

Welcome to St Peter's Cathedral. We are delighted to have you worship with us today for this service of Choral Evensong from the Book of Common Prayer. As the choir and clergy lead this service, allow the music and words to bring you into a stillness and prayerful reflection with God. Please join us in saying the words in bold. The hymns can be found in the separate hymn book. Indications for sitting, kneeling, and standing are a guide only.

St Peter's Cathedral resides on the lands of the Kurna people. We give thanks for their ancestors and acknowledge the ongoing right and responsibility of their elders to care for this Country. We are committed to work and pray towards a more just settlement for all Indigenous people and pay our respect to First Nations people with us.

St Peter's Cathedral is a Christ-centred, sacramental, inclusive, thinking, mission-oriented faith community

“He is not here; He is Risen” (Mk 16:6)

Very early on the first day of the week, Mary Magdelene, Mary the mother of James and Salome went to the tomb, with spices to anoint the body of Jesus. But to their surprise when they arrived, they found that the large stone guarding the tomb had been rolled away, and the tomb was empty apart from a young man dressed in a white robe telling them “He is not here, he is Risen”. They were told to go and tell the disciples that he is going ahead of them to Galilee. But the women were terrified, and said nothing to anyone for they were afraid!

The women have been presented in Mark's gospel as model disciples. They had stayed with Jesus as he died after the men had fled. They were there to prepare his body for burial, and it was the women who were the first missionaries of the Risen Christ (16:7). But this encounter was too much for them. They had run away.

Mark is encouraging his community, not to give up, even when they have run away, and the same is true for us. He wants to remind us that when the first disciples failed him, Jesus remained faithful to them.

THE SONG OF MIRIAM AND MOSES – EXODUS 15.1B-13

Chant: Herbert Murrill

'I will sing to the Lord, for he hath triumphed gloriously;

the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.

The Lord is my strength and song, and he is become my salvation;

he is my God, and I will prepare him an habitation, my father's God, and I will exalt him.

The Lord is a man of war; the Lord is his name.

'Pharaoh's chariots and his host hath he cast into the sea;

his chosen captains also are drowned in the Red Sea.

The depths have covered them; they sank into the bottom as a stone.

Thy right hand, O Lord, is become glorious in power;

thy right hand, O Lord, hath dashed in pieces the enemy.

And in the greatness of thine excellency thou hast overthrown them that rose up against thee:

thou sentest forth thy wrath, which consumed them as stubble.

And with the blast of thy nostrils the waters were gathered together, the floods stood upright as an heap, and the depths congealed in the heart of the sea.

The enemy said, "I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil;

my lust shall be satisfied upon them, I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them.

Thou didst blow with thy wind, the sea covered them; they sank as lead in the mighty waters.

'Who is like unto thee, O Lord, among the gods? who is like thee, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders?

Thou stretched out thy right hand, the earth swallowed them.

Thou in thy mercy hast led forth the people which thou hast redeemed;

Thou hast guided them in thy strength unto thy holy habitation.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost.

FIRST LESSON

A reading from the Second Book of Samuel

2 SAMUEL 22. 1-7, 47-51

David spoke to the Lord the words of this song on the day when the Lord delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul. He said:

The Lord is my rock, my fortress, and my deliverer,
my God, my rock, in whom I take refuge,
my shield and the horn of my salvation,
my stronghold and my refuge,
my saviour; you save me from violence.

I call upon the Lord, who is worthy to be praised,
and I am saved from my enemies.

For the waves of death encompassed me,
the torrents of perdition assailed me;
the cords of Sheol entangled me,
the snares of death confronted me.

In my distress I called upon the Lord;
to my God I called.

From his temple he heard my voice,
and my cry came to his ears.

The Lord lives! Blessed be my rock,
and exalted be my God, the rock of my salvation,
the God who gave me vengeance
and brought down peoples under me, who brought me out from my enemies;
you exalted me above my adversaries,
you delivered me from the violent.

For this I will extol you, O Lord, among the nations, and sing praises to your name.

He is a tower of salvation for his king,
and shows steadfast love to his anointed,
to David and his descendants for ever.

Here endeth the first lesson.

MAGNIFICAT

Wayne Marshall (b.1961) in C

My soul doth magnify the Lord: and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

For he hath regarded: the lowliness of his hand-maiden.

For behold, from henceforth: all generations shall call me blessed.

For he that is mighty hath magnified me: and holy is his name.

And his mercy is on them that fear him: throughout all generations.

He hath shewed strength with his arm:

he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

He hath put down the mighty from their seat: and hath exalted the humble and meek.

He hath filled the hungry with good things: and the rich he hath sent empty away.

He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel:

as he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed, for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

SECOND LESSON

A reading from the Gospel according to Saint Mark

MARK 16.1-8

When the sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint him. And very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb. They had been saying to one another, 'Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?' When they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled back. As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man, dressed in a white robe, sitting on the right side; and they were alarmed. But he said to them, 'Do not be alarmed; you are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has been raised; he is not here. Look, there is the place they laid him. But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him, just as he told you.' So they went out and fled from the tomb, for terror and amazement had seized them; and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

Here endeth the second lesson.

NUNC DIMITTIS

Wayne Marshall (b.1961) in C

Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace: according to thy word.

For mine eyes have seen: thy salvation, which thou hast prepared: before the face of all people;

to be a light to lighten the Gentiles: and to be the glory of thy people Israel.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

THE APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth: and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried. He descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.*

Because there is none other that fighteth for us but only thou, O God.

○ God, make clean our hearts within us.

And take not thy Holy Spirit from us
