I Believe in Angels

Welcome to tonight's service during which we remember those who suffer from mental illness and those who care for them. We remember those who work to ensure that they receive the respect and dignity and services available to others in the community.

Song Wait for the Lord whose day is near,
Wait for the Lord, be strong, take heart.

(Let nothing disturb you, rely on God alone)

Reading 3

Jacob left Beersheba and set out for Harran. When he reached a certain place, he stopped for the night because the sun had set. Taking one of the stones there, he put it under his head and lay down to sleep. He had a dream in which he saw a stairway resting on the earth, with its top reaching to heaven, and the angels of God were ascending and descending on it. There above it^[a] stood the LORD, and he said: “I am the LORD, the God of your father Abraham and the God of Isaac. I will give you and your descendants the land on which you are lying. Your descendants will be like the dust of the earth, and you will spread out to the west and to the east, to the north and to the south. All peoples on earth will be blessed through you and your offspring I am with you and will watch over you wherever you go, and I will bring you back to this land. I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you.”

When Jacob awoke from his sleep, he thought, “Surely the LORD is in this place, and I was not aware of it.” He was afraid and said, “How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God; this is the gate of heaven.”

(Genesis 28:10-17)

Concluding Prayer

Deep peace of the running wave to you,

Deep peace of the flowing air to you,

Deep peace of the quiet earth to you.

Deep peace of the shining stars to you.

Deep peace of the gentle night to you,

Moon and stars pour their healing light on you

Deep peace of Christ the light of the world to you:

Deep peace of Christ. (Scots Celtic Prayer)
