

A warm welcome to St Peter's Cathedral as we gather for worship this morning.

St Peter's Cathedral resides on the lands of the Kurna people. We give thanks for their ancestors and acknowledge the ongoing right and responsibility of their elders to care for this Country. We are committed to work and pray towards a more just settlement for all Indigenous people and pay our respect to First Nations people with us.

St Peter's Cathedral is a Christ-centred, sacramental, inclusive, thinking, mission-oriented faith community.

This morning, we welcome as our preacher the Reverend Canon Mara Di Francesco. Canon Mara is a member of our Cathedral Chapter. However, this morning Canon Mara is preaching in her capacity as a Chaplain with AnglicareSA. The month of May is set aside in the Diocese to focus on the ministry of our chaplains for Health and Community. This includes chaplains who work in our public and private hospitals, aged care homes, and in the community through Anglicare and other organisations.

Chaplains are at the forefront of our ministry with the community. A chaplain is often the first person someone comes in contact with in the time of need. The ministry of the chaplain is essential to our connection with the wider community and for many who do not have any contact with the church. Their ministry is invaluable. We look forward to hearing what Canon Mara shares with us this morning.

Blessings,

The Right Rev'd Chris McLeod

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

O LORD, from whom all good things do come: Grant to us thy humble servants, that by thy holy inspiration we may think those things that be good, and by thy merciful guiding may perform the same; through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

FIRST READING

ACTS 10.44-48

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

While Peter was speaking, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who heard the word. The circumcised believers who had come with Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on the Gentiles, for they heard them speaking in tongues and extolling God. Then Peter said, 'Can anyone withhold the water for baptizing these people who have received the Holy Spirit just as we have?' So he ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they invited him to stay for several days.

Hear the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

PSALM 98

Please respond with the words in bold

O sing to the Lord a new song: for he has done marvellous things;

His right hand and his holy arm: they have got him the victory.

The Lord has made known his salvation:

he has revealed his just deliverance in the sight of the nations.

He has remembered his mercy and faithfulness towards the house of Israel:

and all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

Shout with joy to the Lord, all the earth: break into singing and make melody.

Make melody to the Lord upon the harp:

upon the harp and with the sounds of praise.

With trumpets and with horns: cry out in triumph before the Lord, the king.

Let the sea roar, and all that fills it: the good earth and those who live upon it.

Let the rivers clap their hands: and let the mountains ring out together before the Lord;

For he comes to judge the earth:

he shall judge the world with righteousness, and the peoples with equity.

SECOND READING

1 JOHN 5.1-12

A reading from the first letter of John.

Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the parent loves the child. By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. For the love of God is this, that we obey his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome, for whatever is born of God conquers the world. And this is the victory that conquers the world, our faith. Who is it that conquers the world but the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

This is the one who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ, not with the water only but with the water and the blood. And the Spirit is the one that testifies, for the Spirit is the truth. There are three that testify: the Spirit and the water and the blood, and these three agree. If we receive human testimony, the testimony of God is greater; for this is the testimony of God that he has testified to his Son. Those who believe in the Son of God have the testimony in their hearts. Those who do not believe in God have made him a liar by not believing in the testimony that God has given concerning his Son. And this is the testimony: God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life.

Hear the word of the Lord,
Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL

JOHN 15.9-17

The Lord be with you.
And with thy spirit.

The Holy Gospel is written in the 15th Chapter of the Gospel according to John, beginning at verse 9.

Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Jesus said, as the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete.

This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I do not call you servants any longer, because the servant does not know what the master is doing; but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father. You did not choose me but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name. I am giving you these commands so that you may love one another.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.
Praise be to thee, O Christ.

At the end of the Eucharist, when invited, please stand to sing hymn

HYMN 748 – O JESUS, I HAVE PROMISED (WOLVERCOTE)

After this, all are invited to sit to listen to the organ postlude.

| 1 O Jesus, I have promised
to serve thee to the end;
be thou forever near me,
my Master and my Friend:
I shall not fear the battle
if thou art by my side,
nor wander from the pathway
if thou wilt be my Guide. | 2 O let me feel thee near me:
the world is ever near;
I see the sights that dazzle,
the tempting sounds I hear;
my foes are ever near me,
around me and within;
but, Jesus, draw thou nearer,
and shield my soul from sin. |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

3 O let me hear thee speaking in accents clear and still above the storms of passion,
the murmurs of self-will;
O speak to reassure me,
to hasten or control;
O speak, and make me listen,
thou guardian of my soul.

4 O Jesus, thou hast promised
to all who follow thee,
that where thou art in glory
there shall thy servant be;
and, Jesus, I have promised
to serve thee to the end:
O give me grace to follow,
my Master and my Friend.

5 O let me see thy foot-marks,
and in them plant mine own;
my hope to follow duly
is in thy strength alone:
O guide me, call me, draw me,
uphold me to the end;
and then in heaven receive me,
my Saviour and my Friend.

Thank you for worshipping with us today.
