

BCP EUCHARIST PROPER

TRANSFIGURATION OF OUR LORD

SUNDAY 6TH AUGUST 2023

8AM

A warm welcome to St Peter's Cathedral as we gather for worship this morning.

St Peter's Cathedral resides on the lands of the Kurna people. We give thanks for their ancestors and acknowledge the ongoing right and responsibility of their elders to care for this Country. We are committed to work and pray towards a more just settlement for all Indigenous people and pay our respect to First Nations people with us.

St Peter's Cathedral is a Christ-centred, sacramental, inclusive, thinking, mission-oriented faith community.

On that mountain top 2000 years ago the Apostles, Peter, James, and John, who were part of Jesus' inner circle, got to see who Jesus truly was. He was transfigured before them. He was standing in good company, Moses, and Elijah. Moses representing the 'Law' and Elijah 'the Prophets'. Jesus was changed but stayed looking the same. There was something about him. His face shone. However, the disciples needed further clarification. Peter was confused, and true to the character of Peter, stumbled in with some foolish suggestions. The voice of God clarified who Jesus was: 'This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!' What was to follow for the Apostles and for the Church was exactly that, listening to him. In the context of worship and within our private prayer life we continue to seek the voice of Jesus and listen to him.

Today we will launch a financial appeal to upgrade our Audio – Visual system. As most of us know our AV system is clearly inadequate for our present needs. Please pray about how much you will support this appeal.

Blessings,

The Rt Rev'd Chris McLeod

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

GRANT to us, Lord, we beseech thee, the spirit to think and do always such things as be rightful; that we, who cannot do any thing that is good without thee, may by thee be enabled to live according to thy will; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FIRST READING

A reading from the Prophet Daniel

DANIEL 7.9-10, 13-14

As I watched,
thrones were set in place,
and an Ancient One took his throne;
his clothing was white as snow,
and the hair of his head like pure wool;
his throne was fiery flames,
and its wheels were burning fire.
A stream of fire issued
and flowed out from his presence.
A thousand thousand served him,
and ten thousand times ten thousand stood attending him.
The court sat in judgement,
and the books were opened.
As I watched in the night visions,
I saw one like a human being coming with the clouds of heaven.
And he came to the Ancient One
and was presented before him.
To him was given dominion
and glory and kingship,
that all peoples, nations, and languages
should serve him.
His dominion is an everlasting dominion
that shall not pass away,
and his kingship is one
that shall never be destroyed.

Hear the word of the Lord,
Thanks be to God.

Please respond with the phrases in bold

PSALM 97

The Lord is king; let the earth rejoice: let the multitude of islands be glad.

Clouds and darkness are round about him:

righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.

Fire goes before him: and burns up his enemies on every side.

His lightnings light the world: the earth sees it and quakes.

The mountains melt like wax before his face:

from before the face of the Lord of all the earth.

The heavens have proclaimed his righteousness:
and all peoples have seen his glory.

They are ashamed, all those who serve idols and glory in mere nothings:
all gods bow down before him.

Zion heard and was glad, and the daughters of Judah rejoiced:
because of your judgements, O God.

For you, Lord, are most high over all the earth: you are exalted far above all gods.

The Lord loves those that hate evil:

the Lord guards the life of the faithful, and delivers them from the hand of the ungodly.

Light dawns for the righteous: and joy for the true of heart.

Rejoice in the Lord, you righteous: and give thanks to his holy name.

SECOND READING

A reading from the second letter of Peter

2 PETER 1.16-19

For we did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we had been eyewitnesses of his majesty. For he received honour and glory from God the Father when that voice was conveyed to him by the Majestic Glory, saying, 'This is my Son, my Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.' We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven, while we were with him on the holy mountain. So we have the prophetic message more fully confirmed. You will do well to be attentive to this as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts.

Hear the word of the Lord,

Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL

The Lord be with you

And with thy spirit

The Holy Gospel is written in the 9 Chapter of the Gospel according to Mark beginning at verse 2.

Glory be to thee, O Lord

MARK 9.2-10

Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and John, and led them up a high mountain apart, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no one on earth could bleach them. And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses, who were talking with Jesus. Then Peter said to Jesus, 'Rabbi, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.' He did not know what to say, for they were terrified. Then a cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud there came a voice, 'This is my Son, the Beloved; listen to him!' Suddenly when they looked around, they saw no one with them any more, but only Jesus. As they were coming down the mountain, he ordered them to tell no one about what they had seen, until after the Son of Man had risen from the dead. So they kept the matter to themselves, questioning what this rising from the dead could mean.

This is the Gospel of the Lord: Praise be to thee, O Christ.

Please stand to sing the hymn when announced

HYMN 2 – CHRIST, WHOSE GLORY FILLS THE SKIES (RATISBON)

1. Christ, whose glory fills the skies,
Christ, the true, the only light,
Sun of Righteousness, arise,
triumph o'er the shades of night;
Day-spring from on high, be near;
Day-star, in my heart appear.

2. Dark and cheerless is the morn
unaccompanied by thee;
joyless is the day's return,
till thy mercy's beams I see,
till they inward light impart,
glad my eyes, and warm my heart.

3. Visit then this soul of mine,
pierce the gloom of sin and grief;
fill me, radiancy divine,
scatter all my unbelief;
more and more thyself display,
shining to the perfect day.

You are invited to listen reflectively to the organ postlude

Book Exchange: You are invited to make use of the Book Exchange set up in the CP Hall. If you have books of a religious nature that you no longer need you can donate them to the exchange, and if you see some on the shelf that interest you, please take. When you have finished they can be returned for someone else to read. Books can be anything from academic texts to fiction – but no Mills and Boon please! The shelves are set up in the corner nearest the kitchen door. There will also be a container housed at the back of the Cathedral where a selection of books will be changed regularly so that people not using the hall can be part of the exchange.

Friends Soup: The Friends of the Cathedral are hoping to warm you up with another soup day after the 10.30 service on 13th August. Once again, a mug of soup will be $5 – cash only. If you are a whizz soup maker and you would like to contribute, the Friends committee would welcome some helpers. (We don't want to run out again). The Archbishop will be with us that day and will be invited to join us after the service.

The Cathedral is hosting a public lecture by ConservationSA CEO Craig Wilkins. Craig will speak about ConservationSA, why nature is good for us and what we can do about climate change. Date and time: Thursday, August 10th 6.45pm for a 7.00pm start
Tickets online: Trybooking <https://www.trybooking.com/CKDNG>
Admission: A donation to ConservationSA will be appreciated

Confirmation group: During the 10.30am service on August 13 the Archbishop will confirm four people. Please keep Isaac, Robyn, David and Megan in your prayers as they take this significant step in their faith journey.
