be to God.

PSALM 97

The Lord is king; let the earth rejoice: let the multitude of islands be glad.

Clouds and darkness are round about him:

righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.

Fire goes before him: and burns up his enemies on every side.

His lightnings light the world: the earth sees it and quakes.

The mountains melt like wax before his face:

from before the face of the Lord of all the earth.

The heavens have proclaimed his righteousness:

and all peoples have seen his glory.

They are ashamed, all those who serve idols and glory in mere nothings:

all gods bow down before him.

Zion heard and was glad, and the daughters of Judah rejoiced:

because of your judgements, O God.

For you, Lord, are most high over all the earth:

you are exalted far above all gods.

The Lord loves those that hate evil: the Lord guards the life of the faithful, and delivers them from the hand of the ungodly.

Light dawns for the righteous: and joy for the true of heart.

Rejoice in the Lord, you righteous: and give thanks to his holy name.

SECOND READING

A reading from the second Letter of Peter

2 PETER 1.16-19

For we did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we had been eyewitnesses of his majesty. For he received honour and glory from God the Father when that voice was conveyed to him by the Majestic Glory, saying, 'This is my Son, my Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.' We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven, while we were with him on the holy mountain.

So we have the prophetic message more fully confirmed. You will do well to be attentive to this as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts.

Hear the word of the Lord,

Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL

The Lord be with you

And with thy spirit

The Holy Gospel is written in the 9th Chapter of the Gospel according to Mark, beginning at verse two

Glory be to thee, O Lord

MARK 9.2-10

Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and John, and led them up a high mountain apart, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no one on earth could bleach them. And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses, who were talking with Jesus. Then Peter said to Jesus, ‘Rabbi, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.’ He did not know what to say, for they were terrified. Then a cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud there came a voice, ‘This is my Son, the Beloved; listen to him!’ Suddenly when they looked around, they saw no one with them any more, but only Jesus.

As they were coming down the mountain, he ordered them to tell no one about what they had seen, until after the Son of Man had risen from the dead. So they kept the matter to themselves, questioning what this rising from the dead could mean.

This is the Gospel of the Lord: Praise be to thee, O Christ.

Please stand to sing the hymn when announced

HYMN 281 – ‘TIS GOOD LORD TO BE HERE (CARLISLE)

FOR YOUR PRAYERS

A prayer for all affected by Coronavirus: Keep us, good Lord, under the shadow of your mercy. Sustain and support the anxious, be with those who care for the sick, and lift up all who are brought low; that we may find comfort knowing that nothing can separate us from your love in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

NOTICES

Wearing Masks – With the rise in cases of Covid 19 across the community we strongly encourage the continuation of mask wearing to keep yourselves and others safe.

Four-week sermon series on Ethics – Rev Dr Lynn Arnold AO will complete his final sermon in his series on themes related to Christian Ethics at Evensong. After this service, there will be a time of discussion in Cynthia Poulton Hall to talk about the issues discussed in the sermon this evening. Cheese, port, and soft drink will be provided during each of the sessions.

Sunday Night with Lynn Arnold – This evening, the Rev'd Dr Lynn Arnold's guest will be The Rev'd Dr Mark Worthing, who is currently Dean of Frontier School of Mission, a new teaching and training ministry of the Lutheran Church in NSW.

BREAD PLASTIC TAGS – The Friends of St Peter's Cathedral are incredibly grateful for the donation of bread tags for our project of “bread plastic tags for wheelchairs for South Africa.” The project will last until May 2023 when we shall add our growing collection of bread tags to other collections ready for recycling. To see what the recycler does with all the bread tags that are sent to him, for which he pays money that is used to provide wheelchairs for patients in South Africa ... google “Transmutation Robe.”

Company of Preachers Book Group - A joint initiative with St Barnabas College.

You are warmly invited to join the Company of Preachers Book Group on the second Wednesday each month 2-3pm at St Barnabas College, in person and on Zoom. This year we are reading “The Gospel of John: A Theological Commentary” by David F. Ford. Copies can be obtained through Koorong and Book Depository. Our next meeting will take place this Wednesday - 10th August. Please contact Rev'd Canon Jenny Wilson at jwilson@stpeters-cathedral.org.au for further details.

Tea/coffee after regular services – Due to covid, our community has not been able to gather as regularly as usual. We are looking forward to adding back in the following gatherings:

- The Wednesday 10am community will have tea and coffee after the service on the first Wednesday of each month.
- The Sunday 8am community will have tea and coffee after the first Sunday of each month.
- After the 10:30am service, there is tea and coffee provided every two weeks. Today, August 7th is our first of the month with the 21st of August the next meeting.

Funeral for Jennifer Bailey - Our Parishioner Jennifer Bailey died last week. Her funeral will be held in the Echunga Uniting Church on Wednesday 10th August at 10am.

Nave flowers in memory of Don Moyle – Last Friday, Julie Doherty arranged the nave flowers in memory of Mary Evans' Father, Don Moyle.
