

Welcome to St Peter's Cathedral. We are delighted to have you worship with us today for this Choral Eucharist from A Prayer Book for Australia. Please join us in saying the words in bold. The hymns can be found in the separate hymn book. All indications for sitting, kneeling, and standing are a guide only: please do whatever is most comfortable for you.

St Peter's Cathedral resides on the lands of the Kurna people. We give thanks for their ancestors and acknowledge the ongoing right and responsibility of their elders to care for this Country. We are committed to work and pray towards a more just settlement for all Indigenous people and pay our respect to First Nations people with us.

St Peter's Cathedral is a Christ-centred, sacramental, inclusive, thinking, mission-oriented faith community.

This morning we celebrate the Feast of All Saints. We delight in singing the hymn "For All the Saints", sung in procession at the 10.30am service, and in reflecting on what it is to be a saint in God's life. It is interesting that our gospel from Matthew 5 shows Jesus on a mountain beginning his teaching with the words of the Beatitudes.

Going up the mountain Jesus looks at the crowds and he truly sees them. He sees their struggles and their blessings and their strength and their frailty and he sees their hopes. He sees hunger and poverty, he sees the violence and the struggle for peace in the world, he sees sickness and persecution. He sees the crowd ... and it is out of this deep sight, that he speaks these words of blessing. Jesus speaks the deep truth that even in the greatest time of struggle, there is blessing in the "now and not yet" of life in God.

Blessings,

When the handbell rings, all stand as the clergy enter, and to sing the Processional Hymn

HYMN 296 – FOR ALL THE SAINTS (SINE NOMINE)

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Those who have clean hands and pure hearts, who do not lift up their souls to what is false; they will receive blessing from the Lord, and vindication from the God of their salvation.

PSALM 24.4, 5

Let us pray.

Please sit / kneel

Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hidden: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts, by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The choir sings

KYRIE

CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

We are surrounded by a great cloud of witnesses.

Let us then run our race, laying aside every weight and bringing our sins to the Lord in penitence and faith.

Merciful God, our maker and our judge,
we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, and in what we have failed to do:
we have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves;
we repent, and are sorry for all our sins.
Father, forgive us.
Strengthen us to love and obey you in newness of life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God,
who has promised forgiveness to all who turn to him in faith:
pardon you and set you free from all your sins,
strengthen you in all goodness and keep you in eternal life,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Please stand as the choir sings

GLORIA

Anthony Hunt (b.1981) St Peter's Setting

*Glory to God in the highest,
and peace to God's people on earth.*

Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father,

*we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.*

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father,

Lord God, Lamb of God,

you take away the sin of the world:

have mercy on us;

you are seated at the right hand of the Father:

receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One,

you alone are the Lord,

you alone are the Most High

Jesus Christ,

with the Holy Spirit,

in the glory of God the Father. Amen

COLLECT

We praise you, heavenly Father, that you have knit together your chosen ones in one communion and fellowship in the body of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord:
give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living that we may come to those inexpressible joys you have prepared for those who truly love you;
through Jesus Christ our Saviour, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns,
one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

Please sit

FIRST READING

REVELATION 7.9-17

A reading from the book of Revelation.

I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying,

‘Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!’

And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshipped God, singing,

'Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honour and power and might be to our God for ever and ever! Amen.'

Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, 'Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?' I said to him, 'Sir, you are the one that knows.' Then he said to me, 'These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.'

For this reason they are before the throne of God,
and worship him day and night within his temple,
and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them.
They will hunger no more, and thirst no more;
the sun will not strike them,
nor any scorching heat;
for the Lamb at the centre of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life,
and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.'

Hear the word of the Lord,
Thanks be to God.

The choir sings

PSALM 34.1–10, 22

Chant: George Martin (1791-1860)

*I will bless the Lord continually: his praise shall be always in my mouth.
Let my soul boast of the Lord: the humble shall hear it and rejoice.
O praise the Lord with me: let us exalt his name together.
For I sought the Lord's help and he answered: and he freed me from all my fears.
Look towards him and be bright with joy: your faces shall not be ashamed.
Here is a wretch who cried, and the Lord heard me: and saved me from all my troubles.
The angel of the Lord encamps round those who fear him: and delivers them in their need.
O taste and see that the Lord is good: happy are they that hide in him!
Fear the Lord, all you his holy ones: for those who fear him never lack.
Lions may suffer want and go hungry: but those who seek the Lord lack nothing good.
The Lord ransoms the lives of his servants: and none who hide in him will be destroyed.*

SECOND READING

1 JOHN 3.1–3

A reading from the first letter of John.

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

Hear the word of the Lord,
Thanks be to God.

Please stand to sing the Gradual Hymn

HYMN 602 – BLEST ARE THE PURE IN HEART (FRANCONIA)

During the hymn, children are invited to gather at the rear of the nave in the centre aisle to listen to the Gospel together. After the Gospel they will follow the procession to the altar and then move to the Cynthia Poulton Hall for Cathedral Kids. They will return to the Cathedral in time for Holy Communion.

Please remain standing

THE GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

The choir sings the alleluia, which is repeated by the congregation

Come to me, all you who labour and are overburdened, and I will give you rest, says the Lord.

After the verse, the alleluia is sung again by all

THE GOSPEL

MATTHEW 5.1–12

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

The prayers conclude

Accept our prayers through Jesus Christ our Lord, who taught us to pray,

Our Fa - ther in heav'n, hal - lowed be your name, your king-dom come, your will be done on earth as in heav'n. Give us to - day our dai - ly bread.
For - give us our sins as we for - give those who sin a - gainst us.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Blessed are you, Lord, God of all creation. Through your goodness we have these gifts to share. Accept and use our offerings for your glory and for the service of your kingdom.

