

8AM

A warm welcome to St Peter's Cathedral as we gather for worship this morning.

St Peter's Cathedral resides on the lands of the Kurna people. We give thanks for their ancestors and acknowledge the ongoing right and responsibility of their elders to care for this Country. We are committed to work and pray towards a more just settlement for all Indigenous people and pay our respect to First Nations people with us.

St Peter's Cathedral is a Christ-centred, sacramental, inclusive, thinking, mission-oriented faith community.

Today we will baptise three children from our Cathedral community, Denver, Dalia and Naina. It is such a joy to be a part of something that has great meaning for the families of those to be baptised and everyone else here today. Baptisms are about the end of one era and new beginnings in a life with Christ.

Our Old Testament reading is from the last chapter of Deuteronomy and tells us about Moses' death. This was the end of one era for the Israelites and the beginning of a new life for them in the Promised Land. When we take on a new life in Christ at our baptism we are saying that we will follow his two great commandments which are in the gospel reading for today, to love the Lord our God with all of our hearts, minds, bodies and strength, and to also love our neighbours as ourselves. As we think of our world in turmoil, we pray that all people can live in harmony with their neighbours in peace.

Blessings,

The Rev'd Sally Sanford-Morgan
Assistant Priest

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

GRANT, we beseech thee, merciful Lord, to thy faithful people pardon and peace; that they may be cleansed from all their sins, and serve thee with a quiet mind; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FIRST READING

DEUTERONOMY 34.1–12

A reading from the Book of Deuteronomy.

Then Moses went up from the plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is opposite Jericho, and the Lord showed him the whole land: Gilead as far as Dan, all Naphtali, the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the land of Judah as far as the Western Sea, the Negeb, and the Plain—that is, the valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees—as far as Zoar. The Lord said to him, ‘This is the land of which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, “I will give it to your descendants”; I have let you see it with your eyes, but you shall not cross over there.’ Then Moses, the servant of the Lord, died there in the land of Moab, at the Lord’s command. He was buried in a valley in the land of Moab, opposite Beth-peor, but no one knows his burial place to this day. Moses was one hundred and twenty years old when he died; his sight was unimpaired and his vigour had not abated. The Israelites wept for Moses in the plains of Moab for thirty days; then the period of mourning for Moses was ended.

Joshua son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom, because Moses had laid his hands on him; and the Israelites obeyed him, doing as the Lord had commanded Moses. Never since has there arisen a prophet in Israel like Moses, whom the Lord knew face to face. He was unequalled for all the signs and wonders that the Lord sent him to perform in the land of Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his servants and his entire land, and for all the mighty deeds and all the terrifying displays of power that Moses performed in the sight of all Israel.

Hear the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

PSALM 90.1–6, 13–17

Lord, you have been our refuge: from one generation to another.

Before the mountains were born or the earth and the world were brought to be: from eternity to eternity you are God.

You turn us back into dust: saying ‘Return to dust, O children of Adam.’

For a thousand years in your sight are like yesterday passing: or like one watch of the night.

You cut them short like a dream: like the fresh grass of the morning;

In the morning it is green and flourishes: at evening it is withered and dried up.

Relent, O Lord; how long will you be angry?: take pity on your servants.

O satisfy us early with your mercy: that all our days we may rejoice and sing.

Give us joy for all the days you have afflicted us: for the years we have suffered adversity.

Show your servants your work: and let their children see your glory.

May the gracious favour of the Lord our God be upon us:

prosper the work of our hands, O prosper the work of our hands!

SECOND READING

1 THESSALONIANS 2.1–13

A reading from the first letter of Paul to the Thessalonians.

You yourselves know, brothers and sisters, that our coming to you was not in vain, but though we had already suffered and been shamefully maltreated at Philippi, as you know, we had courage in our God to declare to you the gospel of God in spite of great opposition. For our appeal does not spring from deceit or impure motives or trickery, but just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the message of the gospel, even so we speak, not to please mortals, but to please God who tests our hearts. As you know and as God is our witness, we never came with words of flattery or with a pretext for greed; nor did we seek praise from mortals, whether from you or from others, though we might have made demands as apostles of Christ. But we were gentle among you, like a nurse tenderly caring for her own children. So deeply do we care for you that we are determined to share with you not only the gospel of God but also our own selves, because you have become very dear to us.

You remember our labour and toil, brothers and sisters; we worked night and day, so that we might not burden any of you while we proclaimed to you the gospel of God. You are witnesses, and God also, how pure, upright, and blameless our conduct was towards you believers. As you know, we dealt with each one of you like a father with his children, urging and encouraging you and pleading that you should lead a life worthy of God, who calls you into his own kingdom and glory.

We also constantly give thanks to God for this, that when you received the word of God that you heard from us, you accepted it not as a human word but as what it really is, God's word, which is also at work in you believers.

Hear the word of the Lord,

Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL

MATTHEW 22.34-46

The Lord be with you.

And with thy spirit.

The Holy Gospel is written in the 22nd Chapter of the Gospel according to St Matthew beginning at verse 34.

Glory be to thee, O Lord.

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him. 'Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?' He said to him, '“You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.” This is the greatest and first commandment. And a second is like it: “You shall love your neighbour as yourself.” On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.'

Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them this question: 'What do you think of the Messiah? Whose son is he?' They said to him, 'The son of David.' He said to them, 'How is it then that David by the Spirit calls him Lord, saying,

"The Lord said to my Lord,
'Sit at my right hand,
until I put your enemies under your feet' "?

If David thus calls him Lord, how can he be his son?' No one was able to give him an answer, nor from that day did anyone dare to ask him any more questions.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to thee, O Christ.

