

BCP EUCHARIST PROPER
EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY
AFTER PENTECOST
SUNDAY 1ST OCTOBER 2023

8AM

A warm welcome to St Peter's Cathedral as we gather for worship this morning.

St Peter's Cathedral resides on the lands of the Kaurna people. We give thanks for their ancestors and acknowledge the ongoing right and responsibility of their elders to care for this Country. We are committed to work and pray towards a more just settlement for all Indigenous people and pay our respect to First Nations people with us.

St Peter's Cathedral is a Christ-centred, sacramental, inclusive, thinking, mission-oriented faith community.

When God created the universe and everything in it, it was good. Today we give thanks for the wide variety of animals that were made as a part of the creation process. We give thanks for wild animals and pray that those under threat of extinction can be protected and kept safe from those that threaten their existence. We give thanks for animals in zoos where we are able to see and learn about them, and we give thanks that zoos take good care of their animals and provide a way to protect the future of some species. We give thanks for animals on farms and pray that they will be treated respectfully. Today we especially pray for those animals that become our companions and members of our families, our pets, and we give thanks for the joy and love that they bring into our lives.

Blessings,

The Rev'd Sally Sandford-Morgan

1. All creatures of our God and King, lift up your voice and with us sing,
Alleluia, Alleluia!
Thou burning sun with golden beam,
thou silver moon with softer gleam:
O praise him, O praise him!
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
2. Thou rushing wind that art so strong,
ye clouds that sail in heaven along,
O praise him, alleluia!
Thou rising morn, in praise rejoice,
ye lights of evening, find a voice,
Refrain
3. Thou flowing water, pure and clear, make music for thy Lord to hear,
Alleluia, alleluia!
Thou fire, so masterful and bright,
Thou givest us both warmth and light:
Refrain
4. Dear mother earth, who day by day unfoldest blessings on our way,
O praise him, alleluia!
The flowers and fruits that in thee grow,
let them his glory also show:
Refrain
5. Let all things their creator bless,
and worship him in humbleness;
O praise him! alleluia!
Praise, praise the Father, praise the Son,
and praise the Spirit, Three in One;
Refrain

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

LORD, we pray thee that thy grace may always prevent and follow us, and make us continually to be given to all good works; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FIRST READING

A reading from the Book of Exodus

EXODUS 17.1-7

From the wilderness of Sin the whole congregation of the Israelites journeyed by stages, as the Lord commanded. They camped at Rephidim, but there was no water for the people to drink. The people quarrelled with Moses, and said, 'Give us water to drink.' Moses said to them, 'Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you test the Lord?' But the people thirsted there for water; and the people complained against Moses and said, 'Why did you bring us out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and livestock with thirst?' So Moses cried out to the Lord, 'What shall I do with this people? They are almost ready to stone me.' The Lord said to Moses, 'Go on ahead of the people, and take some of the elders of Israel with you; take in your hand the staff with which you struck the Nile, and go. I will be standing there in front of you on the rock at Horeb. Strike the rock, and water will come out of it, so that the people may drink.' Moses did so, in the sight of the elders of Israel. He called the place Massah and Meribah, because the Israelites quarrelled and tested the Lord, saying, 'Is the Lord among us or not?'

Hear the word of the Lord,
Thanks be to God.

Please remain seated, the choir sings

PSALM 78.1–4, 11–16

Chant: David Swale

*Give heed to my teaching, O my people: incline your ears to the words of my mouth;
For I will open my mouth in a parable: and expound the mysteries of former times.
What we have heard and known: what our forebears have told us,
We will not hide from their children, but declare to a generation yet to come:
the praiseworthy acts of the Lord, his mighty and wonderful works.
For he did marvellous things in the sight of their ancestors:
in the land of Egypt, in the country of Zoan.
He divided the sea and let them pass through: he made the waters stand up in a heap.
In the daytime he led them with a cloud: and all night long with the light of fire.
He cleft rocks in the wilderness: and gave them drink in abundance as from springs of water.
He brought streams out of the rock: and caused the waters to flow down like rivers.
But for all this they sinned yet more against him: and rebelled against the Most High in the desert.*

SECOND READING

A reading from Paul's letter to the Philippians

PHILIPPIANS 2.1-13

If then there is any encouragement in Christ, any consolation from love, any sharing in the Spirit, any compassion and sympathy, make my joy complete: be of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind.

Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility regard others as better than yourselves.

Let each of you look not to your own interests, but to the interests of others.

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God,

did not regard equality with God
as something to be exploited,

but emptied himself,

taking the form of a slave,
being born in human likeness.

And being found in human form,
he humbled himself

and became obedient to the point of death—even death on a cross.

Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name

that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus

every knee should bend,
in heaven and on earth and under the earth,

and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord,

to the glory of God the Father.

Therefore, my beloved, just as you have always obeyed me, not only in my presence, but much more now in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling; for it is God who is at work in you, enabling you both to will and to work for his good pleasure.

Hear the word of the Lord,

Thanks be to God.

Please stand for The Gospel reading

THE GOSPEL

The Lord be with you

And with thy spirit

The Holy Gospel is written in the 10th Chapter of the Gospel according to John beginning at verse 1.

Glory be to thee, O Lord

JOHN 10.1-5

Jesus said, 'Very truly, I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate but climbs in by another way is a thief and a bandit. The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. They will not follow a stranger, but they will run from him because they do not know the voice of strangers.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord: Praise be to thee, O Christ.

Please stand to sing the hymn when announced

HYMN 547 – O LORD OF EVERY SHINING CONSTELLATION (HIGHWOOD)

1. O Lord of every shining constellation that wheels in splendor through the midnight sky, grant us your Spirit's true illumination to read the secrets of your work on high.
2. You, Lord, have made the atom's hidden forces, your laws its mighty energies fulfill;
teach us, to whom you give such rich resources,
in all we use, to serve your holy will.
3. O Life, awaking life in cell and tissue,
from flower to bird, from, beast to brain of man;
help us to trace, from birth to final issue,
the sure unfolding of your age-long plan.
4. You, Lord, have stamped your image on your creatures, and though they mar that image, love them still;
lift up our eyes to Christ, that in his features
we may discern the beauty of your will.
5. Great Lord of nature, shaping and renewing, you made us more than nature's sons to be;
you help us tread, with grace our souls enduing,
The road to life and immortality.
