

Welcome to St Peter's Cathedral. We are delighted to have you worship with us today for this Eucharist from the Book of Common Prayer. The order of service is in the separate booklet.

St Peter's Cathedral resides on the lands of the Kaurna people. We give thanks for their ancestors and acknowledge the ongoing right and responsibility of their elders to care for this Country. We are committed to work and pray towards a more just settlement for all Indigenous people and pay our respect to First Nations people with us.

St Peter's Cathedral is a Christ-centred, sacramental, inclusive, thinking, mission-oriented faith community.

We are in the final Sunday of Easter and the 40 days is over! We celebrated Ascension Day last week on Thursday, the day Christ ascended into heaven. Next week is Pentecost where we celebrate the Holy Spirit coming to the disciples in the Upper room. For this week, we find ourselves situated in the scripture in Acts, Revelation and John, readings that speak to miracles of God and God's presence in the life of the disciples and those they meet. We hear of the Apostle Paul and Silas imprisoned and in chains and the miracle of their release. Come join us and hear the ways in which the glory of God has come among them and how God is still among us today.

Blessings,

The Rev'd Margaret Peel-Shakespeare

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

O God, the King of glory, who has exalted thine only Son Jesus Christ with great triumph unto thy kingdom in heaven; We beseech thee, leave us not comfortless; but send to us thine Holy Ghost to comfort us, and exalt us unto the same place whither our Saviour Christ is gone before, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end. Amen.

THE COLLECT FOR NATIONAL RECONCILIATION WEEK

Lord, open up our hearts so that we may hear the message you teach of a world in which the wrongs of the past are recognised; a world in which a reconciled people walk and talk together sharing stories; a world in which all burn with the desire to have your peace and justice reign. We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.

FIRST READING

ACTS 16.16-34

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

One day, as we were going to the place of prayer, we met a slave-girl who had a spirit of divination and brought her owners a great deal of money by fortune-telling. While she followed Paul and us, she would cry out, 'These men are slaves of the Most High God, who proclaim to you a way of salvation.' She kept doing this for many days. But Paul, very much annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, 'I order you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her.' And it came out that very hour.

But when her owners saw that their hope of making money was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the market-place before the authorities. When they had brought them before the magistrates, they said, 'These men are disturbing our city; they are Jews and are advocating customs that are not lawful for us as Romans to adopt or observe.' The crowd joined in attacking them, and the magistrates had them stripped of their clothing and ordered them to be beaten with rods. After they had given them a severe flogging, they threw them into prison and ordered the jailer to keep them securely. Following these instructions, he put them in the innermost cell and fastened their feet in the stocks.

About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them. Suddenly there was an earthquake, so violent that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened and everyone's chains were unfastened. When the jailer woke up and saw the prison doors wide open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself, since he supposed that the prisoners had escaped. But Paul shouted in a loud voice, 'Do not harm yourself, for we are all here.' The jailer called for lights, and rushing in, he fell down trembling before Paul and Silas. Then he brought them outside and said, 'Sirs, what must I do to be saved?' They answered, 'Believe on the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household.' They spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his house. At the same hour of the night he took them and washed their wounds; then he and his entire family were baptized without delay. He brought them up into the house and set food before them; and he and his entire household rejoiced that he had become a believer in God.

Hear the word of the Lord,

Thanks be to God.

PSALM 97

Please respond with the words in bold type.

The Lord is king; let the earth rejoice:
let the multitude of islands be glad.

Clouds and darkness are round about him:
righteousness and justice
are the foundation of his throne.

Fire goes before him:
and burns up his enemies on every side.

His lightnings light the world:
the earth sees it and quakes.

The mountains melt like wax before his face:
from before the face of the Lord of all the earth.

The heavens have proclaimed his righteousness:
and all peoples have seen his glory.

They are ashamed, all those who serve idols
and glory in mere nothings:
all gods bow down before him.

Zion heard and was glad,
and the daughters of Judah rejoiced:
because of your judgements, O God.

