

BCP EUCHARIST PROPERS

THE SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

SUNDAY 21ST MAY 2023

8AM

A warm welcome to St Peter's Cathedral as we gather for worship this morning.

St Peter's Cathedral resides on the lands of the Kaurna people. We give thanks for their ancestors and acknowledge the ongoing right and responsibility of their elders to care for this Country. We are committed to work and pray towards a more just settlement for all Indigenous people and pay our respect to First Nations people with us.

St Peter's Cathedral is a Christ-centred, sacramental, inclusive, thinking, mission-oriented faith community.

The time between Ascension Day and Pentecost is a short but significant time in the life of the church. In this time, we think about how the disciples must have felt with their confused emotional states. They would have been sad because their friend and teacher had left them permanently, but they were also filled with joy at the new knowledge they had gained from him opening their eyes to all that was written in the scriptures about him, and all that this meant for them and for the future. The Archbishop of Canterbury invite all Christians to take part in praying for more people to come to know and share this joy in the 11 days from Ascension Day to Pentecost as a part of the program "Thy Kingdom come". More information can be found about this at <https://www.thykingdomcome.global/> .

Blessings,

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

O GOD the King of glory, who hast exalted thine only Son Jesus Christ with great triumph unto thy kingdom in heaven: We beseech thee, leave us not comfortless; but send to us thine Holy Ghost to comfort us, and exalt us unto the same place whither our Saviour Christ is gone before, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

FIRST READING

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

ACTS 1.6-14

So when they had come together, they asked him, 'Lord, is this the time when you will restore the kingdom to Israel?' He replied, 'It is not for you to know the times or periods that the Father has set by his own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.' When he had said this, as they were watching, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him out of their sight. While he was going and they were gazing up towards heaven, suddenly two men in white robes stood by them. They said, 'Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking up towards heaven? This Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven.' Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a sabbath day's journey away. When they had entered the city, they went to the room upstairs where they were staying, Peter, and John, and James, and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James son of Alphaeus, and Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James. All these were constantly devoting themselves to prayer, together with certain women, including Mary the mother of Jesus, as well as his brothers.

Hear the word of the Lord,

Thanks be to God.

Please respond with the phrases in bold

PSALM 68.1-10; 68.32-35

God shall arise, and his enemies shall be scattered:
those that hate him shall flee before his face.

As smoke is dispersed, so shall they be dispersed:

as wax melts before a fire, so shall the wicked perish at the presence of God.

But the righteous shall be glad and exult before God: they shall rejoice with gladness.

O sing to God, sing praises to his name:

glorify him that rode through the deserts, him whose name is the Lord, and exult before him.

He is the father of the fatherless, he upholds the cause of the widow:

God in his holy dwelling place.

He gives the desolate a home to dwell in,

and brings the prisoners out into prosperity: but rebels must dwell in a barren land.

O God, when you went out before your people:

when you marched through the wilderness,

The earth shook, the heavens poured down water:

before the God of Sinai, before God, the God of Israel.

You showered down a generous rain, O God:

you prepared the land of your possession when it was weary.

And there your people settled:

in the place that your goodness, O God, had made ready for the poor.
Sing to God, you kingdoms of the earth: O sing praises to the Lord,
To him that rides upon the highest heavens,
that were from the beginning: who utters his voice, which is a mighty voice.
Ascribe power to God, whose majesty is over Israel: and his might is in the clouds.
Terrible is God who comes from his holy place:
the God of Israel who gives power and strength to his people. Blessed be God.

SECOND READING

A reading from the first letter of Peter

1 PETER 5

Now as an elder myself and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, as well as one who shares in the glory to be revealed, I exhort the elders among you to tend the flock of God that is in your charge, exercising the oversight, not under compulsion but willingly, as God would have you do it—not for sordid gain but eagerly.

Do not lord it over those in your charge, but be examples to the flock.

And when the chief shepherd appears, you will win the crown of glory that never fades away.

In the same way, you who are younger must accept the authority of the elders. And all of you must clothe yourselves with humility in your dealings with one another, for ‘God opposes the proud,

but gives grace to the humble.’

Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, so that he may exalt you in due time.

Cast all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you.

Discipline yourselves; keep alert. Like a roaring lion your adversary the devil prowls around, looking for someone to devour.

Resist him, steadfast in your faith, for you know that your brothers and sisters throughout the world are undergoing the same kinds of suffering.

And after you have suffered for a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ, will himself restore, support, strengthen, and establish you.

To him be the power for ever and ever. Amen.

Through Silvanus, whom I consider a faithful brother, I have written this short letter to encourage you, and to testify that this is the true grace of God. Stand fast in it.

Your sister church in Babylon, chosen together with you, sends you greetings; and so does my son Mark.

Greet one another with a kiss of love. Peace to all of you who are in Christ.

Hear the word of the Lord,

Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL

The Lord be with you

And with thy spirit

The Holy Gospel is written in the 17th Chapter of the Gospel according to John beginning at verse 1.

Glory be to thee, O Lord

JOHN 17.1-11

After Jesus had spoken these words, he looked up to heaven and said, 'Father, the hour has come; glorify your Son so that the Son may glorify you, since you have given him authority over all people, to give eternal life to all whom you have given him. And this is eternal life, that they may know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. I glorified you on earth by finishing the work that you gave me to do. So now, Father, glorify me in your own presence with the glory that I had in your presence before the world existed. 'I have made your name known to those whom you gave me from the world. They were yours, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. Now they know that everything you have given me is from you; for the words that you gave to me I have given to them, and they have received them and know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me. I am asking on their behalf; I am not asking on behalf of the world, but on behalf of those whom you gave me, because they are yours. All mine are yours, and yours are mine; and I have been glorified in them. And now I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one, as we are one.

This is the Gospel of the Lord: Praise be to thee, O Christ.

Thank you for worshipping with us today. The life and work of this Cathedral is made possible entirely through the generosity of individuals like you.
