

Welcome to St Peter's Cathedral. We are delighted to have you worship with us today for this service of Choral Evensong from the Book of Common Prayer. As the choir and clergy lead this service, allow the music and words to bring you into a stillness and prayerful reflection with God. Please join us in saying the words in bold. The hymns can be found in the separate hymn book. Indications for sitting, kneeling, and standing are a guide only.

St Peter's Cathedral resides on the lands of the Kurna people. We give thanks for their ancestors and acknowledge the ongoing right and responsibility of their elders to care for this Country. We are committed to work and pray towards a more just settlement for all Indigenous people and pay our respect to First Nations people with us.

St Peter's Cathedral is a Christ-centred, sacramental, inclusive, thinking, mission-oriented faith community.

One of the many comments we get about the Cathedral's ministry is the appreciation of our music ministry. We are fortunate to be served by dedicated musicians and choir. Adding to that number is Andrew Georg who joins us today as the Cathedral Organist and Assistant Director of Music. Andrew brings to the Cathedral a wealth of experience and talent. Andrew was previously Organist and Director of Music at Christ Church, North Adelaide. We welcome Andrew as he begins his ministry with us.

The Cathedral community is enormously proud of the money raised for the Solar Panels Project which will make a real difference to people who need our support. Taking care of others includes a responsibility to take care of creation, and the solar panel project succeeds in reducing our impact on the environment. Climate change and creation care sometimes seem too large and vague for us to handle. Projects like this are practical ways of caring for our neighbours, both near and far. They remind us that what we do matters, and that we all have a role to play.

With God, so much is possible.

THE PRECES

June Nixon (b.1942)

O Lord, open thou our lips.
And our mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

O God, make speed to save us.
O Lord, make haste to help us.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Praise ye the Lord.
The Lord's name be praised.

Please be seated for the welcome.

PSALM 63

Chant: Ivor Atkins (1869-1953)

O GOD, thou art my God:
early will I seek thee.
My soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh also longeth after thee:
in a barren and dry land where no water is.
Thus have I looked for thee in holiness:
that I might behold thy power and glory.
For thy loving-kindness is better than the life itself:
my lips shall praise thee.
As long as I live will I magnify thee on this manner:
and lift up my hands in thy Name.
My soul shall be satisfied, even as it were with marrow and fatness:
when my mouth praiseth thee with joyful lips.
Have I not remembered thee in my bed:
and thought upon thee when I was waking?
Because thou hast been my helper:
therefore under the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.
My soul hangeth upon thee:
thy right hand hath upholden me.
These also that seek the hurt of my soul:
they shall go under the earth.
Let them fall upon the edge of the sword:
that they may be a portion for foxes.
But the King shall rejoice in God; all they also that swear by him shall be commended:
for the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost.

THE FIRST LESSON

SONG OF SOLOMON 3.1-4A

The lesson from the Song of Solomon, chapter 3, beginning at verse 1.

Upon my bed at night

I sought him whom my soul loves;

I sought him, but found him not;

I called him, but he gave no answer.

‘I will rise now and go about the city,

in the streets and in the squares;

I will seek him whom my soul loves.’

I sought him, but found him not.

The sentinels found me,

as they went about in the city.

‘Have you seen him whom my soul loves?’

Scarcely had I passed them,

when I found him whom my soul loves.

I held him, and would not let him go until I brought him into my mother’s house, and into the chamber of her that conceived me.

Here ends the Lesson.

MAGNIFICAT

Herbert Howells (1892-1983) Gloucester Service

My soul doth magnify the Lord: and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

For he hath regarded: the lowliness of his hand-maiden.

For behold, from henceforth: all generations shall call me blessed.

For he that is mighty hath magnified me: and holy is his name.

And his mercy is on them that fear him: throughout all generations.

He hath shewed strength with his arm:

he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

He hath put down the mighty from their seat: and hath exalted the humble and meek.

He hath filled the hungry with good things: and the rich he hath sent empty away.

He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel:

as he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed, for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

SECOND LESSON

JOHN 20.1-18

The lesson from the Gospel according to John, chapter 20, beginning at verse 1.

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, 'They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him.' Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went towards the tomb. The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in. Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen wrappings lying there, and the cloth that had been on Jesus' head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. Then the disciples returned to their homes.