For you, Lord, are most high over all the earth:
you are exalted far above all gods.

The Lord loves those that hate evil:
the Lord guards the life of the faithful,
and delivers them from the hand of the ungodly.

Light dawns for the righteous:
and joy for the true of heart.

Rejoice in the Lord, you righteous:
and give thanks to his holy name.

SECOND READING

REVELATION 22.12-22

A reading from the book of Revelation.

Jesus said, 'See, I am coming soon; my reward is with me, to repay according to everyone's work. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end.'

Blessed are those who wash their robes, so that they will have the right to the tree of life and may enter the city by the gates. Outside are the dogs and sorcerers and fornicators and murderers and idolaters, and everyone who loves and practises falsehood.

'It is I, Jesus, who sent my angel to you with this testimony for the churches. I am the root and the descendant of David, the bright morning star.'

The Spirit and the bride say, 'Come.'

And let everyone who hears say, 'Come.'

And let everyone who is thirsty come.

Let anyone who wishes take the water of life as a gift.

I warn everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: if anyone adds to them, God will add to that person the plagues described in this book; if anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God will take away that person's share in the tree of life and in the holy city, which are described in this book.

The one who testifies to these things says, 'Surely I am coming soon.'

Amen. Come, Lord Jesus!

The grace of the Lord Jesus be with all the saints. Amen.

Hear the word of the Lord,

Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL

JOHN 17.20-26

The Lord be with you.

And with thy spirit.

The Holy Gospel is written in the 17th Chapter of the Gospel according to John, beginning at verse 20.

Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Jesus prayed, 'I ask not only on behalf of these, but also on behalf of those who will believe in me through their word, that they may all be one. As you, Father, are in me and I am in you, may they also be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me. The glory that you have given me I have given them, so that they may be one, as we are one, I in them and you in me, that they may become completely one, so that the world may know that you have sent me and have loved them even as you have loved me. Father, I desire that those also, whom you have given me, may be with me where I am, to see my glory, which you have given me because you loved me before the foundation of the world.

'Righteous Father, the world does not know you, but I know you; and these know that you have sent me. I made your name known to them, and I will make it known, so that the love with which you have loved me may be in them, and I in them.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to thee, O Christ.

HYMN – THE HEAD THAT ONCE WAS CROWNED WITH THORNS

(ST MAGNUS)

1. The head that once was crowned with thorns
Is crowned with glory now;
A royal diadem adorns
The mighty victor's brow.
2. The highest place that Heav'n affords
Is his, is his by right,
The King of Kings and Lord of Lords,
And Heav'n's eternal light.
3. The joy of all who dwell above,
The joy of all below,
To whom he manifests his love
And grants his name to know.
4. To them, the cross, with all its shame,
With all its grace is giv'n;
Their name an everlasting name,
Their joy the joy of Heav'n.
5. They suffer with their Lord below,
They reign with him above;
Their profit and their joy to know
The myst'ry of his love.
6. The cross he bore is life and health,
Tho' shame and death to him;
His people's hope, his people's wealth,
Their everlasting theme.

Thank you for worshipping with us today.

Retreat

Gawler Anglicans Parish is offering six places for anyone who would like to join their retreat at Sevenhill Retreat Centre, near Clare, from 29 July – 1 August 2025. Cost is $435. If you are keen to attend, please contact the Rev'd Jack Monaghan on 0460 309 172 or via email curate@gawleranglicans.org.

Sound System Update

We are continuing to work with AVI (the company that installed the AV system) in regard to some alterations to the system software, and we are training users such that we get the best possible outcome. We are planning for aesthetic works to hide cabling and conduits and we are also looking forward to rolling out systems for hearing augmentation in the Cathedral. However, we are waiting to install wired internet (which is currently being planned) into the Cathedral before this happens. If you are in need of hearing assistance, or if you have feedback, please contact Tim Sargeant at timjsargeant@gmail.com, or Bishop Chris McLeod.

Roofing Works

During the works to renew the roofing of the lower transept, there may be some unscheduled changes to our weekday services.
