ELEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

SUNDAY 13TH AUGUST 2023

8AM

A warm welcome to St Peter's Cathedral as we gather for worship this morning.

St Peter's Cathedral resides on the lands of the Kurna people. We give thanks for their ancestors and acknowledge the ongoing right and responsibility of their elders to care for this Country. We are committed to work and pray towards a more just settlement for all Indigenous people and pay our respect to First Nations people with us.

St Peter's Cathedral is a Christ-centred, sacramental, inclusive, thinking, mission-oriented faith community.

Today at the 10.30am Choral Eucharist the Archbishop of Adelaide, the Most Reverend Geoff Smith is confirming four people – Megan, David, Robyn, and Isaac. At confirmation the candidates are taking on for themselves the promises made on their behalf at their baptism. That is, they turn to Christ, repent of their sins, reject selfish living, and all that is false and unjust, and renounce Satan and all evil. A confirmation service also reminds those of us who have been baptized and confirmed of the promises we made. We know we need God's Grace to fulfil these promises. It is a momentous occasion and I'm sure you join with me in praying for them, and for ourselves, as well, as we try to live out our baptismal calling.

'Defend, O lord, these your servants with your heavenly grace, that they may continue yours forever, and daily increase in your Holy Spirit more and more until they come to your everlasting kingdom. Amen.'

Blessings,

The Rt Rev'd Chris McLeod

Celebrant and Preacher: The Most Reverend Geoffrey Smith

Readers: Ros Clarke, Ian Clarke

Please use this Propers booklet in conjunction with the yellow Order of Service.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

LET thy merciful ears, O Lord, be open to the prayers of thy humble servants; and that they may obtain their petitions make them to ask such things as shall please thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FIRST READING

A reading from the Book of Genesis

GENESIS 37.1-4, 12-28

Jacob settled in the land where his father had lived as an alien, the land of Canaan. This is the story of the family of Jacob. Joseph, being seventeen years old, was shepherding the flock with his brothers; he was a helper to the sons of Bilhah and Zilpah, his father's wives; and Joseph brought a bad report of them to their father. Now Israel loved Joseph more than any other of his children, because he was the son of his old age; and he had made him a long robe with sleeves. But when his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, they hated him, and could not speak peaceably to him. Now his brothers went to pasture their father's flock near Shechem. And Israel said to Joseph, 'Are not your brothers pasturing the flock at Shechem? Come, I will send you to them.' He answered, 'Here I am.' So he said to him, 'Go now, see if it is well with your brothers and with the flock; and bring word back to me.' So he sent him from the valley of Hebron. He came to Shechem, and a man found him wandering in the fields; the man asked him, 'What are you seeking?' 'I am seeking my brothers,' he said; 'tell me, please, where they are pasturing the flock.' The man said, 'They have gone away, for I heard them say, "Let us go to Dothan."' So Joseph went after his brothers, and found them at Dothan. They saw him from a distance, and before he came near to them, they conspired to kill him. They said to one another, 'Here comes this dreamer. Come now, let us kill him and throw him into one of the pits; then we shall say that a wild animal has devoured him, and we shall see what will become of his dreams.' But when Reuben heard it, he delivered him out of their hands, saying, 'Let us not take his life.' Reuben said to them, 'Shed no blood; throw him into this pit here in the wilderness, but lay no hand on him'—that he might rescue him out of their hand and restore him to his father. So when Joseph came to his brothers, they stripped him of his robe, the long robe with sleeves that he wore; and they took him and threw him into a pit. The pit was empty; there was no water in it. Then they sat down to eat; and looking up they saw a caravan of Ishmaelites coming from Gilead, with their camels carrying gum, balm, and resin, on their way to carry it down to Egypt. Then Judah said to his brothers, 'What profit is there if we kill our brother and conceal his blood? Come, let us sell him to the Ishmaelites, and not lay our hands on him, for he is our brother, our own flesh.' And his brothers agreed. When some Midianite traders passed by, they drew Joseph up, lifting him out of the pit, and sold him to the Ishmaelites for twenty pieces of silver. And they took Joseph to Egypt.

Hear the word of the Lord,
Thanks be to God.

PSALM 105.1-6, 16-22

O give thanks to the Lord and call upon his name:
tell among the peoples what things he has done.

Sing to him, O sing praises: and be telling of all his marvellous works.

Exult in his holy name: and let those that seek the Lord be joyful in heart.

Seek the Lord and his strength: O seek his face continually.

Call to mind what wonders he has done:

his marvellous acts, and the judgements of his mouth,

O seed of Abraham his servant: O children of Jacob his chosen one.

Then he called down a famine on the land: and destroyed the bread that was their stay.

