

A warm welcome to St Peter's Cathedral as we gather for worship this morning.

St Peter's Cathedral resides on the lands of the Kurna people. We give thanks for their ancestors and acknowledge the ongoing right and responsibility of their elders to care for this Country. We are committed to work and pray towards a more just settlement for all Indigenous people and pay our respect to First Nations people with us.

St Peter's Cathedral is a Christ-centred, sacramental, inclusive, thinking, mission-oriented faith community.

The 'world' can get bad press in many Christian circles. However, it is important to clarify what we mean by the world. In Johannine literature 'the world' is so loved by God that he sends his only Son to save it (John 3: 16). Here in today's epistle John tells his readers 'not to love the world or the things of the world' (1 John 2: 15). Confusing! We soon find out, though, that he equates the world with 'desire of the flesh, the desire of the eyes, the pride in riches' (1 John 2: 16). John is concerned with what we might call worldliness, which in Biblical thought is the 'old fashioned' sin of idolatry: making Gods out of things. Jesus being raised from the dead brings us new life and a new approach to life. Our focus is not on the 'idols' of the world but on the true treasures of this world: the creation itself and the people who inhabit it. It is for this world (and the world to come) that Jesus died and was raised. The Archbishop reminded us last Saturday afternoon at The Reverend Dr Gethzi Devasagayam's commissioning at St Luke's Whitmore Square that the Good News is for all of creation (Mark 16: 15).

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

ALMIGHTY God, who shewest to them that be in error the light of thy truth, to the intent that they may return into the way of righteousness: Grant unto all them that are admitted into the fellowship of Christ's religion, that they may eschew those things that are contrary to their profession, and follow all such things as are agreeable to the same; through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

FIRST READING

ACTS 3.12-20

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

When Peter saw the people's astonishment that a lame man had been healed, he addressed the people, 'You Israelites, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we had made him walk? The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our ancestors has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and rejected in the presence of Pilate, though he had decided to release him. But you rejected the Holy and Righteous One and asked to have a murderer given to you, and you killed the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this we are witnesses. And by faith in his name, his name itself has made this man strong, whom you see and know; and the faith that is through Jesus has given him this perfect health in the presence of all of you.

'And now, friends, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers. In this way God fulfilled what he had foretold through all the prophets, that his Messiah would suffer. Repent therefore, and turn to God so that your sins may be wiped out, so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord, and that he may send the Messiah appointed for you, that is, Jesus.

Hear the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

PSALM 4

Please respond with the words in bold

Answer me when I call, O God of my righteousness:
when I was hard-pressed you set me free; be gracious to me now and hear my prayer.

Children of earth, how long will you turn my glory to my shame:

how long will you love what is worthless and seek after lies?

Know that the Lord has shown me his wonderful kindness:

when I call to the Lord he will hear me.

Tremble, and do no sin:

commune with your own heart upon your bed and be still.

Offer the sacrifices that are right: and put your trust in the Lord.

There are many who say 'Who will show us any good?:

the light of your countenance, O Lord, has gone from us.'

Yet you have given my heart more gladness:

that they have when their corn, wine and oil increase.

In peace I will lie down and sleep: for you alone, Lord, make me dwell in safety.

SECOND READING

1 JOHN 2.15-17, 3.1-6

A reading from the first letter of John.

Do not love the world or the things in the world. The love of the Father is not in those who love the world; for all that is in the world—the desire of the flesh, the desire of the eyes, the pride in riches—comes not from the Father but from the world. And the world and its desire are passing away, but those who do the will of God live for ever. See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure. Everyone who commits sin is guilty of lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he was revealed to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him sins; no one who sins has either seen him or known him.

Hear the word of the Lord,
Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL

LUKE 24.36B-48

The Lord be with you.
And with thy spirit.

The Holy Gospel is written in the 24th Chapter of the Gospel according to Luke, beginning at verse 36.

Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Jesus stood among the disciples and said to them, 'Peace be with you.' They were startled and terrified, and thought that they were seeing a ghost. He said to them, 'Why are you frightened, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet; see that it is I myself. Touch me and see; for a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have.' And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. While in their joy they were disbelieving and still wondering, he said to them, 'Have you anything here to eat?' They gave him a piece of broiled fish, and he took it and ate in their presence.

Then he said to them, 'These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you—that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled.' Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, and he said to them, 'Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.
Praise be to thee, O Christ.

On the third Monday of each month we gather at 10am in the CP Hall to pray using the way of Saint Ignatius, reflecting on the past day and praying imaginatively on a gospel passage. Our first gathering this year is on Monday 15 April. All are welcome. Please contact Canon Jenny on jwilson@stpeters-cathedral.org.au for more information.

Our parishioner Fr Peter Garland died on Thursday. Peter had been in care for several years and received regular ministry from the Cathedral. Peter was ordained for the Diocese of Adelaide in 1981/82 and was the Priest Assistant and later Precentor at the Cathedral from 1984 to 1987. His Requiem Mass will be sung at the Cathedral at a date to be announced. May Peter rest in peace and rise in glory. Amen.

"For the Love of God" is the title of the 2024 Adelaide Anglicans Conference, to be held at St Peter's Girls School on Saturday 20 April from 9.30 am to 4 pm. The conference is a great opportunity to gather as the whole family of God. It is for both laity and clergy. It will stimulate and equip us to grow in discipleship, as we listen to each other and celebrate our shared life, and to do it all for the love of God. Everyone is invited, including parishioners, lay leaders and clergy, from Adelaide and the other SA dioceses, as well as our curious or lapsed friends and family. Bring your friends. Registration is free via the Humanitix website.
