

BCP EUCHARIST PROPERS

THE TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

SUNDAY 13TH NOVEMBER 2022

8AM

A warm welcome to St Peter's Cathedral as we gather for worship this morning.

St Peter's Cathedral resides on the lands of the Kaurua people. We give thanks for their ancestors and acknowledge the ongoing right and responsibility of their elders to care for this Country. We are committed to work and pray towards a more just settlement for all Indigenous people and pay our respect to First Nations people with us.

St Peter's Cathedral is a Christ-centred, sacramental, inclusive, thinking, mission-oriented faith community.

This Sunday's Gospel (Luke 21: 5 – 19) reading takes a rather sombre twist. The disciples were speaking about the beauty of the Temple. Jesus goes on to tell them that it will be destroyed. It must have come as quite a shock. We know that the Temple was destroyed in 70 AD. Jesus was letting them know what might have been obvious to those with 'eyes to see'. The Roman Empire was growing impatient with this rebellious people. Yet, there is a word of great comfort – 'But not a hair of your head will perish' (Luke 21: 19). Jesus is pointing his followers to the future. As we are coming to the end of the Christian year (not calendar year), we are reminded of the future promise that lies before us.

May I also take the opportunity to remind you to respond to the Planned Giving Pledge Card. Instructions on how to respond are given on the card. Thank you for considering the financial needs of the Cathedral.

Every Blessing,

The Right Rev'd Chris McLeod

COLLECT

Lord, we beseech thee to keep thy household the Church in continual godliness; that through thy protection it may be free from all adversities, and devoutly given to serve thee in good works, to the glory of thy name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FIRST READING

A reading from the Prophet Isaiah.

ISAIAH 65.17-25

For I am about to create new heavens
and a new earth;
the former things shall not be remembered
or come to mind.
But be glad and rejoice for ever
in what I am creating;
for I am about to create Jerusalem as a joy,
and its people as a delight.
I will rejoice in Jerusalem,
and delight in my people;
no more shall the sound of weeping be heard in it,
or the cry of distress.
No more shall there be in it
an infant that lives but a few days,
or an old person who does not live out a lifetime;
for one who dies at a hundred years will be considered a youth,
and one who falls short of a hundred will be considered accursed.
They shall build houses and inhabit them;
they shall plant vineyards and eat their fruit.
They shall not build and another inhabit;
they shall not plant and another eat;
for like the days of a tree shall the days of my people be,
and my chosen shall long enjoy the work of their hands.
They shall not labour in vain,
or bear children for calamity;
for they shall be offspring blessed by the Lord —
and their descendants as well.
Before they call I will answer,
while they are yet speaking I will hear.
The wolf and the lamb shall feed together,
the lion shall eat straw like the ox;
but the serpent—its food shall be dust!
They shall not hurt or destroy
on all my holy mountain, says the Lord .

Hear the word of the Lord,

Thanks be to God.

PSALM: A SONG OF ISAIAH

‘Behold, God is my salvation: I will trust and will not be afraid;

‘For the Lord God is my strength and my song: and has become my salvation.’

With joy you will draw water: from the wells of salvation.

On that day you will say: ‘Give thanks to the Lord, call upon his name;

‘Make known his deeds among the nations: proclaim that his name is exalted.

‘Sing God’s praises, who has triumphed gloriously:

let this be known in all the world.

‘Shout and sing for joy, you that dwell in Zion:

for great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel.’

ISAIAH 12.2-6

SECOND READING

A reading from the second letter to Thessalonians.

2 THESSALONIANS 3.6-13

Now we command you, beloved, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to keep away from believers who are living in idleness and not according to the tradition that they received from us. For you yourselves know how you ought to imitate us; we were not idle when we were with you, and we did not eat anyone’s bread without paying for it; but with toil and labour we worked night and day, so that we might not burden any of you. This was not because we do not have that right, but in order to give you an example to imitate. For even when we were with you, we gave you this command: Anyone unwilling to work should not eat. For we hear that some of you are living in idleness, mere busybodies, not doing any work. Now such persons we command and exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ to do their work quietly and to earn their own living. Brothers and sisters, do not be weary in doing what is right.

Hear the word of the Lord,

Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL

The Lord be with you

And with thy spirit

The Holy Gospel is written in the 21st Chapter of the Gospel according to Luke, beginning at the 5th verse.

Glory be to thee, O Lord

When some were speaking about the temple, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and gifts dedicated to God, he said, 'As for these things that you see, the days will come when not one stone will be left upon another; all will be thrown down.' They asked him, 'Teacher, when will this be, and what will be the sign that this is about to take place?' And he said, 'Beware that you are not led astray; for many will come in my name and say, "I am he!" and, "The time is near!" Do not go after them. 'When you hear of wars and insurrections, do not be terrified; for these things must take place first, but the end will not follow immediately.' Then he said to them, 'Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be great earthquakes, and in various places famines and plagues; and there will be dreadful portents and great signs from heaven. 'But before all this occurs, they will arrest you and persecute you; they will hand you over to synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors because of my name. This will give you an opportunity to testify. So make up your minds not to prepare your defence in advance; for I will give you words and a wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to withstand or contradict. You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, by relatives and friends; and they will put some of you to death. You will be hated by all because of my name. But not a hair of your head will perish. By your endurance you will gain your souls.

This is the Gospel of the Lord: Praise be to thee, O Christ.