But he had sent a man ahead of them: Joseph who was sold into slavery,

Whose feet they fastened with fetters: and thrust his neck into a hoop of iron.

Till the time that his words proved true: he was tested by the Lord's command.

Then the king sent and loosed him: the ruler of nations set him free;

He made him master of his household: and ruler over all his possessions,

To rebuke his officers at will: and to teach his counsellors wisdom.

SECOND READING

A reading from Paul's letter to the Romans.

ROMANS 10.4-15

For Christ is the end of the law so that there may be righteousness for everyone who believes.

Moses writes concerning the righteousness that comes from the law, that 'the person who does these things will live by them.'

But the righteousness that comes from faith says, 'Do not say in your heart, "Who will ascend into heaven?"' (that is, to bring Christ down)

'or "Who will descend into the abyss?"' (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead).

But what does it say?

'The word is near you, on your lips and in your heart' (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim);

because if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.

For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved.

The scripture says, 'No one who believes in him will be put to shame.'

For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him.

For, 'Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'

But how are they to call on one in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in one of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone to proclaim him?

And how are they to proclaim him unless they are sent? As it is written, 'How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!'

Hear the word of the Lord,

Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL

The Lord be with you

And with thy spirit

The Holy Gospel is written in the 14th Chapter of the Gospel according to Matthew beginning at verse 22.

Glory be to thee, O Lord

MATTHEW 14.22-36

Immediately Jesus made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. And after he had dismissed the crowds, he went up the mountain by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone, but by this time the boat, battered by the waves, was far from the land, for the wind was against them. And early in the morning he came walking towards them on the lake. But when the disciples saw him walking on the lake, they were terrified, saying, 'It is a ghost!' And they cried out in fear. But immediately Jesus spoke to them and said, 'Take heart, it is I; do not be afraid.' Peter answered him, 'Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water.' He said, 'Come.' So Peter got out of the boat, started walking on the water, and came towards Jesus. But when he noticed the strong wind, he became frightened, and beginning to sink, he cried out, 'Lord, save me!' Jesus immediately reached out his hand and caught him, saying to him, 'You of little faith, why did you doubt?' When they got into the boat, the wind ceased. And those in the boat worshipped him, saying, 'Truly you are the Son of God.' When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret. After the people of that place recognized him, they sent word throughout the region and brought all who were sick to him, and begged him that they might touch even the fringe of his cloak; and all who touched it were healed.

This is the Gospel of the Lord: Praise be to thee, O Christ.

Thank you for worshipping with us today. The life and work of this Cathedral is made possible entirely through the generosity of individuals like you. Your gift helps us to maintain this iconic building for all people to enjoy, to continue a strong music and liturgy tradition, and to support the mission of the Church. You can donate in these ways:

- After the 10:30am service, there is tea and coffee provided every week!

Unwanted glass jars – If you have any unwanted glass jars at home, please bring them in and leave them in the box under the shop ABM mission table or bring them to the office. We are collecting the jars for September flower arrangements and jam making.

Book Exchange: You are invited to make use of the Book Exchange set up in the CP Hall. If you have books of a religious nature that you no longer need you can donate them to the exchange, and if you see some on the shelf that interest you, please take. When you have finished they can be returned for someone else to read. Books can be anything from academic texts to fiction – but no Mills and Boon please! The shelves are set up in the corner nearest the kitchen door. There will also be a container housed at the back of the Cathedral where a selection of books will be changed regularly so that people not using the hall can be part of the exchange.

Friends Soup: The Friends of the Cathedral are hoping to warm you up with another soup day after the 10.30 service today! A mug of soup will be $5 – cash only.

Confirmation group: During the 10.30am service on August 13 the Archbishop will confirm four people. Please keep Isaac, Robyn, David and Megan in your prayers as they take this significant step in their faith journey.

Delicious Curry Puffs! Florence Wee is kindly baking curry puffs and selling them to fundraise money for the St Peter's Cathedral Choir Tour! Large curry puffs - $50.00 per dozen. Florence will be gathering orders through August to bake them in September for collection on specific dates. Order forms can be found in the back of the Cathedral. Please leave your name and amount you would like to purchase (per dozen) on the order sheet. Payment: Cash can be labelled in an envelope as 'Curry Puffs – Choir Tour' and brought to the office, or paid via card when picking up your order. Dates of collection can be found with the order form. Thank you for your support!

Vale Reg Neale - Many Cathedral community members will be sad to learn of the passing of my father, Reg Neale, on Saturday 5 July. He was principal sponsor of the Cathedral Art Show for over a decade and has been a supporter of the Cathedral Choir over the years. Although he worshipped elsewhere, he maintained a strong association with the Cathedral and a genuine warmth for the people here. I have received many messages of support since his passing, for which I am most appreciative. Thank you all. Michael Neale.
