

BCP Eucharist

The Sixth Sunday after Epiphany

8:00am 14 February 2021

Welcome: As the world continues to wait anxiously for effective and widespread coronavirus vaccines, we turn today to a number of healing stories in the Bible. I've always found that of Naaman and Elisha very poignant (and today it is spread across both morning and evening services – see 2 Kings 5). Leprosy is mentioned over and over again in biblical literature, knowing no boundaries and affecting people and communities at random. In an interesting link with our continued attention to hand-washing and sanitising, Naaman is told to bathe in the river. Along with the development of vaccines, anti-biotics and all the other paraphernalia in the medical basket, provision of reliable and clean water is an important component for overall community health.

Each year the Australian Anglican Board of Mission makes known the particular projects it is supporting (some are short-term, others much longer term). Among them are the installation of water tanks in PNG and teaching people how to dig traditional Zai pits in water-starved regions of Kenya. Take time to explore ABM's projects for 2021

Come and be washed in the love of God as we worship the great Healer today.

CATHEDRAL

Please leave the post-it note on your seat as a marker for the cleaners.

Please kneel/sit

Let us pray.

Almighty God, unto whom all hearts be open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnify thy holy name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Our Lord Jesus Christ said:

Hear O Israel, The Lord our God is one Lord; and thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength.

This is the first commandment. And the second is like, namely this: Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

There is none other commandment greater than these. On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.

Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

The Lord be with you. And with thy spirit.

The Collect

Everliving God, your Son, Jesus Christ, healed the lepers and brought good news to the despised and outcast: grant us your gifts of compassion and self-control, that in serving others in their need we may strive for the imperishable wreath that you bestow on all who truly love you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Please sit for the first reading: 2 Kings 5:1-14 (read by Ros Clarke)

Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Aram, was a great man and in high favour with his master, because by him the Lord had given victory to Aram. The man, though a mighty warrior, suffered from leprosy. ² Now the Arameans on one of their raids had taken a young girl captive from the land of Israel, and she served Naaman's wife. ³ She said to her mistress, 'If only my lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his leprosy.' ⁴ So Naaman went in and told his lord just what the girl from the land of Israel had said. ⁵ And the king of Aram said, 'Go then, and I will send along a letter to the king of Israel.'

He went, taking with him ten talents of silver, six thousand shekels of gold, and ten sets of garments. ⁶ He brought the letter to the king of Israel, which read, 'When this letter reaches you, know that I have sent to you my servant Naaman, that you may cure him of his leprosy.' ⁷ When the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, 'Am I God, to give death or life, that this man sends word to me to cure a man of his leprosy? Just look and see how he is trying to pick a quarrel with me.'

⁸ But when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, he sent a message to the king, 'Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come to me, that he may learn that there is a prophet in Israel.' ⁹ So Naaman came with his horses and chariots, and halted at the entrance of Elisha's house. ¹⁰ Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, 'Go, wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored and you shall be clean.' ¹¹ But Naaman became angry and went away, saying, 'I thought that for me he would surely come out, and stand and call on the name of the Lord his God, and would wave his hand over the spot, and cure the leprosy! ¹² Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them, and be clean?' He turned and went away in a rage. ¹³ But his servants approached and said to him, 'Father, if the prophet had commanded you to do something difficult, would you not have done it? How much more, when all he said to you was, "Wash, and be clean"?' ¹⁴ So he went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God; his flesh was restored like the flesh of a young boy, and he was clean.

Hear the word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

Psalm 30

I will exalt you, O Lord, for you have drawn me up from the depths:
and have not suffered my foes to triumph over me.

O Lord my God, I cried to you:
and you have made me whole.

You brought me back, O Lord, from the land of silence:
you saved my life from among those that go down to the Pit.

Sing praises to the Lord, all you his faithful ones:
and give thanks to his holy name.

For if in his anger is havoc, in his good favour is life:
heaviness may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning.

In my prosperity I said 'I shall never be moved:
your goodness, O Lord, has set me on so firm a hill.'

Then you hid your face from me:
and I was greatly dismayed.

I cried to you, O God:
and made my petition humbly to my Lord.

