

BCP EUCHARIST PROPERS

THE ELEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

SUNDAY 21ST AUGUST 2022

8AM

Celebrant: The Rev'd Canon Jenny Wilson

Preacher: The Rev'd Dr Lynn Arnold AO

Readers: David Docwra, Elspeth Harley

A warm welcome to St Peter's Cathedral as we gather for worship this morning.

There are many wonderful reassurances to be garnered from Scripture, and the readings for this morning's service are no exception. A strong message which comes through is that humanity was no afterthought of God's - he intended each of us before we were formed in the womb. Having done so, God then never intended to abandon us but to hold himself there as a high rock, a stronghold for us to seek out. For our own sake, we should not forget this; but importantly, nor should we hide this from those whose spirit has been crippled. Jesus offers to set free from such spiritual bondage all who find themselves burdened. With beautiful intention, the Gospel writer noted such a freeing being done on the sabbath - the day of rest ... a giving of a restful peace to a woman who had not known it for eighteen years.

COLLECT

Let thy merciful ears, O Lord, be open to the prayers of thy humble servants; and that they may obtain their petitions make them to ask such things as shall please the; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FIRST READING

A reading from the Prophet Jeremiah.

JEREMIAH 1:4-10

Now the word of the Lord came to me saying,
'Before I formed you in the womb I knew you,
and before you were born I consecrated you;
I appointed you a prophet to the nations.'

Then I said, 'Ah, Lord God ! Truly I do not know how to speak, for I am only a boy.'

But the Lord said to me,
'Do not say, "I am only a boy";
for you shall go to all to whom I send you,
and you shall speak whatever I command you.

Do not be afraid of them,
for I am with you to deliver you,
says the Lord .'

Then the Lord put out his hand and touched my mouth; and the Lord said to me,

'Now I have put my words in your mouth.

See, today I appoint you over nations and over kingdoms,
to pluck up and to pull down,
to destroy and to overthrow,
to build and to plant.'

Hear the word of the Lord,

Thanks be to God.

PSALM 71:1-6

To you, Lord, have I come for shelter: let me never be put to shame.

In your righteousness rescue and deliver me: incline your ear to me and save me.

Be for me a rock of refuge, a fortress to defend me: for you are my high rock, and my stronghold.

Rescue me, O my God, from the hand of the wicked: from the grasp of the pitiless and unjust.

For you, Lord, are my hope: you are my confidence, O God, from my youth upward.

On you have I leaned since my birth:

you are he that brought me out of my mother's womb, and my praise is of you continually.

SECOND READING

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews.

HEBREWS 12:18-29

You have not come to something that can be touched, a blazing fire, and darkness, and gloom, and a tempest, and the sound of a trumpet, and a voice whose words made the hearers beg that not another word be spoken to them. (For they could not endure the order that was given, 'If even an animal touches the mountain, it shall be stoned to death.' Indeed, so terrifying was the sight that Moses said, 'I tremble with fear.') But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable angels in festal gathering, and to the assembly of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, and to God the judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous made perfect, and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel. See that you do not refuse the one who is speaking; for if they did not escape when they refused the one who warned them on earth, how much less will we escape if we reject the one who warns from heaven! At that time his voice shook the earth; but now he has promised, 'Yet once more I will shake not only the earth but also the heaven.' This phrase 'Yet once more' indicates the removal of what is shaken—that is, created things—so that what cannot be shaken may remain. Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us give thanks, by which we offer to God an acceptable worship with reverence and awe; for indeed our God is a consuming fire.

Hear the word of the Lord,
Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL

The Lord be with you

And with thy spirit

The Holy Gospel is written in the 13th Chapter of the Gospel according to Luke, beginning at the 10th verse.

Glory be to thee, O Lord

LUKE 13:10-17

Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. And just then there appeared a woman with a spirit that had crippled her for eighteen years. She was bent over and was quite unable to stand up straight. When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, 'Woman, you are set free from your ailment.' When he laid his hands on her, immediately she stood up straight and began praising God. But the leader of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had cured on the sabbath, kept saying to the crowd, 'There are six days on which work ought to be done; come on those days and be cured, and not on the sabbath day.' But the Lord answered him and said, 'You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger, and lead it away to give it water? And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen long years, be set free from this bondage on the sabbath day?' When he said this, all his opponents were put to shame; and the entire crowd was rejoicing at all the wonderful things that he was doing.

This is the Gospel of the Lord: Praise be to thee, O Christ.