Blessed be God for ever.

The following may be said or sung

The musical notation is set in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. It consists of four staves. The first staff is for the Priest, with the lyrics 'The Lord be ___ with you. And al - so ___ with you.' The second staff is for the Response, with the lyrics 'Lift ___ up your hearts. We lift them to ___ the Lord.' The third staff is for the Priest, with the lyrics 'Let us give thanks to the Lord ___ our God.' The fourth staff is for the Response, with the lyrics 'It is right to give our thanks and praise.'

All glory and honour be yours always and everywhere, mighty Creator, everliving God.

We give you thanks and praise for your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ, who by the power of your Spirit was born of Mary and lived as one of us.

By his death on the cross and rising to new life, he offered the one true sacrifice for sin and obtained an eternal deliverance for his people.

And now we give you thanks because you have called us into the fellowship of all your saints, and set before us the example of their witness and the fruit of your Spirit in their lives.

Therefore with angels and archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we proclaim your great and glorious name, for ever praising you and saying:

The choir sings

SANCTUS AND BENEDICTUS

Anthony Hunt (b.1981) St Peter's Setting

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Merciful God, we thank you for these gifts of your creation, this bread and wine, and we pray that by your Word and Holy Spirit, we who eat and drink them may be partakers of Christ's body and blood.

On the night he was betrayed Jesus took bread; and when he had given you thanks he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, 'Take, eat. This is my body given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.'

After supper, he took the cup, and again giving you thanks he gave it to his disciples, saying, 'Drink from this, all of you. This is my blood of the new covenant shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.'

Therefore we do as our Saviour has commanded: proclaiming his offering of himself made once for all upon the cross, his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension, and looking for his coming again, we celebrate, with this bread and this cup, his one perfect and sufficient sacrifice for the sins of the whole world.

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith:

Renew us by your Holy Spirit, unite us in the body of your Son, and bring us with all your people into the joy of your eternal kingdom; through Jesus Christ our Lord, with whom, and in whom, in the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, we worship you, Father, in songs of never-ending praise:

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD AND THE COMMUNION

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

We who are many are one body,
for we all share in the one bread.

The gifts of God for the people of God.

Come let us take this holy sacrament of the body and blood of Christ in remembrance that he died for us, and feed on him in our hearts by faith with thanksgiving.

Please sit / kneel. The choir sings

AGNUS DEI

Anthony Hunt (b.1981) St Peter's Setting

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us your peace.

ANTHEM

Tomas Luis de Victoria (1548-1611) O quam gloriosum

*O quam gloriosum est regnum,
in quo cum Christo gaudent omnes Sancti!
Amicti stolis albis, sequuntur Agnum, quocumque ierit.*

*O how glorious is the kingdom
in which all the saints rejoice with Christ, clad in robes of white
they follow the Lamb wherever he goes.*

Words: Antiphon for All Saints

Baptised and communicant Christians of all denominations are welcome to come forward and receive Holy Communion. Gluten free bread is available on request. If you do not wish to receive Holy Communion, you may like to come forward to receive a blessing (simply bow your head as a signal to the priest).

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

God, the source of all holiness: may we who have shared at this table as strangers and pilgrims on earth be welcomed with all your saints to the heavenly feast in your kingdom.

Father, we offer ourselves to you as a living sacrifice through Jesus Christ our Lord. Send us out in the power of your Spirit to live and work to your praise and glory.

Please stand to sing the Post-Communion Hymn

HYMN 300 – GLORY TO YOU, O GOD (HAREWOOD)

BLESSING

God give you grace to follow all the saints in faith and hope and love; and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always. Amen.

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

In the name of Christ. Amen.

Please remain standing as the choir and clergy depart.

After this, you are invited to sit to listen to the organ postlude.

Mary Mags Dinner, November 11

Many thanks to all of those who have offered to make casseroles or to help on the night. We now have enough people and casseroles. If you would still like to make a donation please consider contributing a dessert (eg apple crumble, fruit salad etc) or a cash donation that will be used to purchase vegetables and other additional food items.

ABM WASH Project

Thank you to everyone who brought in glass jars to be used in making jams to support the WASH project. We now have plenty of jars for jam making over the summer fruit season. At present, any egg cartons would be greatly received. Canon Jenny is providing eggs from her chickens for the ABM project.

Christmas Hampers- households supporting households

During November we will be supporting Anglicare to provide support for families in need. Donations of food, or complete hampers, are sort to assist Anglicare with their Christmas Hamper appeal. Each hamper has specific items, and shopping lists are available at the rear of the cathedral. If you would like to donate toys they must be new and not wrapped. Please bring your donations to the area in front of the cathedral shop.

ABM stall at the Christmas market

The popular Christmas Market is fast approaching, and will be held in the Cathedral Close after Choral Eucharist on Sunday 19 November.

We will be having a baked goods stall at the Christmas market. All proceeds from this stall will go towards the ABM emergency appeal for the Al Ahli Hospital.

In order to prepare for this, we will be having a baking afternoon in the CP Hall from 12.30-3.30pm on November 15. If you would like to join us on the day, or donate ingredients, please speak to Julie Doherty or Sally Sandford-Morgan.

Our Christmas Market

will be on Sunday 19 November, 9 am to 1pm.

Christmas ornaments, nativities, gifts, decorations, cards, napkins, aprons, advent calendars, candles, books, ABM mission produce stall, plants for AV project stall and much more.