'What profit is there in my blood, if I go down to the Pit:
can the dust give you thanks, or declare your faithfulness?

'Hear, O Lord, and be merciful:
O Lord, be my helper.'

You have turned my lamentation into dancing:
you have put off my sackcloth and girded me with joy,

That my heart may sing your praise and never be silent:
O Lord my God, I will give you thanks for ever.

Second reading: 1 Corinthians 9:24-27 (read by Ian Clarke)

Do you not know that in a race the runners all compete, but only one receives the prize? Run in such a way that you may win it. ²⁵ Athletes exercise self-control in all things; they do it to receive a perishable garland, but we an imperishable one. ²⁶ So I do not run aimlessly, nor do I box as though beating the air; ²⁷ but I punish my body and enslave it, so that after proclaiming to others I myself should not be disqualified.

Hear the word of the Lord, thanks be to God.

Please stand for the Gospel: Mark 1:40-45

The Lord be with you

And with thy spirit

The Holy Gospel is written in the 1st Chapter of the Gospel according to Mark, beginning at the 40th verse

Glory be to thee, O Lord

A leper came to him begging him, and kneeling he said to him, 'If you choose, you can make me clean.' ⁴¹ Moved with pity, Jesus stretched out his hand and touched him, and said to him, 'I do choose. Be made clean!' ⁴² Immediately the leprosy left him, and he was made clean. ⁴³ After sternly warning him he sent him away at once, ⁴⁴ saying to him, 'See that you say nothing to anyone; but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing what Moses commanded, as a testimony to them.' ⁴⁵ But he went out and began to proclaim it freely, and to spread the word, so that Jesus could no longer go into a town openly, but stayed out in the country; and people came to him from every quarter.

This is the Gospel of the Lord, Praise be to thee, O Christ

Please remain standing for the Creed

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, And of all things visible and invisible:

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, Begotten of his Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, Very God of very God, Begotten, not made, Being of one substance with the Father, By whom all things were made: Who for us, and for our salvation came down from heaven, And was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary, And was made man, And was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate. He suffered death and was buried, And the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures, And ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of the Father. And he shall come again with glory to judge both the quick and the dead: Whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Ghost, The Lord and giver of life, Who proceedeth from the Father and the Son, Who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified, Who spake by the Prophets.

And I believe One Holy Catholick and Apostolick Church. I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins. And I look for the Resurrection of the dead, And the Life of the world to come. Amen.

Please sit for the Sermon: The Rev'd Dr Lynn Arnold AO

Silence may follow, during which final preparations are done on the altar.

Please kneel/sit for the Intercessions

Almighty and everliving God, we are taught by your holy apostle to make prayers and supplications and to give thanks for all people: we ask you in your mercy to accept our alms and oblations and to receive our prayers which we offer to your divine majesty.

We pray that you will lead the nations of the world in the ways of righteousness and peace, and guide their rulers in wisdom and justice for the tranquility and good of all. Bless especially your servant Elizabeth our Queen, her representatives and ministers, her parliaments, and all who exercise authority in this land.

Grant that they may impartially administer justice, restrain wickedness and vice, and uphold integrity and truth.

We beseech you to inspire continually the universal Church with the spirit of truth, unity, and concord; and grant that all who confess your holy name may agree in the truth of your holy word, and live in unity and godly love.

Give grace, heavenly Father, to all bishops and other ministers especially Geoff our Archbishop, Denise, Tim and Chris our bishops, that, by their life and doctrine, they may set forth your true, life-giving word, and rightly and duly administer your holy sacraments. And to all your people give your heavenly grace, and especially to this congregation here present, that they may receive your word with meek hearts and due reverence and serve you in holiness and righteousness all the days of their life.

We ask you of your goodness, Lord, to comfort and sustain all who in this transitory life are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity.

We also bless your holy name for all your servants who have died in the faith of Christ. Give us grace to follow their good examples, that with them we may be partakers of your heavenly kingdom.

Grant this, Father, for Jesus Christ's sake, our only mediator and advocate. Amen.