But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb; and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet. They said to her, 'Woman, why are you weeping?' She said to them, 'They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him.' When she had said this, she turned round and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, 'Woman, why are you weeping? For whom are you looking?' Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, 'Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away.' Jesus said to her, 'Mary!' She turned and said to him in Hebrew, 'Rabbouni!' (which means Teacher). Jesus said to her, 'Do not hold on to me, because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, "I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God."' Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, 'I have seen the Lord'; and she told them that he had said these things to her.

Here ends the Lesson.

Please stand.

For mine eyes have seen: thy salvation, which thou hast prepared: before the face of all people;

to be a light to lighten the Gentiles: and to be the glory of thy people Israel.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

THE LESSER LITANY AND RESPONSES

June Nixon (b.1942)

The Lord be with you.
And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

Please kneel/ sit

*Lord, have mercy upon us.
Christ, have mercy upon us.
Lord, have mercy upon us.*

*Our Father which art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy Name,
Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done,
in earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive them that trespass against us;
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil. Amen.*

○ Lord, shew thy mercy upon us.
And grant us thy salvation.

○ Lord, save the King.
And mercifully hear us when we call upon thee.

Endue thy ministers with righteousness.

And make thy chosen people joyful.

O Lord, save thy people.

And bless thine inheritance.

Give peace in our time, O Lord.

Because there is none other that fighteth for us, but only thou, O God.

O God, make clean our hearts within us.

And take not thy Holy Spirit from us.

COLLECTS

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Almighty God, whose blessed Son restored Mary Magdalene to health of body and of mind, and called her to be a witness of his resurrection: Mercifully grant that by your grace we may be healed from all our infirmities and know you in the power of his unending life; who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE COLLECT FOR PEACE

O GOD, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed: Give unto thy servants that peace which the world cannot give; that both our hearts may be set to obey thy commandments, and also that by thee we being defended from the fear of our enemies may pass our time in rest and quietness; through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

THE COLLECT FOR AID AGAINST ALL PERILS

LIGHTEN our darkness, we beseech thee, O Lord; and by thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night; for the love of thy only Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Please remain seated. The choir sings

ANTHEM

Charles V. Stanford (1852-1924) When Mary thro' the garden went

*When Mary thro' the garden went,
there was no sound of any bird,
And yet, because the night was spent,
the little grasses lightly stirred,
the flowers awoke, the lilies heard.*

*When Mary thro' the garden went,
the dew lay still on flower and grass,
The waving palms above her sent their fragrance out as she did pass.
No light upon their branches was.*

*When Mary thro' the garden went,
her eyes, for weeping long, were dim.
The grass beneath her footsteps bent,
the solemn lilies, white and slim,
these also stood and wept for Him.*

*When Mary thro' the garden went,
she sought, within the garden ground,
One for Whom her heart was rent,
One Who for her sake was bound,
One Who sought and she was found.*

The Cathedral has a Mission Action Plan which documents the ways in which we are being called to participate in God's mission. This is a living document, and is regularly reviewed. The Cathedral Council will be focussing on this in July and August, and every member of the community is invited to contribute their ideas, and to pray about how we might grow in discipleship and share the good news. Please speak to any member of the Cathedral Council.

You can't ask that: Christianity. An opportunity to ask one of the clergy the questions you always wanted to ask about the Christian faith. The sessions will be held on Sunday at 5pm (before Evensong) on August 4, 11, 18, and 25 in the Cynthia Poulton Hall. A 'Question Box' will be available for you to post your question in advance.

Today we celebrate the success of our first Mission projects for the year. The AnglicareSA Solar Panel project is a major project to provide solar panel installations on community housing, with the ability for excess power to be consolidated and shared. We aimed for a target of at least $5,000, to be increased considerably by the philanthropic support of two donors who will both match funding up to an amount of $5,000; with AnglicareSA to further match the total raised. So $5,000 raised by the Cathedral community would generate $30,000, enough for six complete installations that will benefit not only the residents of the properties but additional residents where the infrastructure for power sharing exists. As of 30 June we raised in excess of $13,500. With matched donor funding, this becomes $23,500 before AnglicareSA additional matched funding brings the total to $47,000. Thanks be to God!
