

8AM

A warm welcome to St Peter's Cathedral as we gather for worship this morning.

St Peter's Cathedral resides on the lands of the Kurna people. We give thanks for their ancestors and acknowledge the ongoing right and responsibility of their elders to care for this Country. We are committed to work and pray towards a more just settlement for all Indigenous people and pay our respect to First Nations people with us.

St Peter's Cathedral is a Christ-centred, sacramental, inclusive, thinking, mission-oriented faith community.

This morning we celebrate the Feast of All Saints. We delight in singing the hymn "For All the Saints", sung in procession at the 10.30am service, and in reflecting on what it is to be a saint in God's life. It is interesting that our gospel from Matthew 5 shows Jesus on a mountain beginning his teaching with the words of the Beatitudes.

Going up the mountain Jesus looks at the crowds and he truly sees them. He sees their struggles and their blessings and their strength and their frailty and he sees their hopes. He sees hunger and poverty, he sees the violence and the struggle for peace in the world, he sees sickness and persecution. He sees the crowd ... and it is out of this deep sight, that he speaks these words of blessing. Jesus speaks the deep truth that even in the greatest time of struggle, there is blessing in the "now and not yet" of life in God.

Blessings,

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

EVERLASTING God, our maker and redeemer, grant us, with all the faithful departed, the sure benefits of your Son's saving passion and glorious resurrection, that, in the last day, when you gather up all things in Christ, we may with them enjoy the fullness of your promises; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

FIRST READING

REVELATION 7.9-17

A reading from the book of Revelation.

I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying,

'Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!'

And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshipped God, singing,

'Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honour and power and might be to our God for ever and ever! Amen.'

Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, 'Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?' I said to him, 'Sir, you are the one that knows.' Then he said to me, 'These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.'

For this reason they are before the throne of God,
and worship him day and night within his temple,
and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them.

They will hunger no more, and thirst no more;
the sun will not strike them,
nor any scorching heat;

for the Lamb at the centre of the throne will be their shepherd,
and he will guide them to springs of the water of life,
and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.'

Hear the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

Please respond with the phrases in bold

PSALM 34.1-10, 22

I will bless the Lord continually: his praise shall be always in my mouth.

Let my soul boast of the Lord: the humble shall hear it and rejoice.

O praise the Lord with me: let us exalt his name together.

For I sought the Lord's help and he answered:

and he freed me from all my fears.

Look towards him and be bright with joy: your faces shall not be ashamed.

Here is a wretch who cried, and the Lord heard me:
and saved me from all my troubles.

The angel of the Lord encamps round those who fear him: and delivers them in their need.

O taste and see that the Lord is good: happy are they that hide in him!

Fear the Lord, all you his holy ones: for those who fear him never lack.

Lions may suffer want and go hungry:

but those who seek the Lord lack nothing good.

The Lord ransoms the lives of his servants: and none who hide in him will be destroyed.

SECOND READING

1 JOHN 3.1-3

A reading from the first letter of John.

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

Hear the word of the Lord,

Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL

MATTHEW 5.1-12

The Lord be with you.

And with thy spirit.

The Holy Gospel is written in the 5th Chapter of the Gospel according to St Matthew beginning at verse 1.

Glory be to thee, O Lord.

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to thee, O Christ.

Please stand to sing the hymn when announced

HYMN 296 - FOR ALL THE SAINTS WHO FROM THEIR LABOURS REST (SINE NOMINE)

1. For all the saints who from their labors rest, who thee by faith before the world confessed,
thy name, O Jesu, be for ever blest. Alleluia, Alleluia.
2. Thou wast their rock, their fortress, and their might;
thou, Lord, their Captain in the well-fought fight;
thou, in the darkness, still their one true light. Alleluia, Alleluia.
3. The golden evening brightens in the west;
soon, soon to faithful warriors comes their rest:
sweet is the calm of paradise the blest. Alleluia, Alleluia.
4. But lo, there breaks a yet more glorious day;
the saints triumphant rise in bright array:
the King of glory passes on his way. Alleluia, Alleluia.
5. From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
through gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
in praise of Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Alleluia, Alleluia.

Mary Mags Dinner, November 11

Many thanks to all of those who have offered to make casseroles or to help on the night. We now have enough people and casseroles. If you would still like to make a donation please consider contributing a dessert (eg apple crumble, fruit salad etc) or a cash donation that will be used to purchase vegetables and other additional food items.

ABM WASH Project

Thank you to everyone who brought in glass jars to be used in making jams to support the WASH project. We now have plenty of jars for jam making over the summer fruit season. At present, any egg cartons would be greatly received. Canon Jenny is providing eggs from her chickens for the ABM project.

Christmas Hampers- households supporting households

During November we will be supporting Anglicare to provide support for families in need. Donations of food, or complete hampers, are sort to assist Anglicare with their Christmas Hamper appeal. Each hamper has specific items, and shopping lists are available at the rear of the cathedral. If you would like to donate toys they must be new and not wrapped. Please bring your donations to the area in front of the cathedral shop.

ABM stall at the Christmas market

The popular Christmas Market is fast approaching, and will be held in the Cathedral Close after Choral Eucharist on Sunday 19 November.

We will be having a baked goods stall at the Christmas market. All proceeds from this stall will go towards the ABM emergency appeal for the Al Ahli Hospital.

In order to prepare for this, we will be having a baking afternoon in the CP Hall from 12.30-3.30pm on November 15. If you would like to join us on the day, or donate ingredients, please speak to Julie Doherty or Sally Sandford-Morgan.

Our Christmas Market will be on Sunday 19 November, 9 am to 1pm.

Christmas ornaments, nativities, gifts, decorations, cards, napkins, aprons, advent calendars, candles, books, ABM mission produce stall, plants for AV project stall and much more.