The Priest then turns to the people and says:

Ye that do truly and earnestly repent you of your sins, and are in love and charity with your neighbours, and intend to lead a new life, following the commandments of God, and walking from henceforth in his holy ways; Draw near with faith, and take this Holy Sacrament to your comfort; and make your humble confession to Almighty God, meekly kneeling upon your knees.

The General Confession

Almighty God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Maker of all things, Judge of all: We acknowledge and bewail our manifold sins and wickedness, Which we from time to time most grievously have committed, By thought, word, and deed, Against thy Divine Majesty, Provoking most justly thy wrath and indignation against us. We do earnestly repent, And are heartily sorry for these our misdoings; The remembrance of them is grievous unto us; The burden of them is intolerable. Have mercy upon us, Have mercy upon us, most merciful Father; For thy Son our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, Forgive us all that is past; And grant that we may ever hereafter Serve and please thee In newness of life, To the honour and glory of thy Name; Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Absolution

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who of his great mercy hath promised forgiveness of sins to all them that with hearty repentance and true faith turn unto him; Have mercy upon you; pardon and deliver you from all your sins; confirm and strengthen you in all goodness; and bring you to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Comfortable words

Hear what comfortable words our Saviour Christ saith unto all that truly turn to him. Come unto me all that travail and are heavy laden, and I will refresh you.

St Matthew 11:28

So God loved the world, that he gave his only-begotten Son, to the end that all that believe in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

St John 3:16

Hear also what Saint Paul saith:

This is a true saying, and worthy of all to be received, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.

1 Timothy 1:15

Hear also what Saint John saith:

If anyone sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; and he is the propitiation for our sins.

1 St John 2:1

Let us pray: The Prayer of Humble Access

We do not presume to come to this thy Table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in thy manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under thy Table. But thou art the same Lord, whose property is always to have mercy: Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of thy dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that our sinful bodies may be made clean by his body, and our souls washed through his most precious blood, and that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

The Preface and Sanctus

The Lord be with you; And with thy spirit.

Lift up your hearts; We lift them up unto the Lord.

Let us give thanks unto our Lord God; It is meet and right so to do.

It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto thee, O Lord, Holy Father, Almighty, Everlasting God.

Therefore with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious Name; evermore praising thee, and saying,

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of hosts, heaven and earth are full of thy glory: Glory be to thee, O Lord most High.

Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

The Prayer of Consecration

All glory be to thee, Almighty God, our heavenly Father, for that thou of thy tender mercy didst give thine only Son Jesus Christ to suffer death upon the Cross for our redemption; who made there (by his one oblation of himself once offered) a full, perfect, and sufficient sacrifice, oblation, and satisfaction for the sins of the whole world; and did institute, and in his Holy Gospel command us to continue, a perpetual memory of that his precious death, until his coming again:

Hear us, O merciful Father, we most humbly beseech thee, and with thy Holy and Life-giving Spirit vouchsafe to bless and sanctify both us and these thy gifts of Bread and Wine, that they may be unto us the Body and Blood of thy Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ, to the end that we, receiving the same, may be strengthened both in body and soul.

Who, in the same night that he was betrayed, took Bread; and when he had given thanks, he brake it, and gave it to his disciples, saying,

Take, eat, this is my body which is given for you: do this in remembrance of me.

Likewise after supper he took the Cup; and, when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying,

Drink ye all of this, for this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the remission of sins: do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of me.

The Prayer of Oblation

Wherefore, O Lord and heavenly Father, we thy humble servants, having in remembrance the precious death and passion of thy dear Son, his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension, according to his holy institution, entirely desire thy fatherly goodness mercifully to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving; most humbly beseeching thee to grant, that by the merits and death of thy Son Jesus Christ, and through faith in his blood, we and all thy whole Church may obtain remission of our sins, and all other benefits of his passion.

And here we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, ourselves, our souls and bodies, to be a reasonable, holy, and lively sacrifice unto thee; humbly beseeching thee, that all we, who are partakers of this Holy Communion, may be fulfilled with thy grace and heavenly benediction.

