The Privacy Act 1988 (Cth)

The Privacy Policy 2020 of the Anglican Diocese of Adelaide

The Cathedral Church of St Peter Privacy Statement

Your privacy is important to us. We are committed to protecting your privacy and to ensure that we uphold your trust. This Privacy Statement is created in compliance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and the Australian Privacy Principles. This Privacy Statement together with The Cathedral's Privacy Policy, sets out how we handle your personal information.

1. What we collect

The information that we collect about you will vary depending on the nature of involvement and the activities that you choose to be involved in. We endeavour to only ask you for information that is reasonably necessary for the activities you are seeking to be involved in. You are not required to provide the personal and/or sensitive information that we request, but if you choose not to provide it, it may hinder or prevent your involvement or inclusion in some activities and communications and the degree of pastoral support and care that we can provide you with.

The information that we collect includes:

- contact details (name, address, telephone numbers, email, etc.);
- personal details (birthdate, marital status, gender, etc.);
- family details (spouse, children, etc.);
- education qualifications and occupation information (profession, job title, etc.).

Some personal information is considered 'sensitive information'. At times we collect sensitive information about you, including:

- health information;
- religious information (attendance, denominational details, spiritual milestones)
- professional and practice information;
- criminal record; and
- credit card details.

2. Deleting your name from our database

You may request that we delete your name from our database, or from a mailing list. Please email the address below, and tell us from which email, mail address, or telephone directory you want to be deleted.

3. Use of your Picture ("Image")

We will never use the picture of a child in Cathedral publication, website, or social media unless specific approval of the parent is obtained. If an adult does not want their picture used, they must notify the Privacy Officer. Services are often livestreamed. Images of attendees may be visible, usually from the rear.

4. When we may disclose your information to third parties

We handle personal information in accordance with our Privacy Policy. Below are some specific examples of where we may disclose your information to third parties.

- To comply with legislative reporting requirements, such as reporting to Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission.
- Providing relevant information to insurers for inclusion on our relevant insurance policies.
- External service providers contracted by The Cathedral to provide support services to The Cathedral (eg administration of mail outs, information technology services).
- Releasing information in response to a warrant, subpoena, summons or written demand from a government authority with the power to demand the information or where otherwise legally required to do so.
- Notification to police and other persons if necessary to protect you or someone else from a serious or imminent threat to life or health.

We use a variety of physical and electronic security measures including restricting physical access to our office and password protection on our software systems to prevent unauthorised access.

Generally, you have a right to access personal information we hold about you. If we deny your request in some circumstances we will tell you why. Please contact The Cathedral's Privacy Officer by telephone on 8267 4551 or by writing to the Privacy Officer, St Peter's Cathedral or by email to treasurerspc@gmail.com to ask for access to your personal information, if you have a complaint about the way we handle your personal information, or if you would like more information about our approach to privacy.
