THE SEVENTH SUNDAY

AFTER EPIPHANY

SUNDAY 19TH FEBRUARY 2023

8AM

A warm welcome to St Peter's Cathedral as we gather for worship this morning.

St Peter's Cathedral resides on the lands of the Kurna people. We give thanks for their ancestors and acknowledge the ongoing right and responsibility of their elders to care for this Country. We are committed to work and pray towards a more just settlement for all Indigenous people and pay our respect to First Nations people with us.

St Peter's Cathedral is a Christ-centred, sacramental, inclusive, thinking, mission-oriented faith community.

We are formed into the people we are by how we interact with others. In this week's section of the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus explains two of the ways we can interact in loving ways with other people. The first way involves how we respond when we are hurt. He urges us not to retaliate or seek revenge when others hurt us, as was the custom in ancient times highlighted by sayings like an eye for an eye or a tooth for a tooth. He promotes repentance from those who have done harm, and forgiveness by those who have been harmed. The second way encourages us to accept and show our love for all people, including those that are like us and have the same views as us, and those who are unlike us and have opposing views.

Blessings,

The Rev'd Sally Sandford-Morgan

COLLECT

O LORD, who hast taught us that all our doings without charity are nothing worth: Send thy Holy Ghost, and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of charity, the very bond of peace and of all virtues, without which whosoever liveth is counted dead before thee. Grant this for thine only Son Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

FIRST READING

A reading from the Book of Leviticus.

LEVITICUS 19.1-2; 9-18

The Lord spoke to Moses, saying: Speak to all the congregation of the people of Israel and say to them: You shall be holy, for I the Lord your God am holy. When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not reap to the very edges of your field, or gather the gleanings of your harvest. You shall not strip your vineyard bare, or gather the fallen grapes of your vineyard; you shall leave them for the poor and the alien: I am the Lord your God. You shall not steal; you shall not deal falsely; and you shall not lie to one another. And you shall not swear falsely by my name, profaning the name of your God: I am the Lord . You shall not defraud your neighbour; you shall not steal; and you shall not keep for yourself the wages of a labourer until morning. You shall not revile the deaf or put a stumbling-block before the blind; you shall fear your God: I am the Lord . You shall not render an unjust judgement; you shall not be partial to the poor or defer to the great: with justice you shall judge your neighbour. You shall not go around as a slanderer among your people, and you shall not profit by the blood of your neighbour: I am the Lord . You shall not hate in your heart anyone of your kin; you shall reprove your neighbour, or you will incur guilt yourself. You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against any of your people, but you shall love your neighbour as yourself: I am the Lord.

Hear the word of the Lord,
Thanks be to God.

Please respond with the phrases in bold

PSALM 119.33-40

Teach me, O Lord, the way of your statutes: and I will honour it to the end.

Give me understanding, that I may keep your law:
that I may keep it with my whole heart.

Guide me in the path of your commandments: for therein is my delight.

Incline my heart to your commands: and not to selfish gain.

Turn away my eyes from looking on vanities: as I walk in your way give me life.

Make good your promise to your servant:
the promise that endures for all who fear you.

Turn aside the taunts that I dread: for your judgements are very good.

Lord, I long for your precepts: in your righteousness give me life.

SECOND READING

A reading from Paul's first letter to the Corinthians

1 CORINTHIANS 3.10-17

According to the grace of God given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and someone else is building on it. Each builder must choose with care how to build on it. For no one can lay any foundation other than the one that has been laid; that foundation is Jesus Christ. Now if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw— the work of each builder will become visible, for the Day will disclose it, because it will be revealed with fire, and the fire will test what sort of work each has done. If what has been built on the foundation survives, the builder will receive a reward. If the work is burned, the builder will suffer loss; the builder will be saved, but only as through fire. Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you? If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy that person. For God's temple is holy, and you are that temple.

Hear the word of the Lord,
Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL

The Lord be with you
And with thy spirit

The Holy Gospel is written in the 5th Chapter of the Gospel according to Matthew beginning at verse 38.

Glory be to thee, O Lord

MATTHEW 5.38-48

'You have heard that it was said, "An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth." But I say to you, Do not resist an evildoer. But if anyone strikes you on the right cheek, turn the other also; and if anyone wants to sue you and take your coat, give your cloak as well; and if anyone forces you to go one mile, go also the second mile. Give to everyone who begs from you, and do not refuse anyone who wants to borrow from you. 'You have heard that it was said, "You shall love your neighbour and hate your enemy." But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be children of your Father in heaven; for he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the righteous and on the unrighteous. For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax-collectors do the same? And if you greet only your brothers and sisters, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

This is the Gospel of the Lord: Praise be to thee, O Christ.