And although we be unworthy, through our manifold sins, to offer unto thee any sacrifice, yet we beseech thee to accept this our bounden duty and service; not weighing our merits, but pardoning our offences,

Through Jesus Christ our Lord; by whom, and with whom, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, all honour and glory be unto thee, O Father Almighty, world without end.

Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

As our Saviour Christ hath commanded and taught us we are bold to say:

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, in earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, For ever and ever. Amen.

The peace of the Lord be always with you
And with thy spirit.

Agnus Dei

O Lamb of God that takest away the sins of the world; have mercy upon us.

O Lamb of God that takest away the sins of the world; have mercy upon us.

O Lamb of God that takest away the sins of the world; grant us thy peace.

Behold the Lamb of God; behold him that taketh away the sin of the world.

Baptised and communicant Christians of all denominations are welcome to receive Holy Communion. Communion will be administered at the nave platform in one kind (bread) only. Please follow the guidance of stewards and servers. If you do not wish to receive Holy Communion, you may like to come forward and receive a blessing (simply bow your head as a signal). Gluten free bread is available; please ask for this from the priest giving communion.

The Thanksgiving

Having now by faith received the precious Body and Blood of Christ, let us give thanks unto our Lord God.

Almighty and everliving God, we most heartily thank thee, for that thou dost vouchsafe to feed us, who have duly received these holy mysteries, with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ; and dost assure us thereby of thy favour and goodness towards us; and that we are very members incorporate in the mystical body of thy Son, which is the blessed company of all faithful people; and are also heirs through hope of thy everlasting kingdom, by the merits of the most precious death and passion of thy dear Son.

And we most humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father, so to assist us with thy grace, that we may continue in that holy fellowship, and do all such good works as thou hast prepared for us to walk in; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

Please stand for the Gloria in Excelsis

Glory be to God on high, and in earth peace, good will towards all. We praise thee, we bless thee, we worship thee, we glorify thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glory, O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty.

O Lord, the only-begotten Son Jesu Christ; O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Thou that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Thou that takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father, have mercy upon us.

For thou only art holy; thou only art the Lord; thou only, O Christ, with the Holy Ghost, art most high in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Please remain standing for the Blessing

The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you and remain with you always. Amen.

Please remain standing as the Clergy depart

FOR YOUR PRAYERS

A prayer for all affected by coronavirus

Keep us, good Lord, under the shadow of your mercy. Sustain and support the anxious, be with those who care for the sick, and lift up all who are brought low; that we may find comfort knowing that nothing can separate us from your love in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Amen.

Nomination Committee Update

We are pleased to advise members of the Cathedral community that the position of Dean has been advertised in the print and online version of The Melbourne Anglican newspaper, the most appropriate location for such notices in Australia. The advert can also be found on the Adelaide Anglicans website, here: <https://adelaideanglicans.com/contact-support/positions-vacant/>. We hope and pray that the advert and other networks will bring the position to the attention of suitable candidates.

The advert includes a link to the Cathedral Profile, which has been prepared by the Nomination Committee with input from the Cathedral Council. The profile gives information about the Cathedral, the diocese and the city of Adelaide, and about our expectations of candidates for the position. In preparing the profile, it was especially helpful that so many members of the Cathedral community took part in the NCLS survey before lockdown last year, so we were able to include well-founded data about the congregation and its values and priorities.

Please continue to pray for the Nomination Committee's work of identifying who God is calling to the role of Dean:

Bountiful God,
give to this parish a faithful pastor who will faithfully speak your word and minister your sacraments;
an encourager who will equip your people for ministry and enable us to fulfil our calling.
Give to those who will choose, wisdom,
discernment and patience,
and to us give warm and generous hearts,
for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

We continue to give thanks to God for the loving ministry of Dean Frank and Christine and hold them in our prayers as they prepare for the move to New Zealand after Easter.

COMMUNITY NOTICES

New to the Cathedral? Connect with us using the green Connect card or online

<http://www.stpeters-cathedral.org.au/connect-with-us/>

Sunday Night with Lynn Arnold: 7pm on 1079Life. Tonight, Lynn's guest will be Cathedral member Helen Williams talking about the Chip Packet Project.

