

BCP EUCHARIST PROPERS

THE FOURTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

SUNDAY 11TH SEPTEMBER 2022

8AM

A warm welcome to St Peter's Cathedral as we gather for worship this morning.

St Peter's Cathedral resides on the lands of the Kaurna people. We give thanks for their ancestors and acknowledge the ongoing right and responsibility of their elders to care for this Country. We are committed to work and pray towards a more just settlement for all Indigenous people and pay our respect to First Nations people with us.

St Peter's Cathedral is a Christ-centred, sacramental, inclusive, thinking, mission-oriented faith community.

'I looked, and lo, the fruitful land was a desert ...' (Jeremiah 4: 26). During September we are reflecting upon God's Creation. It is good that we rejoice in the wonder and beauty of God's Creation, but we also need to reflect carefully on the harm that has been caused to the environment, especially through 'Climate Change'. This morning I will be preaching on this theme and sharing something of the insights from the 'Lambeth Conference 2022' on this issue. This evening we are fortunate to have Canon William Deng, one of the Cathedral Canons, preaching at Choral Evensong. I hope many of you will be able to come along and hear what Canon William has to say to us.

Blessings and welcome,
The Right Rev'd Chris McLeod

Celebrant: The Rev'd Joan Claring-Bould

Preacher: The Right Rev'd Chris McLeod

Readers: Stephen Hayter, David Docwra

Please use this Propers booklet in conjunction with the yellow Order of Service.

COLLECT

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, give unto us the increase of faith, hope, and charity; and, that we may obtain that which thou dost promise, make us to love that which thou dost command; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FIRST READING

A reading from the Prophet Jeremiah.

JEREMIAH 4:11-12, 22-28

At that time it will be said to this people and to Jerusalem: A hot wind comes from me out of the bare heights in the desert towards my poor people, not to winnow or cleanse—a wind too strong for that. Now it is I who speak in judgement against them.

‘For my people are foolish,

they do not know me;

they are stupid children,

they have no understanding.

They are skilled in doing evil,

but do not know how to do good.’

I looked on the earth, and lo, it was waste and void;

and to the heavens, and they had no light.

I looked on the mountains, and lo, they were quaking,

and all the hills moved to and fro.

I looked, and lo, there was no one at all,

and all the birds of the air had fled.

I looked, and lo, the fruitful land was a desert,

and all its cities were laid in ruins

before the Lord, before his fierce anger.

For thus says the Lord: The whole land shall be a desolation; yet I will not make a full end.

Because of this the earth shall mourn,

and the heavens above grow black;

for I have spoken, I have purposed;

I have not relented nor will I turn back.

Hear the word of the Lord,

Thanks be to God.

PSALM 14

Fools have said in their hearts ‘There is no God’:

they have all become vile and abominable in their doings, there is not one that does good.

The Lord looked down from heaven upon the children of Adam:

to see if there were any who would act wisely and seek after God.

But they have all turned out of the way, they have all alike become corrupt:

there is none that does good, no not one.

Are all the evildoers devoid of understanding:

who eat up my people as they eat bread, and do not pray to the Lord?

They shall be struck with terror: for God is with the company of the righteous.

Though they frustrate the poor in their hopes: surely the Lord is their refuge.

O that deliverance for Israel might come forth from Zion:

when the Lord turns again the fortunes of his people, then shall Jacob rejoice and Israel be glad.

SECOND READING

A reading from the first letter to Timothy.

1 TIMOTHY 1:2, 12-19A

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the command of God our Saviour and of Christ Jesus our hope, To Timothy, my loyal child in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord. I am grateful to Christ Jesus our Lord, who has strengthened me, because he judged me faithful and appointed me to his service, even though I was formerly a blasphemer, a persecutor, and a man of violence. But I received mercy because I had acted ignorantly in unbelief, and the grace of our Lord overflowed for me with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. The saying is sure and worthy of full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners—of whom I am the foremost. But for that very reason I received mercy, so that in me, as the foremost, Jesus Christ might display the utmost patience, making me an example to those who would come to believe in him for eternal life. To the King of the ages, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen. I am giving you these instructions, Timothy, my child, in accordance with the prophecies made earlier about you, so that by following them you may fight the good fight, having faith and a good conscience. By rejecting conscience, certain persons have suffered shipwreck in the faith;

Hear the word of the Lord,
Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL

The Lord be with you

And with thy spirit

The Holy Gospel is written in the 15th Chapter of the Gospel according to Luke, beginning at the 1st verse.

Glory be to thee, O Lord

LUKE 15:1-10

Now all the tax-collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to him. And the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling and saying, ‘This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them.’ So he told them this parable: ‘Which one of you, having a hundred sheep and losing one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the one that is lost until he finds it? When he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders and rejoices. And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbours, saying to them, “Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost.” Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who need no repentance. ‘Or what woman having ten silver coins, if she loses one of them, does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search carefully until she finds it? When she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbours, saying, “Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin that I had lost.” Just so, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents.’

This is the Gospel of the Lord: Praise be to thee, O Christ.
