

Taizé to remember Brother Roger

Celebrating the Taizé Community and the anniversary of the death of its founder

Saturday 7 September 2024
7.30pm

Welcome to this service during which we give thanks for the establishment of the Taizé Community by Brother Roger Schütz.

The Taizé Community was founded as a symbol of hope in a broken and confused world at the end of the second world war. It started because of one man's dream that a better world was possible. It started small like the mustard seed, but now that message of hope, peace and love has spread through every continent on earth through the worship and music of Taizé.

Let us pray that God will use our Taizé services at St. Peter's Cathedral to bring hope to the broken hearted, healing to the sick in body and mind, peace to the anxious and hope and joy to all who open their hearts in trust, to God's love.

Opening Song Stay with me, remain here with me.
Watch and pray, watch and pray. (Taizé Bk. 1: 8)

The Lighting of the Candles

L. Come to us this night O God,
R. Come to us with light.
L. Speak to us this night O God,
R. Speak to us your truth.
L. Dwell with us this night O God,
R. Dwell with us in love.

Song Jesus remember me when you come into your kingdom. (Taizé Bk. 1:49)

SENTENCE No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends.
(Jn 15:13)

Song Nada te turbe,nada te espante,
Quien a Dios tiene, Nada ta falta.
Nada te turbe,nada te espante,
Solo dios basta. (Taizé Bk1: 29)

Reading

1 John 4:7-12;18-19 (English Standard Version)

God Is Love

Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us.

There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not been perfected in love. We love because he first loved us.

Song

Ubi caritas et amor

Ubi caritas Deus ibi est. (Taizé Bk 1: 49)

(Where charity and love are, God is to be found)

Homily

The Rev'd Joan Claring-Bould

Intercessions

We gather together to celebrate the joy in our lives.

God's love fills our hearts to overflowing with laughter.

We gather, in God's presence, to find comfort and hope for our pain.

God's grace wipes away our tears and knits us together as one people.

We gather together, in God's presence, to worship God in faith and truth.

Healing God, when dismay is our daily companion,

you come to touch us with your healing hope.

When grief falls on us like a wall of bricks,

you rebuild our joy with your comfort and love.

L. Lord, hear our prayer.

R. O Lord, hear my prayer, O Lord, hear my prayer,

When I call, answer me.

O Lord hear my prayer, O Lord hear my prayer,

Come and listen to me. (Taizé Bk. 1: 20)

Concluding Prayer

Deep peace of the running wave to you,
Deep peace of the flowing air to you,
Deep peace of the quiet earth to you.
Deep peace of the shining stars to you.
Deep peace of the gentle night to you,
Moon and stars pour their healing light on you
Deep peace of Christ the light of the world to you:
Deep peace of Christ. (Scots Celtic Prayer)

Blessing

Song Be not afraid sing out for joy, Christ is risen, Alleluia.
 Be not afraid sing out for joy, Christ is risen. Alleluia.