Cathedral Visiting Hours: The Cathedral is open for visiting and private prayer. Opening hours are Tuesday to Saturday, 11am-3pm, and Mondays 11am-1pm.

Magdalene Centre Groceries: Sunday collections for the Magdalene Centre have resumed. Place your offering of long-life groceries in the baskets provided.

Exploring Faith Matters – EfM: Susie Clarke sj.clarke1@bigpond.com and Jan Tregenza jtregenza@walford.asn.au are the mentors for this challenging and exciting adult learning opportunity. Meeting on Thursdays at 6.30pm at the Cathedral, EfM invites in-depth reading and study of the Bible, Church History and ancient and contemporary issues and thinking in the Church.

Simnel Cake: A tradition associated with Mothering Sunday, celebrated this year on the 14th of March, is to enjoy Simnel cake. We are looking for people to bake a cake or two – please contact the Cathedral Office for the recipe and packaging instructions: events@stpeters-cathedral.org.au or phone 8267 4551.

A Bounty of Beanies: Cathedral member Jennifer Bailey has begun a beanie collection project and aims to donate 500 beanies to AnglicareSA. Can you help? You can knit, crochet, donate wool, or buy a beanie and donate it to this great cause. Please bring your beanies and/or wool to the Cathedral and place in the box underneath the shop desk. For further details, including pattern advice, please contact Jennifer by email on [blessings16@optusnet.com.au](mailto: blessings16@optusnet.com.au) Knitted squares for the ongoing blanket ministry are still very much appreciated. The beanie project will stop at 500, but the blanket ministry will continue.

Lenten Study Books – on sale in the Cathedral Shop: Our Lent Studies this year will commence on Mon Feb 22nd following Ash Wednesday on Feb 17th. Studies will be led by Canon Jenny on Mondays at 10am and by Rev'd Dr Lynn Arnold on Mondays at 7pm. We will be studying Rowan Williams' book 'Candles in the Dark'. This powerful and timely book brings together 26 weekly Christian meditations originally posted online from March to September 2020, during lockdown in the first wave of the COVID-19 pandemic, for the congregation of Bp Rowan's local parish church. We will find 'Candles in the Dark' a book of insight and comfort as we journey through Lent this year. 'Candles in the Dark' is now available at the Cathedral Shop for $20. Please email Rachel on events@stpeters-cathedral.org.au to register.

Keeping the Cathedral Open to Visitors:

More volunteers are needed to ensure the Cathedral remains open. Please consider joining this important ministry. In February we are looking to fill the following places:
Wednesday 24 February: 11am - 1pm
Every Saturday afternoon 1pm - 3pm
Please call the Cathedral Office on 8267 4551 if you can assist.

Dates for your Diary: As well as other notices in today's service sheets, please note the following dates:

17 February - Ash Wednesday

21 March - Annual Vestry Meeting followed by Cathedral family farewell to Dean Frank and Christine

4 April - Easter Day and Dean Frank's final service as Dean, Evensong at 6.00pm.

Following some holiday time in SA and quarantine in New Zealand, Frank and Christine will move to Dargaville, north of Auckland, where Frank will be vicar of the parish of North Wairoa.

A Gift for Frank and Christine: Frank and Christine are busy making their arrangements to move to New Zealand, including all the complications of quarantine. One very important ticket they need to buy is for their cat, Viva, and it turns out that pet travel is even more expensive than human travel! Viva has been a much-loved member of the Cathedral community (as well as a celebrated author!) As part of the Cathedral's parting gift to Frank and Christine in gratitude for their eight years with us, we plan to pay for Viva's relocation to their new life in Dargaville. We have opened a special bank account for this gift collection. If you would like to donate by electronic bank transfer, please use the following bank details:

BSB: 705-077

Account No: 00041316

Account name: St Peter's Cathedral Special Collections

If you would like to contribute by cash or cheque, please put your gift in a clearly marked envelope and drop it into the collection box on Sunday, or into the office during the week. It will also be possible to use EFTPOS at the shop on Sunday mornings.

Thank you for your donations.
