

Welcome to St Peter's Cathedral. We are delighted to have you worship with us today for this Eucharist from the Book of Common Prayer. The order of service is in the separate booklet.

St Peter's Cathedral resides on the lands of the Kurna people. We give thanks for their ancestors and acknowledge the ongoing right and responsibility of their elders to care for this Country. We are committed to work and pray towards a more just settlement for all Indigenous people and pay our respect to First Nations people with us.

St Peter's Cathedral is a Christ-centred, sacramental, inclusive, thinking, mission-oriented faith community.

Welcome to St Peter's Cathedral for our celebration of All Saints Day. Today we commemorate all the saints known and unknown who have gone before us in the faith. This morning I would like to reflect a little on what being a saint means, as we look back on the example of our forebears and as we look around us for contemporary examples of 'saintliness'.

I'm also delighted that this morning the Flower Guild will present a donation to Anglicare SA's Post Care Pathways program for their garden project. And in keeping with the Anglicare theme we will also be launching the Cathedral's Christmas Hamper Donation Drive.

May God bless us this morning as we gather to worship God and to commemorate God's saints of all times and ages.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

O ALMIGHTY God, who hast knit together thine elect in one communion and fellowship, in the mystical body of thy Son Christ our Lord; Grant us grace so to follow thy blessed Saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those unspeakable joys, which thou hast prepared for them that unfeignedly love thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

FIRST READING

ISAIAH 25.6-9

A reading from the Prophet Isaiah.

On this mountain the Lord of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-matured wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-matured wines strained clear.

And he will destroy on this mountain
the shroud that is cast over all peoples,
the sheet that is spread over all nations;
he will swallow up death for ever.

Then the Lord God will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth,
for the Lord has spoken.

It will be said on that day,
Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us.
This is the Lord for whom we have waited;
let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

Hear the word of the Lord
Thanks be to God.

PSALM 24

Please respond with the words in bold

The earth is the Lord's and all that is in it:
the compass of the world and those who dwell therein.

For he has founded it upon the seas:
and established it upon the waters.

Who shall ascend the hill of the Lord:
or who shall stand in his holy place?

Those who have clean hands and a pure heart:
who have not set their soul upon idols,
nor sworn their oath to a lie.

They shall receive blessing from the Lord:
and recompense from the God of their salvation.

Of such a kind as this are those who seek him:
those who seek your face, O God of Jacob.

Lift up your heads, O you gates,
and be lifted up, you everlasting doors:
and the King of glory shall come in.

Who is the King of glory?:
the Lord, strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle.

Lift up your heads, O you gates,
and be lifted up, you everlasting doors:
and the King of glory shall come in.

Who is the King of glory?:
the Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory.

SECOND READING

REVELATION 21.1-6A

A reading from the book of Revelation.

I, John, saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying,

‘See, the home of God is among mortals.
He will dwell with them;
they will be his peoples,
and God himself will be with them;
he will wipe every tear from their eyes.
Death will be no more;
mourning and crying and pain will be no more,
for the first things have passed away.’

And the one who was seated on the throne said, ‘See, I am making all things new.’ Also he said, ‘Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true.’ Then he said to me, ‘It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end.

Hear the word of the Lord,
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL READING

JOHN 11.32-44

The Lord be with you.
And with thy spirit.

The Holy Gospel is written in the 11th Chapter of the Gospel according to John, beginning at verse 32.

Glory be to thee, O Lord.

When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, ‘Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.’ When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, ‘Where have you laid him?’ They said to him, ‘Lord, come and see.’ Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, ‘See how he loved him!’ But some of them said, ‘Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?’

Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, ‘Take away the stone.’ Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, ‘Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead for four days.’ Jesus said to her, ‘Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?’ So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upwards and said, 'Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me.' When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, 'Lazarus, come out!' The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, 'Unbind him, and let him go.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to thee, O Christ.

At the end of the Eucharist, when invited, please stand to sing the hymn

- 1 For all the saints who from their labours rest,
who thee by faith before the world confessed,
thy name, O Jesu, be for ever blest. Alleluia.
- 2 Thou wast their rock, their fortress, and their might;
thou, Lord, their Captain in the well-fought fight;
thou, in the darkness, still their one true light. Alleluia.
- 3 O may thy soldiers, faithful, true, and bold,
fight as the saints who nobly fought of old,
and win, with them, the victor's crown of gold. Alleluia.
- 4 And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
steals on the ear the distant triumph-song,
and hearts are brave again, and arms are strong. Alleluia.
- 5 The golden evening brightens in the west;
soon, soon to faithful warriors comes their rest:
sweet is the calm of paradise the blest. Alleluia.

You are invited to sit to listen to the organ postlude.

The Open Door – Wednesday 6 November at 6 pm: Church with a difference. We invite you to join us for an informal dinner gathering in the Cynthia Poulton Hall. It is a safe and honest space to explore the Christian faith, life, and meaning, offering mutual prayer, support and friendship. RSVP Susan McLeod 0428 838 139.

In Remembrance and Hope: Veterans Mental Health Fundraiser on Sunday 17 November at 2pm we will be hosting a fundraising concert for mental health services for veterans. The concert will feature the Adelaide Benefit Concert Choir, the 10th/27th Battalion Royal South Australian Regiment Band and special guest vocalist Libby O'Donovan. Contact Joan Claring-Bould 0409 520 823.

We are delighted to announce the appointment of the Rev'd Margaret Peel-Shakespeare as Assistant Priest at the Cathedral from Sunday 1 December. Margaret was ordained in the Episcopal Church (USA) and recently relocated to Adelaide to take up the part time position of Director of Formation. She will combine this work with a further part-time appointment at the Cathedral. The Rev'd Dr Susan Straub, who has been filling the Assistant Priest role since January, will be with us to the end of January 2025.

Tonight at 6pm we observe All Souls Day when we remember and pray for all those who have died, especially those who have meant much to us in the course of our lives. This evening, instead of Evensong, the Cathedral Choir will sing Fauré's beautiful Requiem in celebration of All Souls, set within the context of the eucharist.
