

8AM

A warm welcome to St Peter's Cathedral as we gather for worship this morning.

St Peter's Cathedral resides on the lands of the Kurna people. We give thanks for their ancestors and acknowledge the ongoing right and responsibility of their elders to care for this Country. We are committed to work and pray towards a more just settlement for all Indigenous people and pay our respect to First Nations people with us.

St Peter's Cathedral is a Christ-centred, sacramental, inclusive, thinking, mission-oriented faith community.

Today we are celebrating the launch our Mission Action Plan. This is the result of an extended period of reflection and consultation, about who we are as a community, our vision, and the ways in which we may realise that vision in action. We give thanks for, and say "thank you" to, all those who have contributed to the development of the Plan.

The missional challenges we have set are ambitious, but achievable. At the same time, we must remember that the Mission Action Plan is a practical document, constantly in use and developing organically with the inevitable movements in the life of the community. We pray for the guidance and empowerment of the Holy Spirit as we go about the task of realising our vision, and for courage, imagination, and energy to continue on the road of mission in this, our journey of faith.

Blessings,

The Rt Revd Chris McLeod

Celebrant: The Revd Sally Sandford-Morgan

Preacher: The Rt Revd Chris McLeod

Readers: Jeremy Jackson, Daryl Farnham

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

O GOD, forasmuch as without thee we are not able to please thee; Mercifully grant, that thy Holy Spirit may in all things direct and rule our hearts; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FIRST READING

EXODUS 32.1-14

A reading from the Book of Exodus

When the people of Israel saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mountain, the people gathered around Aaron and said to him, "Come, make gods for us, who shall go before us; as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him." Aaron said to them, "Take off the gold rings that are on the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters and bring them to me." So all the people took off the gold rings from their ears and brought them to Aaron. He took these from them, formed them in a mould, and cast an image of a calf, and they said, "These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!" When Aaron saw this, he built an altar before it, and Aaron made proclamation and said, "Tomorrow shall be a festival to the LORD." They rose early the next day and offered burnt offerings and brought sacrifices of well-being, and the people sat down to eat and drink and rose up to revel.

The LORD said to Moses, "Go down at once! Your people, whom you brought up out of the land of Egypt, have acted perversely; they have been quick to turn aside from the way that I commanded them; they have cast for themselves an image of a calf and have worshipped it and sacrificed to it and said, 'These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!' " The LORD said to Moses, "I have seen this people, how stiff-necked they are. Now let me alone so that my wrath may burn hot against them and I may consume them, and of you I will make a great nation."

But Moses implored the LORD his God, and said, "O LORD, why does your wrath burn hot against your people, whom you brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand? Why should the Egyptians say, 'It was with evil intent that he brought them out to kill them in the mountains and to consume them from the face of the earth'? Turn from your fierce wrath; change your mind and do not bring disaster on your people. Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, your servants, how you swore to them by your own self, saying to them, 'I will multiply your descendants like the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have promised I will give to your descendants, and they shall inherit it for ever.' " And the LORD changed his mind about the disaster that he planned to bring on his people.

Hear the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

Please respond with the phrases in bold

PSALM 106.1-6, 20-24

Praise the Lord; O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good: and his mercy endures for ever.

Who can express the mighty acts of the Lord: or fully voice his praise?

Blessed are those who act according to justice: who at all times do the right.

Remember me, O Lord, when you visit your people with your favour:

and come to me also with your salvation,

That I may see the prosperity of your chosen:

that I may rejoice with the rejoicing of your people, and exult with those who are your own.

We have sinned like our ancestors: we have acted perversely and done wrong.

At Horeb they made themselves a calf: and bowed down in worship to an image.

And so they exchanged the glory of God: for the likeness of an ox that eats hay.

They forgot God who was their saviour: that had done such great things in Egypt,

Who had worked his wonders in the land of Ham:

and his terrible deeds at the Red Sea.

Therefore he thought to destroy them:

had not Moses his servant stood before him in the breach,

to turn away his wrath from destroying them.

SECOND READING

PHILIPPIANS 4.1-9

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Philippians.

My brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved.

I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord. Yes, and I ask you also, my loyal companion, help these women, for they have struggled beside me in the work of the gospel, together with Clement and the rest of my co-workers, whose names are in the book of life.

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is honourable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. As for the things that you have learned and received and heard and noticed in me, do them, and the God of peace will be with you.

Hear the word of the Lord,

Thanks be to God.

The Lord be with you.

And with thy spirit.

The Holy Gospel is written in the 22nd Chapter of the Gospel according to St Matthew beginning at verse 1.

Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Once more Jesus spoke to the chief priests and Pharisees in parables, saying:

“The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding banquet for his son. He sent his slaves to call those who had been invited to the wedding banquet, but they would not come. Again he sent other slaves, saying, ‘Tell those who have been invited: Look, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fat calves have been slaughtered, and everything is ready; come to the wedding banquet.’ But they made light of it and went away, one to his farm, another to his business, while the rest seized his slaves, mistreated them, and killed them. The king was enraged. He sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. Then he said to his slaves, ‘The wedding is ready, but those invited were not worthy. Go therefore into the main streets, and invite everyone you find to the wedding banquet.’ Those slaves went out into the streets and gathered all whom they found, both good and bad, so the wedding hall was filled with guests.

“But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing a wedding robe, and he said to him, ‘Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding robe?’ And he was speechless. Then the king said to the attendants, ‘Bind him hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’ For many are called, but few are chosen.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to thee, O Christ.

Thank you for worshipping with us today. The life and work of this Cathedral is made possible entirely through the generosity of individuals like you. Songs of Hope and Songs of Dreaming. A concert by the Adelaide Benefit Concert Choir and friends this afternoon at 2.30pm in the Cathedral to raise money to support local Aboriginal elders, and the Aboriginal Community at Point Pearce. Recommended donation $20/$10 but open to all. Please let Joan Claring-Bould know if you would like to join the choir for that occasion. We have some great soloists including Indigenous singer Robert Taylor.

October Evensong "Inasmuch" sermon series: At Evensong today, the Revd Dr Lynn Arnold continues his exploration of the contemporary implications of Jesus' call as recorded in Matthew 25:31-41 including poverty, homelessness, refugees, prisoners.

We were delighted to receive a message from Shirley-Anne Gale during the week to thank the members of the Cathedral community for their prayers and good wishes following her recent hip replacement surgery. The procedure was successful, and she is getting about (and reluctantly doing her exercises) without the pressure of constant pain. She hopes to be back at the Cathedral in the next few weeks.

For many years the congregation of St Peter's Cathedral has provided a 3 course meal of soup, casserole and vegetables and dessert on a designated Saturday evening for the Mary Mags Dinner outreach activity put on at St Mary Magdalene Church. Our next rostered day is on November 11, and your support is needed in the following areas.

- Provide a casserole :12 required.
- Be a helper on the night: 8 helpers needed.
- Make a cash donation

If you are willing to provide a casserole, please put your name on the clipboard (on the table near the main doors) and take a copy of the common casserole recipe that we use. Casseroles should be delivered to CP Hall fridge by Friday 4pm or taken to St Mary Magdalene's Church, Moore Street, Adelaide, between 4pm and 5pm on Saturday afternoon. Please add your name to the clipboard if you can help on the night (approximately 4.45pm until 7.30pm). If you would like to help with the expenses, there are specially marked envelopes for your donations, also on the clipboard.
