

BCP EUCHARIST PROPERS

THE SECOND SUNDAY

AFTER EPIPHANY

SUNDAY 15TH JANUARY 2023

8AM

A warm welcome to St Peter's Cathedral as we gather for worship this morning.

St Peter's Cathedral resides on the lands of the Kurna people. We give thanks for their ancestors and acknowledge the ongoing right and responsibility of their elders to care for this Country. We are committed to work and pray towards a more just settlement for all Indigenous people and pay our respect to First Nations people with us.

St Peter's Cathedral is a Christ-centred, sacramental, inclusive, thinking, mission-oriented faith community.

By the time you read this the celebration of Christmas has passed for most of us. However, the message of Christmas lingers on in the various celebrations present within our Liturgical Calendar: The Epiphany of our Lord (The visit of the Wise Men -January 1) and then moving onto key events in the life of Jesus: The Baptism of our Lord (January 8); The Presentation of Christ in the Temple which we will celebrate at Evensong on Sunday, January 29 at 6pm and with a Eucharist on Thursday, February 2 at 7.30am. The church's celebrations continue even as we enjoy the slowness that January provides.

January offers us a time catch our breath before the real busyness of the year starts. It is a time to watch cricket, take a stroll down at the beach, meet up with friends for leisurely lunches, or just take the time to 'be'. The slowness of January provides the time to reflect on the year past and pray for the year ahead. It is a time to rejoice in God's revelation to the world in Christ and commit 2023 to God's care and guidance.

During January the Sunday worship services will be: 8am Eucharist (Book of Common Prayer), 10.30am Sung Eucharist (A Prayer Book for Australia), Night Prayer with hymns at 6.00pm. Weekday Services will be Wednesday Eucharist at 7.30am and 10 am and Friday Eucharist at 7.30am.

May you have a blessed and peaceful January.

COLLECT

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who dost govern all things in heaven and earth; Mercifully hear the supplications of thy people, and grant us thy peace all the days of our life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FIRST READING

A reading from the Prophet Isaiah.

ISAIAH 49:1-7

Listen to me, O coastlands, pay attention, you peoples from far away!
The Lord called me before I was born,
while I was in my mother's womb he named me.
He made my mouth like a sharp sword,
in the shadow of his hand he hid me;
he made me a polished arrow,
in his quiver he hid me away.
And he said to me, 'You are my servant,
Israel, in whom I will be glorified.'
But I said, 'I have laboured in vain,
I have spent my strength for nothing and vanity;
yet surely my cause is with the Lord,
and my reward with my God.'

And now the Lord says,
who formed me in the womb to be his servant,
to bring Jacob back to him,
and that Israel might be gathered to him,
for I am honoured in the sight of the Lord,
and my God has become my strength—
he says,
'It is too light a thing that you should be my servant
to raise up the tribes of Jacob and to restore the survivors of Israel;
I will give you as a light to the nations,
that my salvation may reach to the end of the earth.'

Thus says the Lord,
the Redeemer of Israel and his Holy One,
to one deeply despised, abhorred by the nations,
the slave of rulers,
'Kings shall see and stand up,
princes, and they shall prostrate themselves,
because of the Lord, who is faithful,
the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you.'

Hear the word of the Lord,

Thanks be to God.

Please respond with the phrases in bold

PSALM 40.1-14

I waited patiently for the Lord: and he inclined to me and heard my cry.

He brought me up from the pit of roaring waters, out of the mire and clay:
and set my feet upon a rock, and made firm my foothold.

And he has put a new song in my mouth: even a song of thanksgiving to our God.

Many shall see it and fear: and shall put their trust in the Lord.

Blessed are those who have made the Lord their hope:

who have not turned to the proud, or to those who wander in deceit.

O Lord my God, great are the wonderful things which you have done,
and your thoughts which are towards us:

there is none to be compared with you.

Were I to declare them and speak of them: they are more than I am able to express.

Sacrifice and offering you do not desire:

but my ears you have marked for obedience;

Burnt-offering and sin-offering you have not required: then said I, Lo, I come.

In the scroll of the book it is written of me, that I should do your will:

O my God, I long to do it, your law delights my heart.

I have declared your righteousness in the great congregation:

I have not restrained my lips, O Lord, and that you know.

I have not hidden your righteousness in my heart:

I have spoken of your faithfulness and of your salvation.

I have not kept back your loving-kindness and your truth:

from the great congregation.

O Lord, do not withhold your mercy from me:

let your loving-kindness and your truth ever preserve me.

SECOND READING

A reading from Paul's first letter to the Corinthians

1 CORINTHIANS 1.1-9

Paul, called to be an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and our brother Sosthenes,
To the church of God that is in Corinth, to those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, together with all those who in every place call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both their Lord and ours: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that has been given you in Christ Jesus, for in every way you have been enriched in him, in speech and knowledge of every kind— just as the testimony of Christ has been strengthened among you— so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ. He will also strengthen you to the end, so that you may be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is faithful; by him you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Hear the word of the Lord,

Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL

The Lord be with you

And with thy spirit

The Holy Gospel is written in the 1st Chapter of the Gospel according to John beginning at verse 1.

Glory be to thee, O Lord

JOHN 1.29-42

The next day he saw Jesus coming towards him and declared, 'Here is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world! This is he of whom I said, "After me comes a man who ranks ahead of me because he was before me." I myself did not know him; but I came baptizing with water for this reason, that he might be revealed to Israel.' And John testified, 'I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it remained on him. I myself did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water said to me, "He on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain is the one who baptizes with the Holy Spirit." And I myself have seen and have testified that this is the Son of God.' The next day John again was standing with two of his disciples, and as he watched Jesus walk by, he exclaimed, 'Look, here is the Lamb of God!' The two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Jesus. When Jesus turned and saw them following, he said to them, 'What are you looking for?' They said to him, 'Rabbi' (which translated means Teacher), 'where are you staying?' He said to them, 'Come and see.' They came and saw where he was staying, and they remained with him that day. It was about four o'clock in the afternoon. One of the two who heard John speak and followed him was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. He first found his brother Simon and said to him, 'We have found the Messiah' (which is translated Anointed). He brought Simon to Jesus, who looked at him and said, 'You are Simon son of John. You are to be called Cephas' (which is translated Peter).

This is the Gospel of the Lord: Praise be to thee, O Christ.