Thank you for worshipping with us today. The life and work of this Cathedral is made possible entirely through the generosity of individuals like you. # NOTICES

Sunday Night with Lynn Arnold on 1079 LIFE – Tonight's interview is with the Venerable David Bassett, Archdeacon of the City of Adelaide and the Port, and Chaplain to the Primate, who concludes his work in Adelaide in the coming months in preparation for a new ministry as Assistant Bishop in the Diocese of Perth from February 2024.

Tea/coffee after regular services: Our community offer hospitality at the following times:

- The Wednesday 10 am community have tea & coffee after the first Wednesday each month. The next gathering will take place next Wednesday 1 November.
- The Sunday 8 am community have tea & coffee after the first Sunday of each month. The next gathering will take place next Sunday 5 November.
- After the 10.30 am Choral Eucharist, there is tea and coffee provided every week.

October Evensong "Inasmuch" sermon series: At Evensong today, the Revd Dr Lynn Arnold concludes his exploration of the contemporary implications of Jesus' call as recorded in Matthew 25:31-41 including poverty, homelessness, refugees, prisoners.

All Souls Day, also called the "Commemoration of all the Faithful Departed", is a day of prayer and remembrance for those who have died. We remember especially the founders and benefactors of our churches, the priests and people who have so faithfully ministered in them over the years, and those among our family and friends who have meant much to us in the course of our lives. Next Sunday 5 November at Evensong, we will commemorate All Souls. On that day there will be clip boards and sheets at the entrances to the Cathedral, where you may write the names of those to be remembered. There will also be an opportunity to light a candle during the Anthem.

Mary Mags Dinner

For many years the congregation of St Peter's Cathedral has provided a 3 course meal of soup, casserole and vegetables and dessert on a designated Saturday evening for the Mary Mags Dinner outreach activity put on at St Mary Magdalene Church. Our next rostered day is on November 11, and your support is needed in the following areas.

- Provide a casserole :12 required.
- Be a helper on the night: 8 helpers needed.
- Make a cash donation

If you are willing to provide a casserole, please put your name on the clipboard (on the table near the main doors) and take a copy of the common casserole recipe that we use. Casseroles should be delivered to CP Hall fridge by Friday 4pm or taken to St Mary Magdalene's Church, Moore Street, Adelaide, between 4pm and 5pm on Saturday afternoon. Please add your name to the clipboard if you can help on the night (approximately 4.45pm until 7.30pm). If you would like to help with the expenses, there are specially marked envelopes for your donations, also on the clipboard.

ABM WASH Project

Thank you to everyone who brought in glass jars to be used in making jams to support the WASH project. We now have plenty of jars for jam making over the summer fruit season. At present, any egg cartons would be greatly received. Canon Jenny is providing eggs from her chickens for the ABM project.

Free Soup and Rolls

Soup and rolls will be served again on Friday 3 November.

Come and enjoy delicious soup, a bread roll and cheerful company.

Do you have a friend or neighbour who would like to come with you?

Everyone is welcome.

ABM stall at the Christmas market

The popular Christmas Market is fast approaching, and will be held in the Cathedral Close after Choral Eucharist on Sunday 19 November.

We will be having a baked goods stall at the Christmas market. All proceeds from this stall will go towards the ABM emergency appeal for the Al Ahli Hospital.

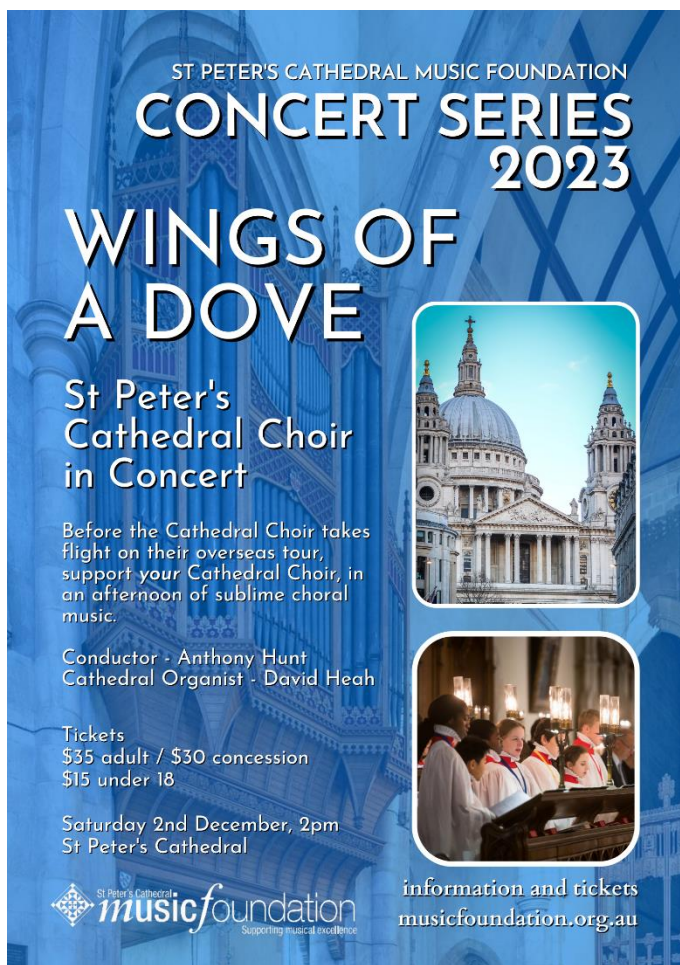

In order to prepare for this, we will be having a baking afternoon in the CP Hall from 12.30-3.30pm on November 15. If you would like to join us on the day, or donate ingredients, please speak to Julie Doherty or Sally Sandford-Morgan.
