

A warm welcome to St Peter's Cathedral as we gather for worship this morning.

St Peter's Cathedral resides on the lands of the Kurna people. We give thanks for their ancestors and acknowledge the ongoing right and responsibility of their elders to care for this Country. We are committed to work and pray towards a more just settlement for all Indigenous people and pay our respect to First Nations people with us.

St Peter's Cathedral is a Christ-centred, sacramental, inclusive, thinking, mission-oriented faith community.

Jesus Christ is the good shepherd. For generations, the image of Jesus the good shepherd has comforted children and those in trouble or facing death. As a rabbi with disciples and a following, his example of a good leader has inspired Christians in all walks of life, whether consciously or unconsciously, to act selflessly in caring for others and to protect them courageously. Jesus the good shepherd has a particular resonance for us this week in the approach to Anzac Day.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

O Almighty God, who alone canst order the unruly wills and affections of the sinful; Grant unto thy people, that they may love the thing which thou commandest, and desire that which thou dost promise; that so, among the sundry and manifold changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed, where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

FIRST READING

ACTS 4.5-12

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

The rulers, elders, and scribes assembled in Jerusalem, with Annas the high priest, Caiaphas, John, and Alexander, and all who were of the high-priestly family. When they had made the prisoners stand in their midst, they inquired, 'By what power or by what name did you do this?' Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, 'Rulers of the people and elders, if we are questioned today because of a good deed done to someone who was sick and are asked how this man has been healed, let it be known to all of you, and to all the people of Israel, that this man is standing before you in good health by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead. This Jesus is “the stone that was rejected by you, the builders;

it has become the cornerstone.”

'There is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among mortals by which we must be saved.'

Hear the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

PSALM 23

Please respond with the words in bold

The Lord is my shepherd: therefore can I lack nothing.

He will make me lie down in green pastures: and lead me beside still waters.

He will refresh my soul: and guide me in right pathways for his name's sake.

Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:

for you are with me, your rod and your staff comfort me.

You spread a table before me in the face of those who trouble me:

you have anointed my head with oil, and my cup shall be full.

Surely your goodness and loving-kindness will follow me all the days of my life:

and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

SECOND READING

1 JOHN 3.16-24

A reading from the first letter of John.

We know love by this, that he laid down his life for us—and we ought to lay down our lives for one another. How does God’s love abide in anyone who has the world’s goods and sees a brother or sister in need and yet refuses help?

Little children, let us love, not in word or speech, but in truth and action. And by this we will know that we are from the truth and will reassure our hearts before him whenever our hearts condemn us; for God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything. Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have boldness before God; and we receive from him whatever we ask, because we obey his commandments and do what pleases him.

And this is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. All who obey his commandments abide in him, and he abides in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit that he has given us.

Hear the word of the Lord,

Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL

JOHN 10.11-18

The Lord be with you.

And with thy spirit.

The Holy Gospel is written in the 10th Chapter of the Gospel according to John, beginning at verse 11.

Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Jesus said to the Pharisees: ‘I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. The hired hand, who is not the shepherd and does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away—and the wolf snatches them and scatters them. The hired hand runs away because a hired hand does not care for the sheep. I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father. And I lay down my life for the sheep. I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd. For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again. No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it up again. I have received this command from my Father.’

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to thee, O Christ.

Thank you for worshipping with us today. The life and work of this Cathedral is made possible through the generosity of individuals like you. NOTICES

Tea/coffee after regular services: Our community offers hospitality at the following times:

- The Wednesday 10 am community have tea and coffee after the first Wednesday each month. The next gathering will take place on Wednesday 1 May.
- The Sunday 8 am community have tea and coffee after the first Sunday of each month. The next gathering will take place on Sunday 5 May.
- After the 10:30 am Eucharist, there is tea and coffee provided every week.

Sunday Night with Lynn Arnold (7 pm on 1079Life). Lynn's guest this week will be Clyde Rabideau, former mayor of Saranac Lake in New York State. Each year for the past 10 years the community has held an ANZAC commemoration to honour the life of the late Captain Paul McKay and others whose lives have been lost as a result of their service to their countries.

Tonight at 6 pm we welcome Syntony Chamber Choir with Anthony Hunt (organ) in a rare liturgical performance of Compline, the last of the Church's formal services of daily prayer. The music is a setting by the Italian Baroque composer Giovanni Legrenzi, whose music we have often heard in the Cathedral as a result of the research done by our late Director of Music Dr David Swale.

Tap-n-go handsets for use during the Collection have been available at Evensong since October last year. Familiarity with the technology has increased and they are being regularly used without difficulty. This month they are being introduced at the 10:30 am Choral Eucharist with two tap-n-go collection plates used in addition to the existing collection bags. It is not intended to introduce the handsets at the 8 am Eucharist at this point.

The Cinema Group next meets on Monday 22 April, Prospect Cinemas. Film: 'Freud's Last Session' at 5.40 pm. Please join us for the film, and a pizza afterwards at 7.45 at Cafe Palazzo, 180 O'Connell Street North Adelaide. Buy your cinema ticket online. To reserve your place at the dinner RSVP to lesmilner@hotmail.com. New members welcome. Enquiries to Les Milner 0416 090 143.

ANZAC Day Public Holiday. The Cathedral will be open for visiting and private prayer from 10:30 am to 3:30 pm on Thursday for the ANZAC Day public holiday. The Friends will be providing free coffee, tea and ANZAC biscuits. Our thanks to the volunteers who make this possible. The 7:30 am Eucharist will be celebrated (for the Feast of St Mark) as usual.

Baptisms and Confirmations. Next Sunday at 8 am we will celebrate the Confirmation of Jonty Cavendish-Eaves, and then at 10:30 am we will celebrate the Baptism of Ann Gregory-Larson, Jonathon Rajneesh and Krystal Sparrow. We will also celebrate their Confirmation along with that of Lisa Moore. There will be a special morning tea after the Choral Eucharist. Please remember the candidates and their sponsors in your prayers.

Next Sunday at Choral Evensong we welcome as guest speaker Robert McLean who is the Key Relationships Coordinator with the Anglican Board of Mission. This is the Sunday in the year when we focus on the work of ABM in Australia and further afield.

St Peter's Cathedral and St Barnabas College Reading Group. As part of the Cathedral's education programs there will be a monthly reading group to reflect on the book Creation and the Cross: The Mercy of God for a Planet in Peril by the Catholic feminist theologian Elizabeth Johnson CSJ. The book is written as a conversation between Johnson and her student Clara. The group will meet at St Barnabas' College from 2 – 3.30 pm on the 3rd Wednesday of each month from May to October. For more information contact Jenny Wilson (jwilson@stpeters-cathedral.org.au) or Caralyn Lammas (educationprograms@sbc.edu.au).
